DUKE BLUE DEVILS FOOTBALL

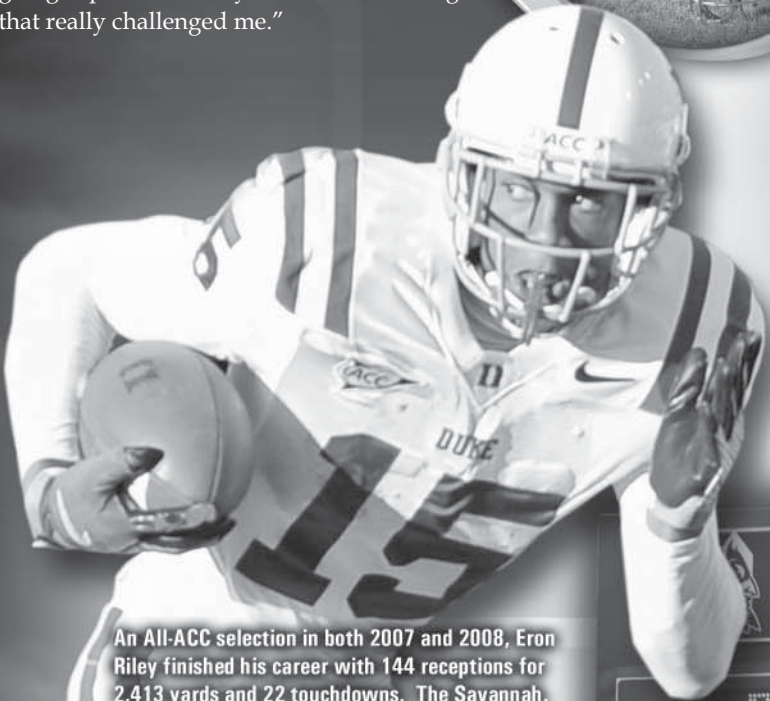

In 2003, Duke University re-joined approximately 50 other Southern universities in presenting the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award. This award program, sponsored by the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Foundation, recognizes one graduating senior for his or her outstanding commitment to service. Greg Akinbiyi (right), a four-year letterman at defensive end for the Blue Devils, received the honor in April, 2009. "When I came here I realized I could make a difference. I'm at Duke University. I never imagined coming to a university like this. And then having the opportunity to give back, to really engage people, instead of just playing video games and going to practice all day — it was something that really challenged me."

Under the direction of first-year head coach David Cutcliffe, quarterback Thaddeus Lewis earned All-ACC honors in 2008 after throwing for 2,171 yards and 15 touchdowns.

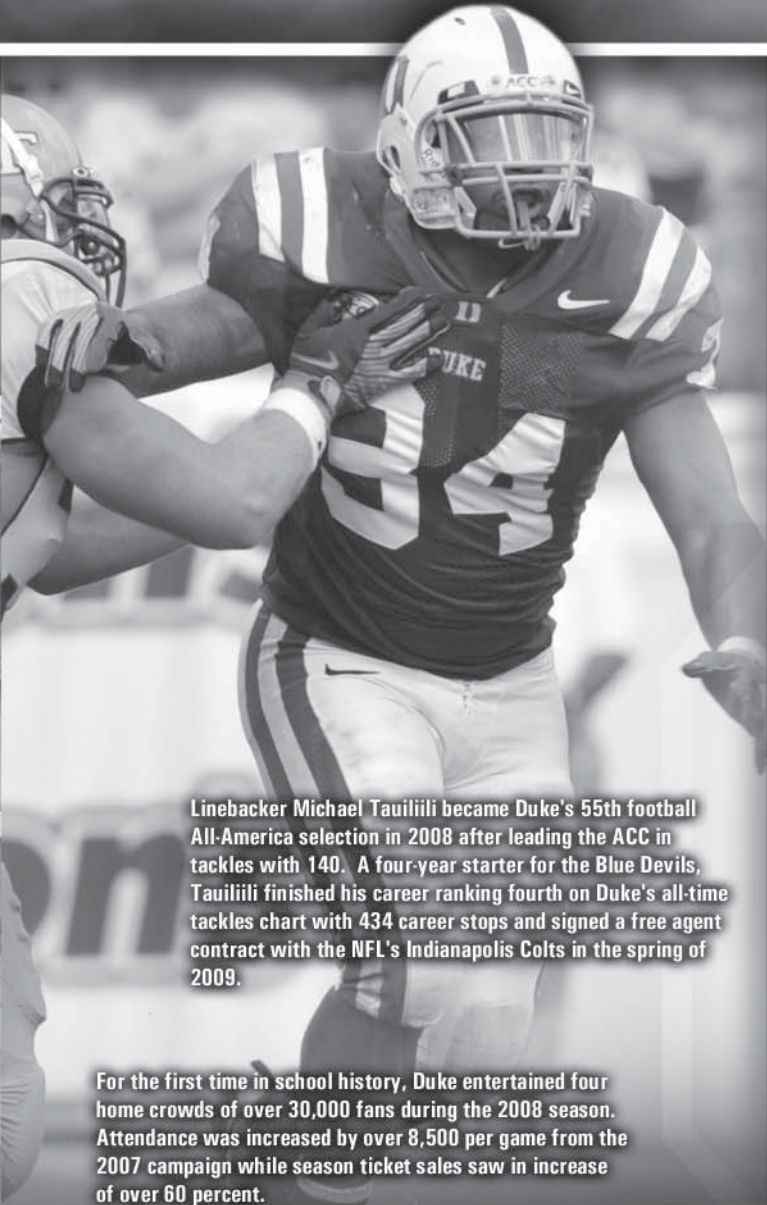

Spearheaded by a 31-3 victory over ACC-rival Virginia on September 27, 2008, the Blue Devils won three home games in the month of September for the first time since 1994.

An All-ACC selection in both 2007 and 2008, Eron Riley finished his career with 144 receptions for 2,413 yards and 22 touchdowns. The Savannah, Ga., product signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Baltimore Ravens following his senior season.

Linebacker Michael Tauiiili became Duke's 55th football All-America selection in 2008 after leading the ACC in tackles with 140. A four-year starter for the Blue Devils, Tauiiili finished his career ranking fourth on Duke's all-time tackles chart with 434 career stops and signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Indianapolis Colts in the spring of 2009.

For the first time in school history, Duke entertained four home crowds of over 30,000 fans during the 2008 season. Attendance was increased by over 8,500 per game from the 2007 campaign while season ticket sales saw an increase of over 60 percent.

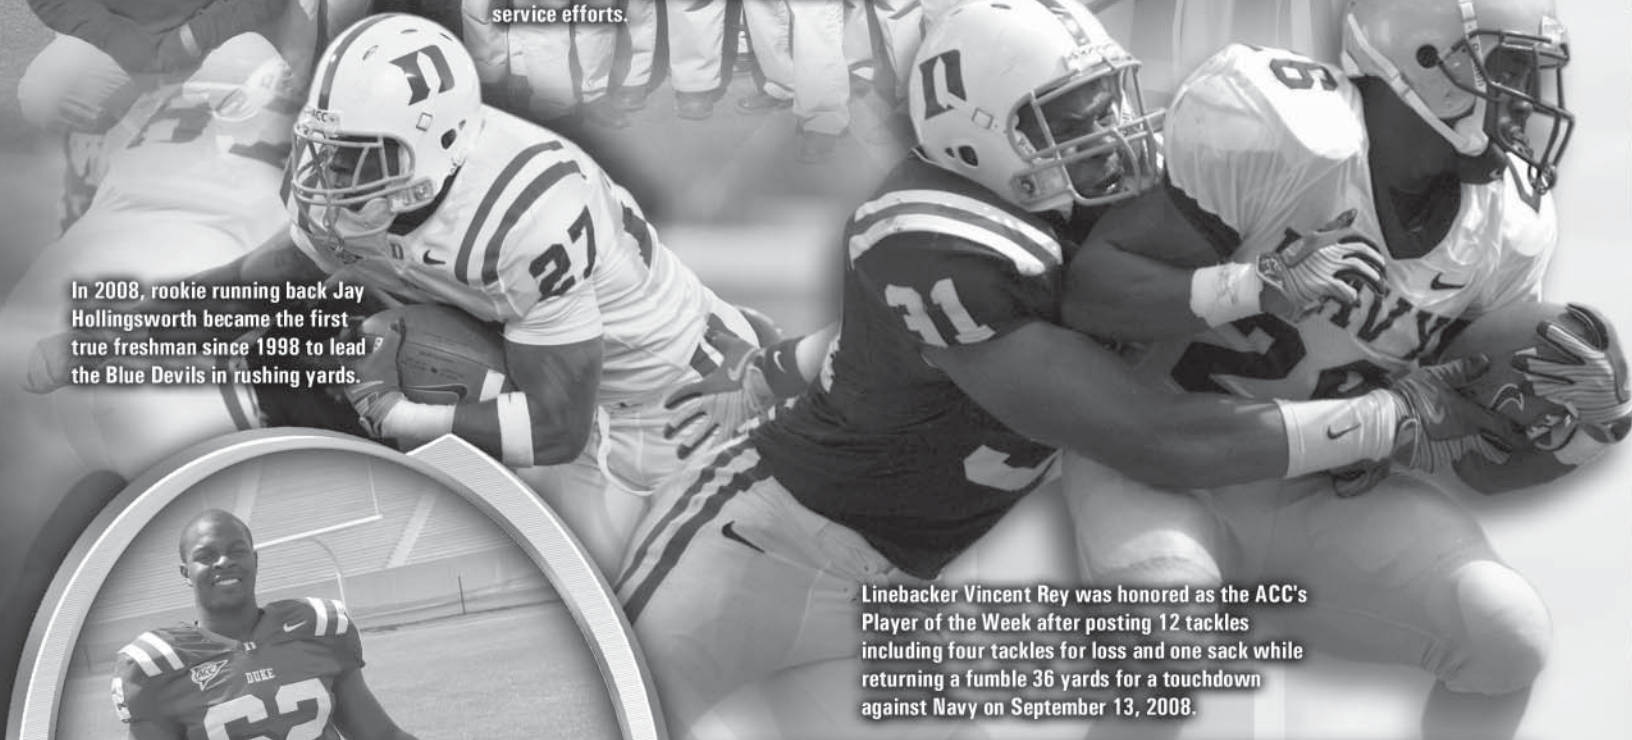

On April 17, 2009, Steve Brooks (left) and Bob Pascal (right) combined to make a $10 million commitment to the Duke football program. "Duke University, and the football program in particular, is grateful to have the tremendous support of Steve Brooks and Bob Pascal," Blue Devil head coach David Cutcliffe said. "Their generosity to our program is paralleled only by the Yoh family. We are proud to call Steve and Bob members of the Duke football family. The maxim for our program is the "Pursuit of Excellence", and certainly Steve and Bob exemplify that motto themselves. This financial commitment, especially considering the current state of the economy, is truly remarkable and speaks volumes to their loyalty and passion for Duke."

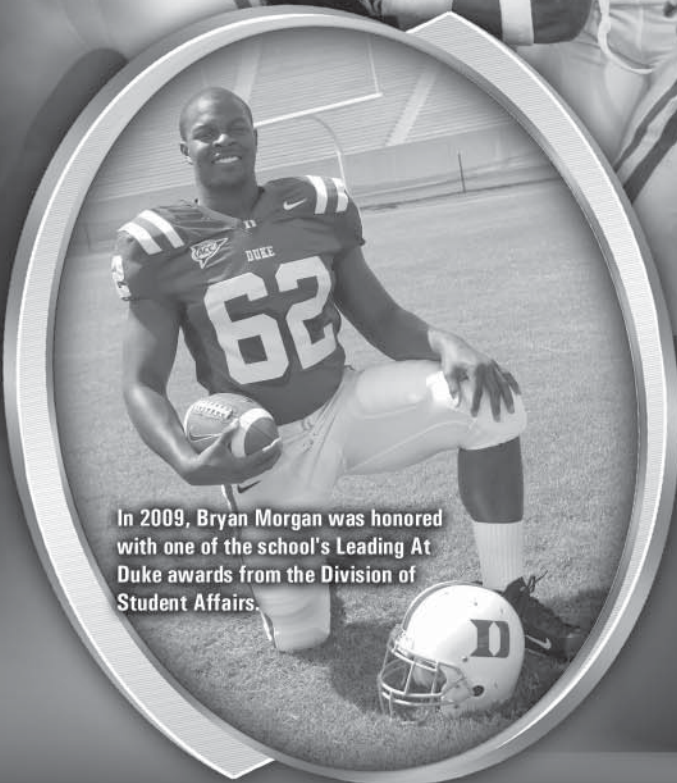

Re'quan Boyette was named to the 2008 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Good Works team for his community service efforts.

In 2008, rookie running back Jay Hollingsworth became the first true freshman since 1998 to lead the Blue Devils in rushing yards.

Linebacker Vincent Rey was honored as the ACC's Player of the Week after posting 12 tackles including four tackles for loss and one sack while returning a fumble 36 yards for a touchdown against Navy on September 13, 2008.

In 2009, Bryan Morgan was honored with one of the school's Leading At Duke awards from the Division of Student Affairs.

GRADUATION

In 2009, Duke's football program was honored by the NCAA with a Public Recognition Award. The awards are presented each year to teams finishing among the top 10 percent of their respective sport based on the most recent multi-year Academic Performance Rate (APR). Duke had the only football program in the ACC qualify for the award and was one of just three schools from the six BCS conferences honored. In addition, Duke was one of 12 Division I institutions to have 12 or more sports honored, joining Colgate, Dartmouth, Georgetown, Harvard, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Princeton, Notre Dame, Pennsylvania and Yale.

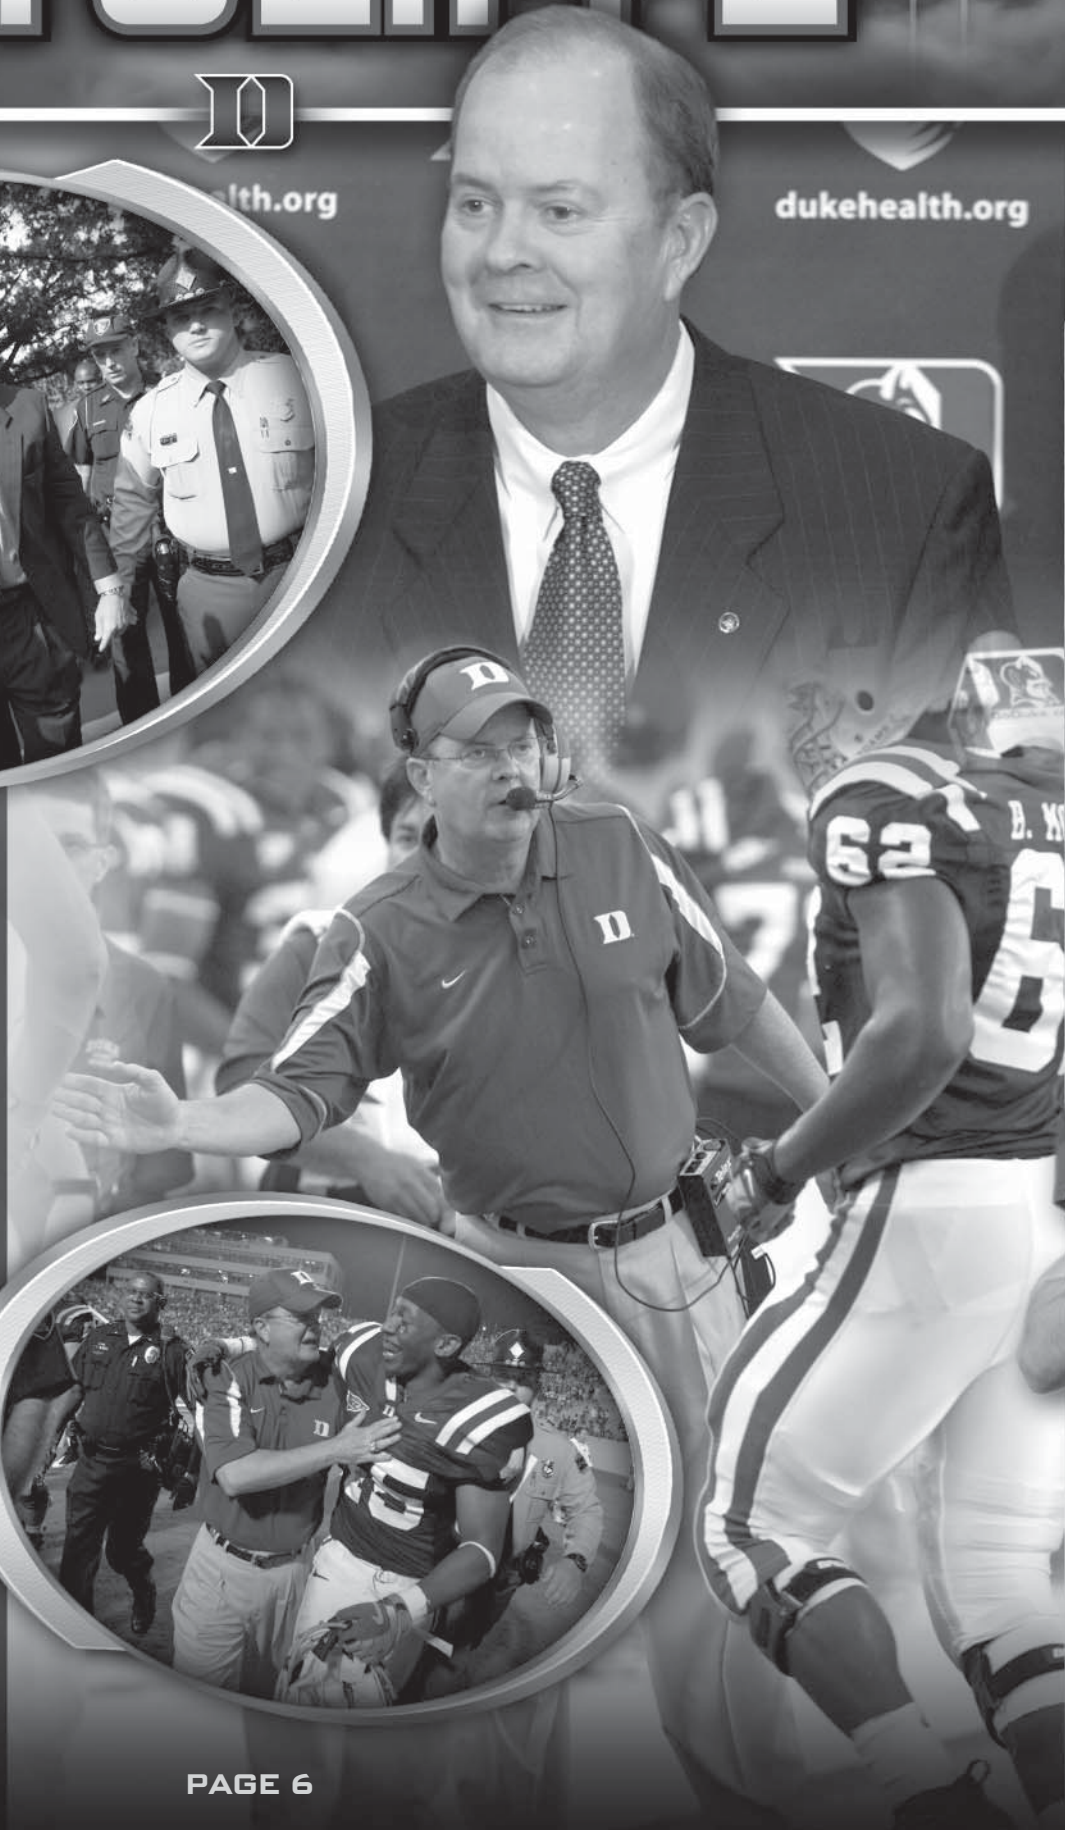

A starter in all 12 games, Kyle Hill earned second team Freshman All-America honors in 2008 from Sporting News.

dukehealth.org

- Introduced as Duke's 21st head football coach on December 15, 2007
- Spent 19 seasons (1982-98 & 2006-07) at Tennessee as the Volunteers went 173-54-7, captured five SEC championships and the 1998 national title
- With Cutcliffe as offensive coordinator, Tennessee scored 30 or more points in 62-of-100 games, posting a 59-3 (.952) ledger in those contests
- Guided Ole Miss to a 44-29 record from 1998-04 including the 2003 SEC Western Division championship and victory over Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl
- 2003 SEC Coach of the Year
- 1998 Frank Broyles Award recipient as the nation's top assistant coach
- Has participated in 22 bowl games, compiling a 4-1 record as a head coach
- Mentored two of the past three Super Bowl MVPs in Peyton Manning (Tennessee) and Eli Manning (Ole Miss)

"Coach Cutcliffe has been unbelievably instrumental in my football career. He has taught me a lot about playing quarterback and about football. We still talk football. I still call him for advice on certain a coverage or philosophy on some sort of football concept. I'm happy to see he is a head coach again."

No. 1 Overall Selection, 1998 NFL Draft
NFL MVP, 2003, 2004 & 2008
MVP, Super Bowl XLI

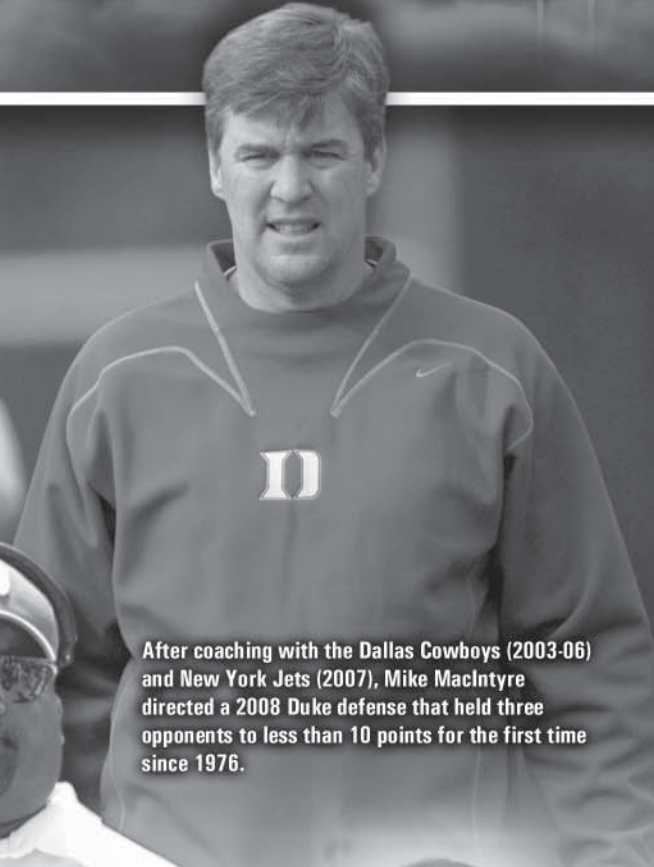

"The greatest thing about Coach Cutcliffe is his ability to teach the game of football. He works so well with quarterbacks in particular, and teaches you how to lead your team from that position. He works hard, is dedicated and has a passion for winning. I know his teams will be well prepared for anything that happens in a game."

DUKE FOOTBALL COACHING STAFF

A former team captain at Ole Miss, Matt Luke's offensive line allowed just 22 sacks in 2008 compared to 45 in the previous season.

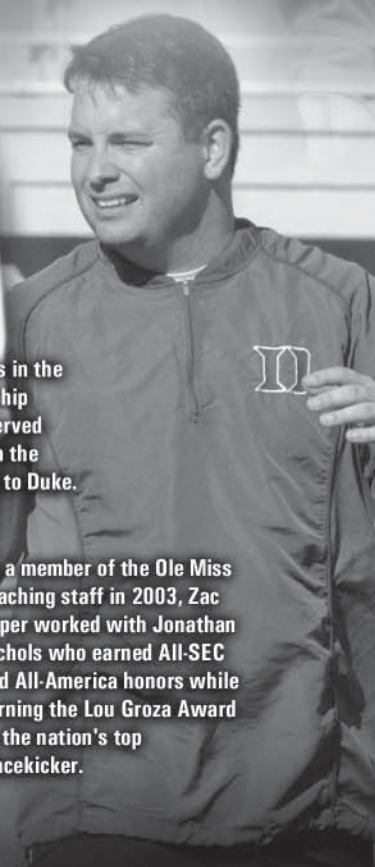

After coaching with the Dallas Cowboys (2003-06) and New York Jets (2007), Mike MacIntyre directed a 2008 Duke defense that held three opponents to less than 10 points for the first time since 1976.

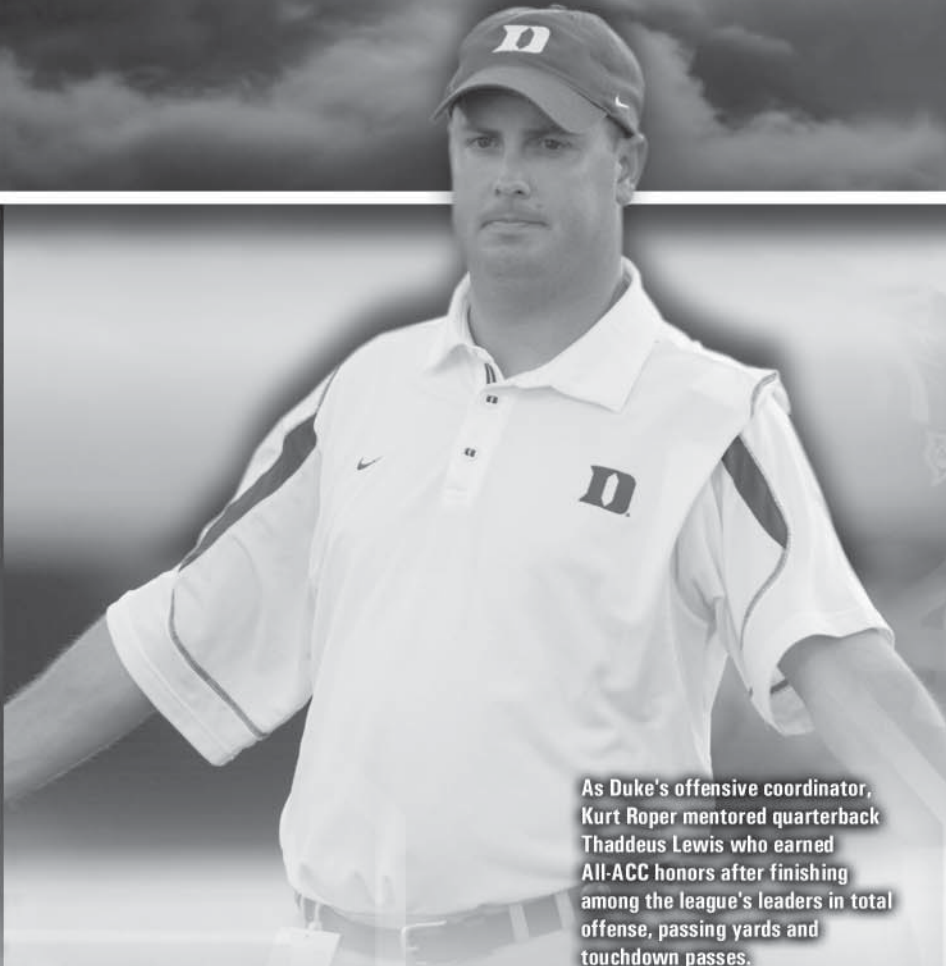

Ron Middleton, who played 10 seasons in the NFL and won a Super Bowl championship ring with the Washington Redskins, served three years as an assistant coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before coming to Duke.

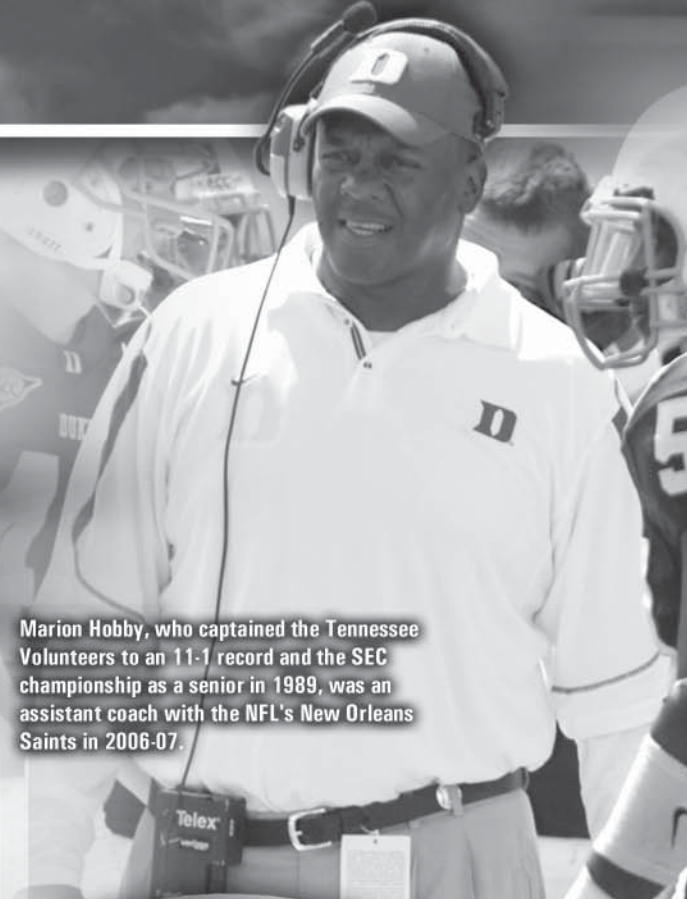

Scottie Montgomery, one of the best players to ever play at Duke evident by his pair of team MVP trophies, played four seasons in the NFL with Denver and Oakland and coached All-ACC wide receiver Eron Riley in 2008.

As a member of the Ole Miss coaching staff in 2003, Zac Roper worked with Jonathan Nichols who earned All-SEC and All-America honors while earning the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top placekicker.

As Duke's offensive coordinator, Kurt Roper mentored quarterback Thaddeus Lewis who earned All-ACC honors after finishing among the league's leaders in total offense, passing yards and touchdown passes.

Marion Hobby, who captained the Tennessee Volunteers to an 11-1 record and the SEC championship as a senior in 1989, was an assistant coach with the NFL's New Orleans Saints in 2006-07.

A coaching veteran of over 30 seasons, Jim Collins helped Florida win the national championship in 1996 and later coached two seasons with the NFL's Washington Redskins.

A former All-SEC cornerback during his playing days at Ole Miss, Derek Jones served on coaching staffs at both Memphis and Tulsa and helped both programs to bowl games.

2009 DUKE

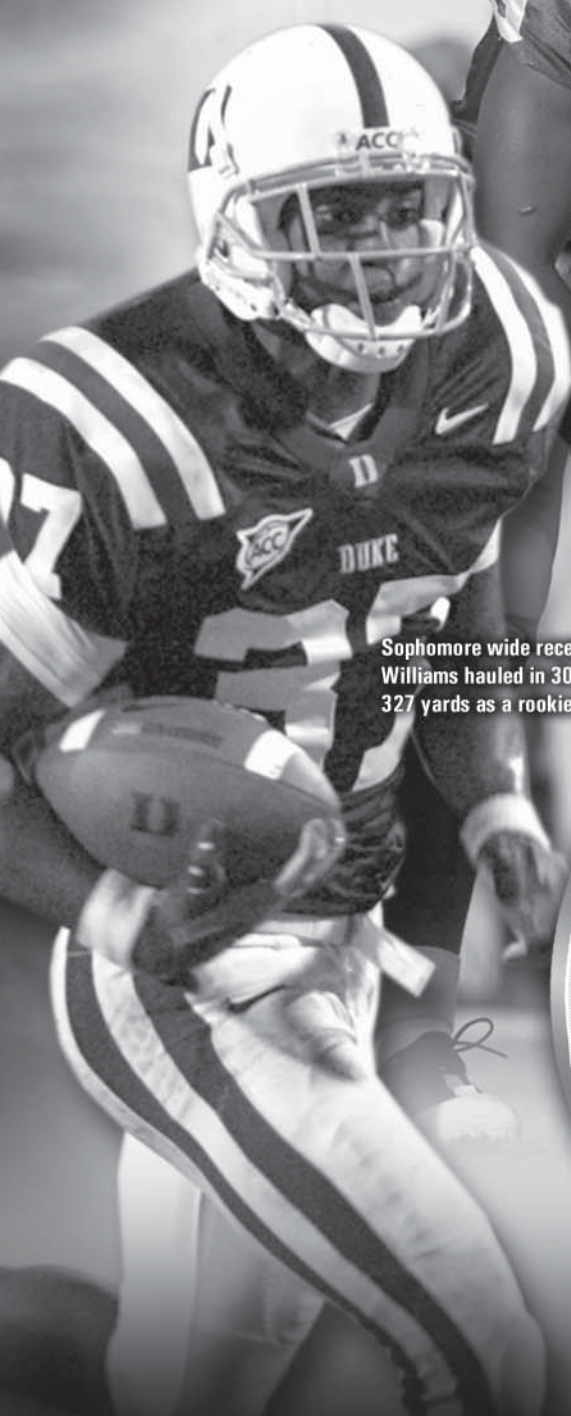

OFFENSE

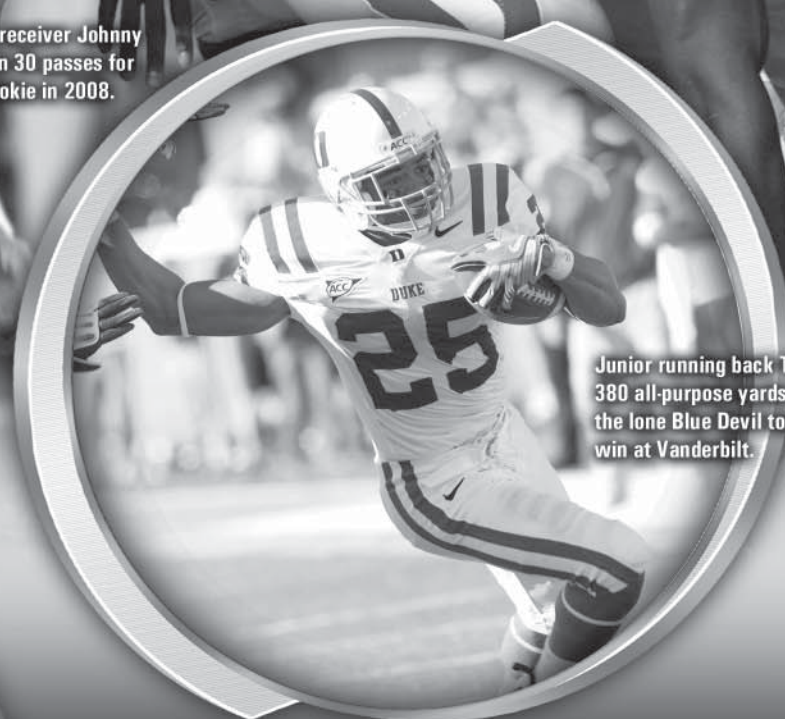

Senior quarterback Thaddeus Lewis received All-ACC accolades in 2008 after throwing for 2,171 yards and 15 touchdowns. He is the league's active leader in passing yards and touchdown passes.

Junior center Bryan Morgan anchors the Duke offensive front. He started all 12 games last year.

Sophomore wide receiver Johnny Williams hauled in 30 passes for 327 yards as a rookie in 2008.

Junior running back Tony Jackson compiled 380 all-purpose yards last season and scored the lone Blue Devil touchdown in Duke's 10-7 win at Vanderbilt.

Senior running back Re'quan Boyette (far right) and junior tight end Brandon King both return to the field after missing the entire 2008 season. Boyette led Duke in rushing in both 2006 and 2007 while King had four touchdown receptions in 2007.

Junior tight end Brett Huffman caught 14 passes for 171 yards and one touchdown in 2008.

Sophomore running back Jay Hollingsworth led Duke in rushing last season while catching 25 passes out of the backfield.

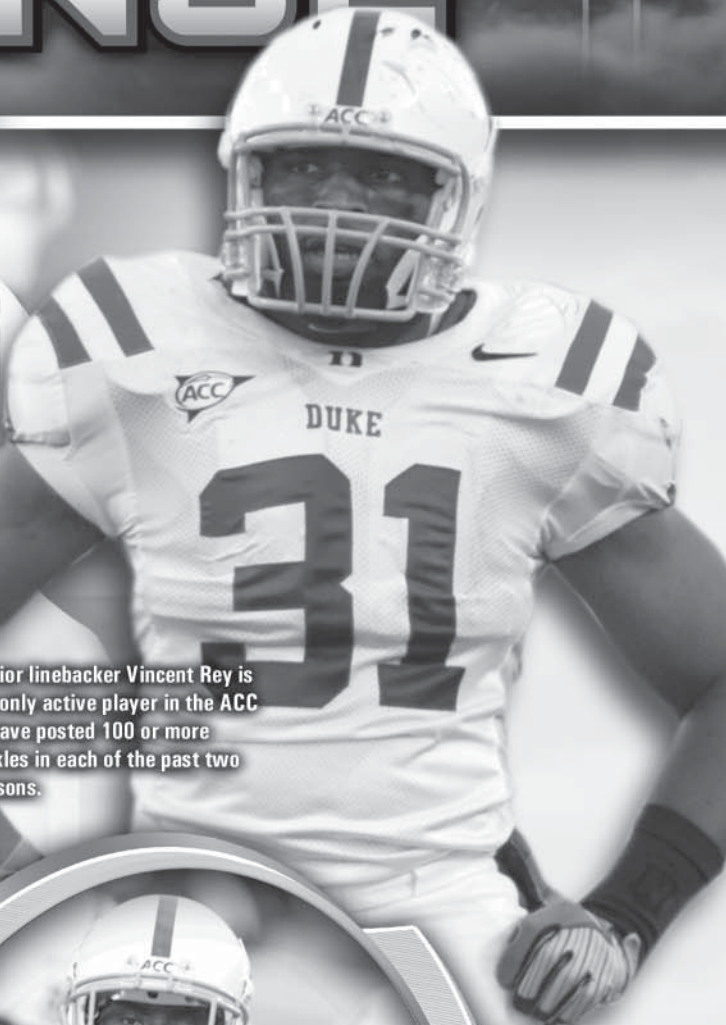

Junior wide receiver Sheldon Bell had 14 receptions in 2008.

Sophomore Kyle Hill earned Second Team Freshman All-America honors in 2008 after starting all 12 games at guard. The Orlando, Fla., native moves to tackle for the 2009 campaign.

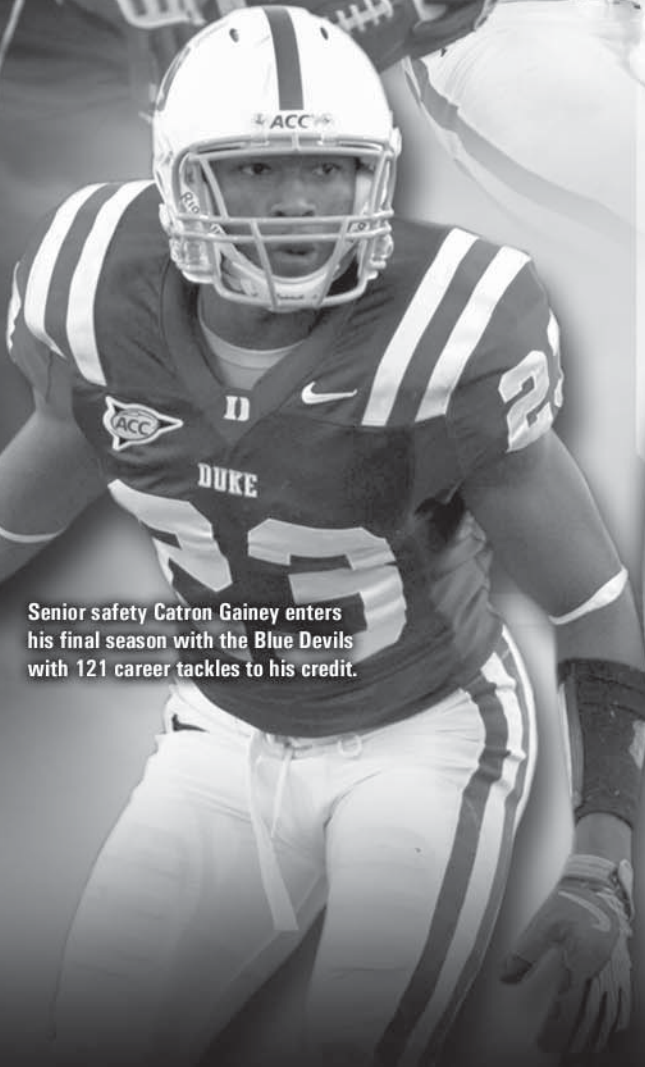

2009 DUKE DEFENSE

Senior defensive end Ayanga Okpokowuruk enjoyed a 7-tackle, 2-sack performance in Duke's 10-7 win at Vanderbilt last year.

Senior linebacker Vincent Rey is the only active player in the ACC to have posted 100 or more tackles in each of the past two seasons.

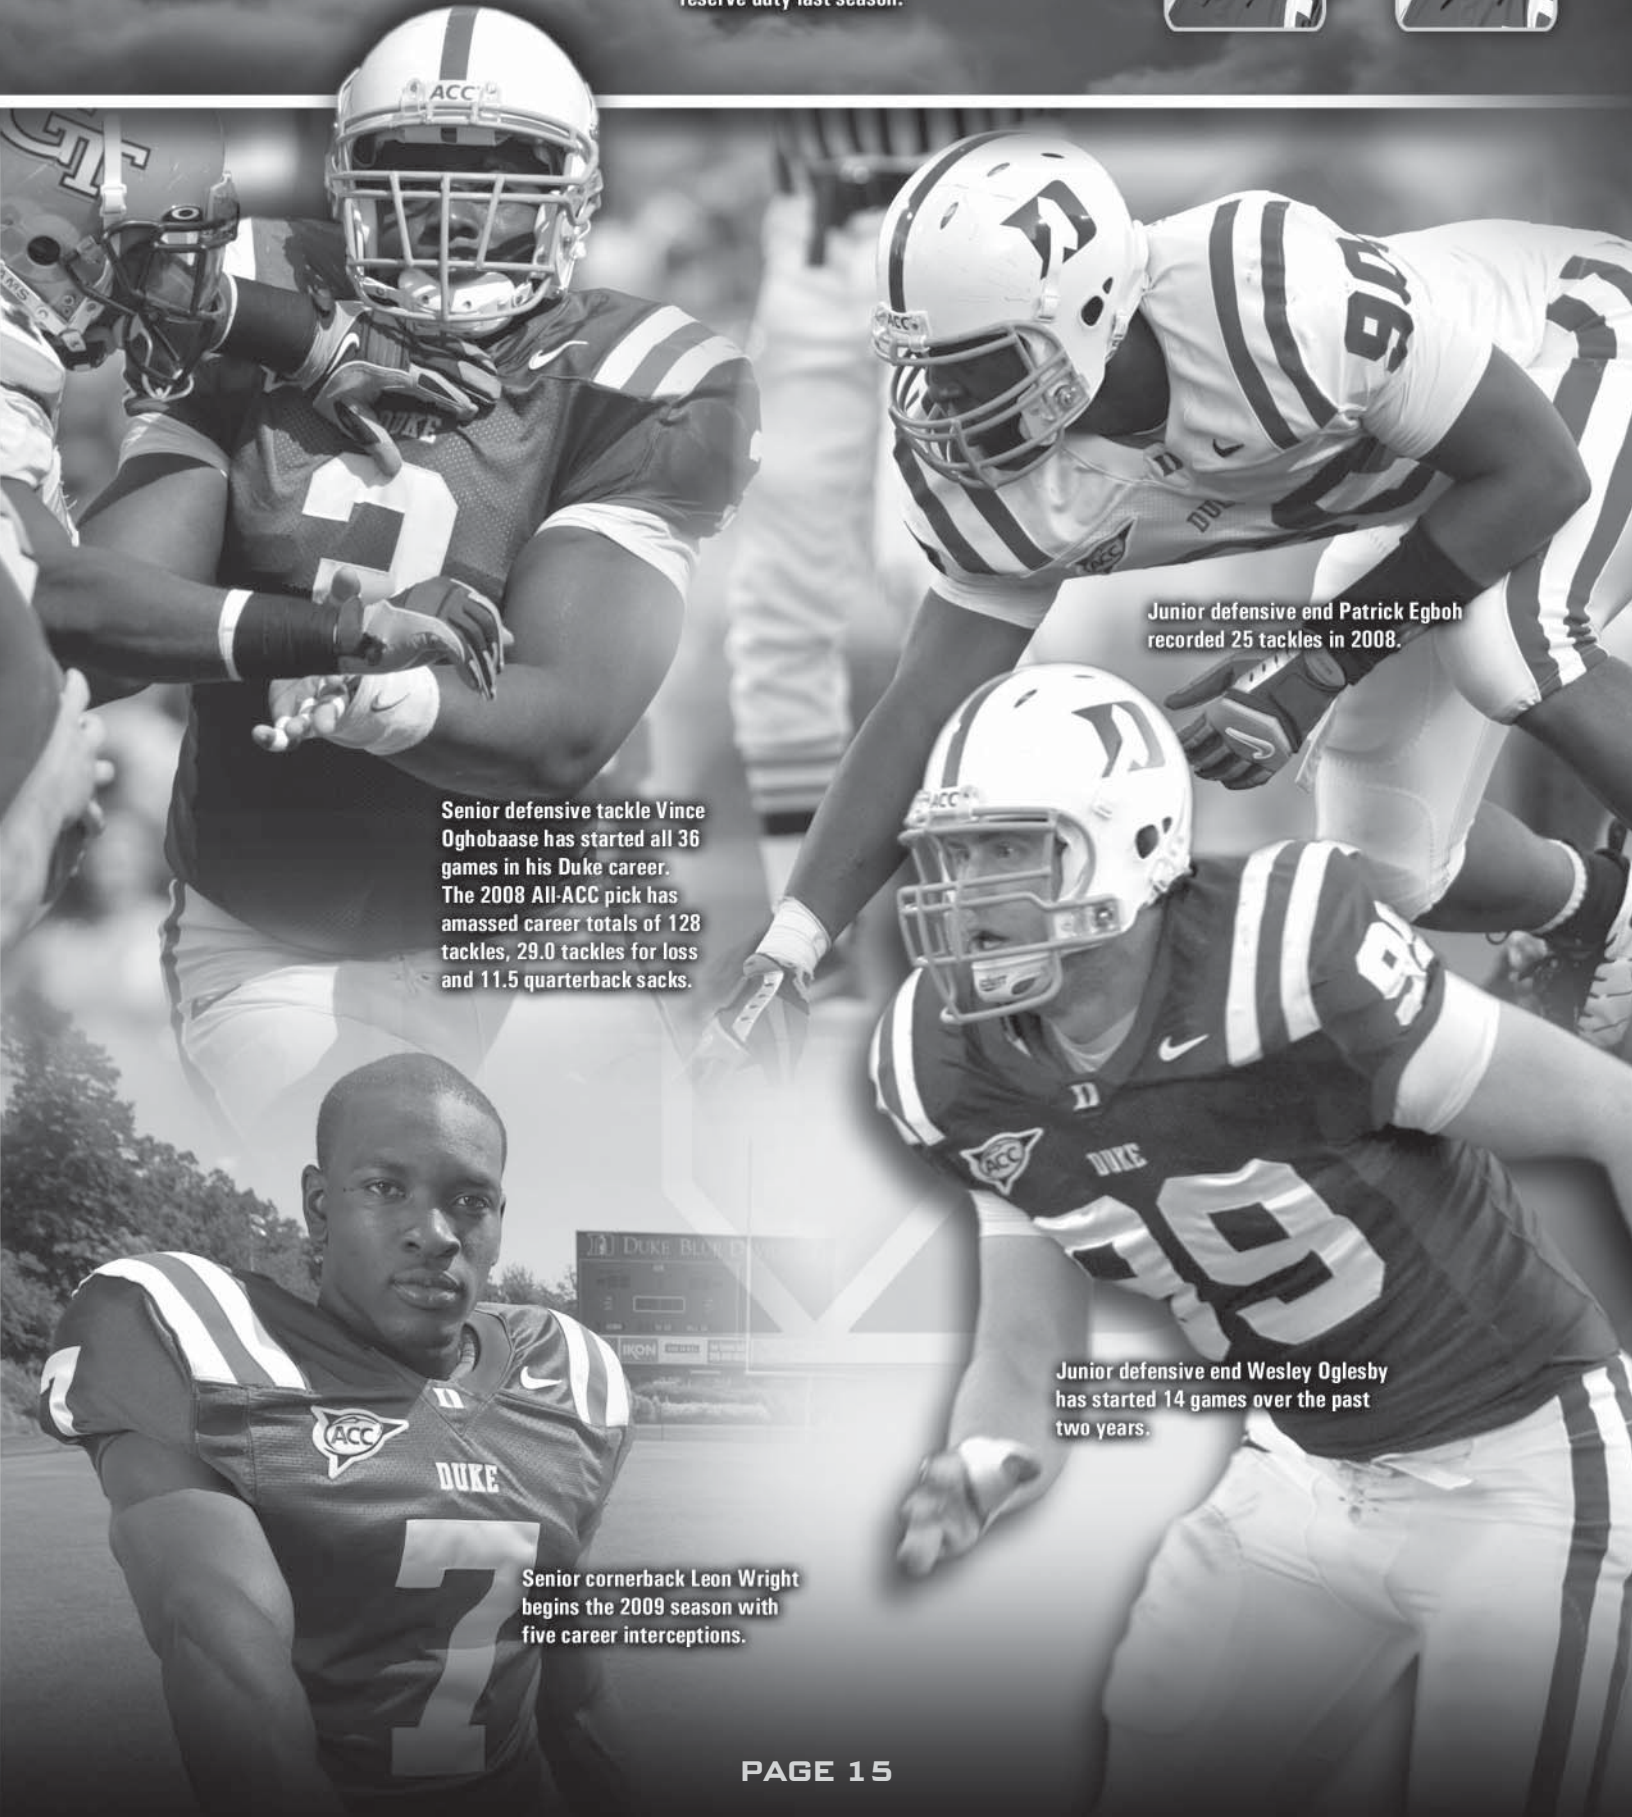

Senior safety Catron Gainey enters his final season with the Blue Devils with 121 career tackles to his credit.

Chris Rwabukamba's interception on Vanderbilt's final offensive snap secured Duke's 10-7 win over the Commodores. The junior cornerback finished the year with 26 tackles and five pass breakups.

Sophomore nose guard Charlie Hatcher (far right) and junior linebacker Abraham Kromah enter the 2009 season as starters for Duke's defensive unit. Both players were credited for 13 tackles in reserve duty last season.

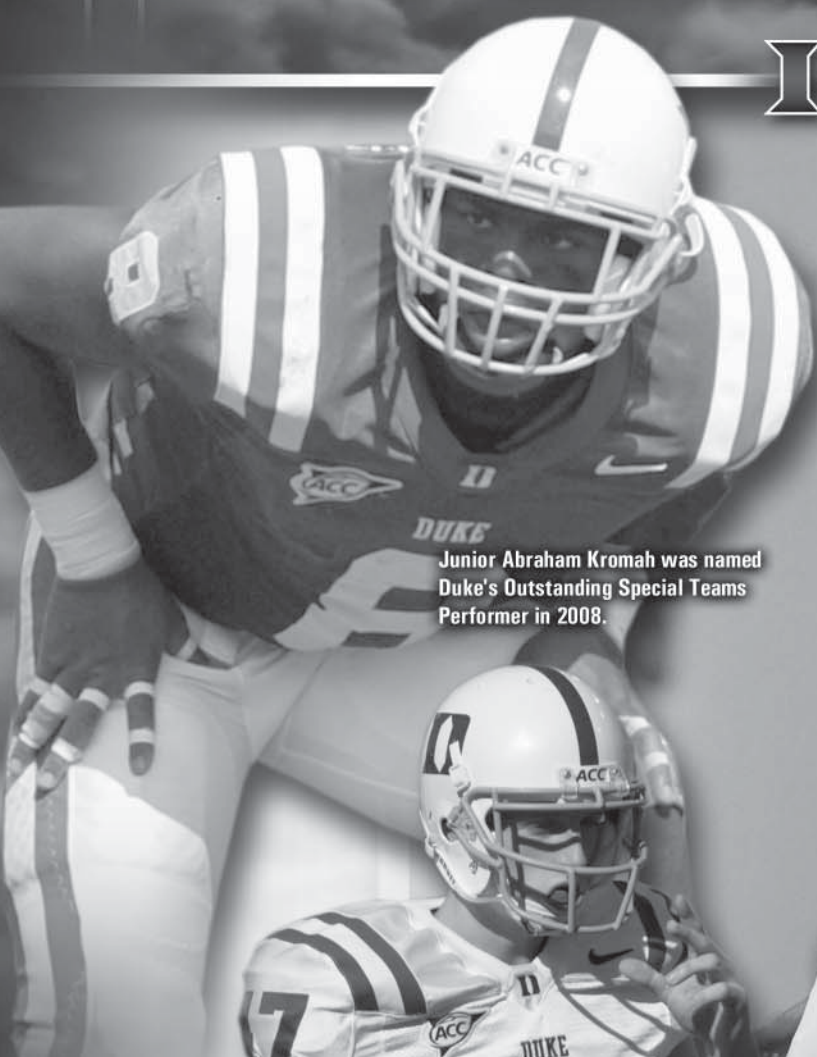

Senior defensive tackle Vince Oghobaase has started all 36 games in his Duke career. The 2008 All-ACC pick has amassed career totals of 128 tackles, 29.0 tackles for loss and 11.5 quarterback sacks.

Junior defensive end Wesley Oglesby has started 14 games over the past two years.

Senior cornerback Leon Wright begins the 2009 season with five career interceptions.

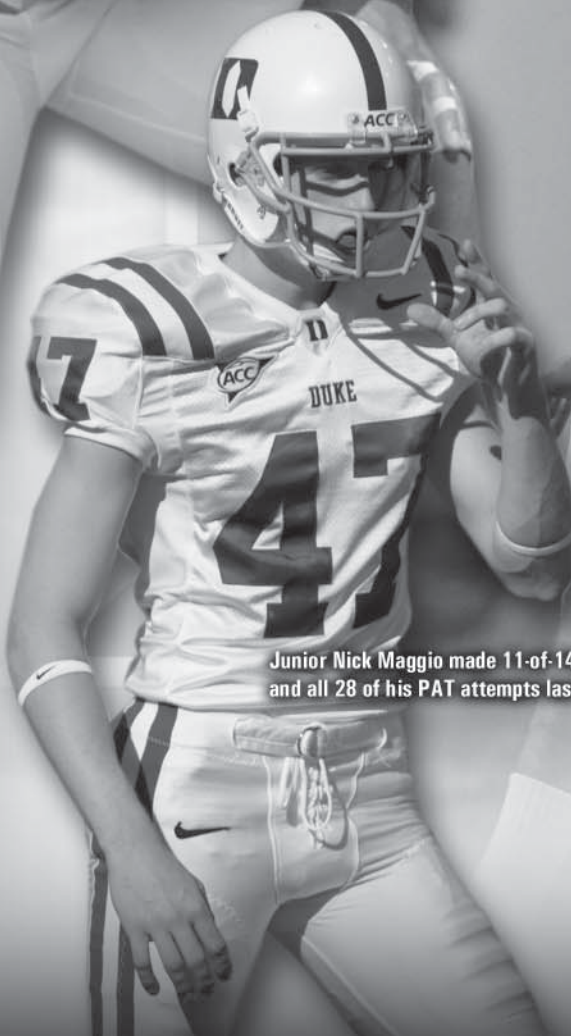

2009 DUKE SPECIAL TEAMS

Junior Abraham Kromah was named Duke's Outstanding Special Teams Performer in 2008.

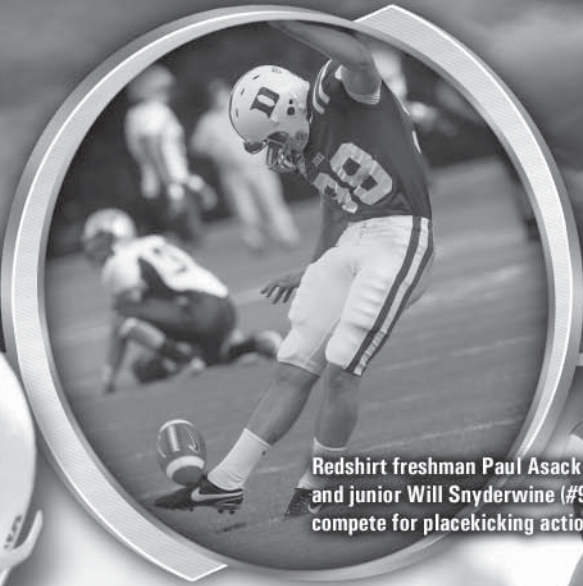

Junior Kevin Jones ranked second in the ACC with his 40.8 yards per punt average in 2008.

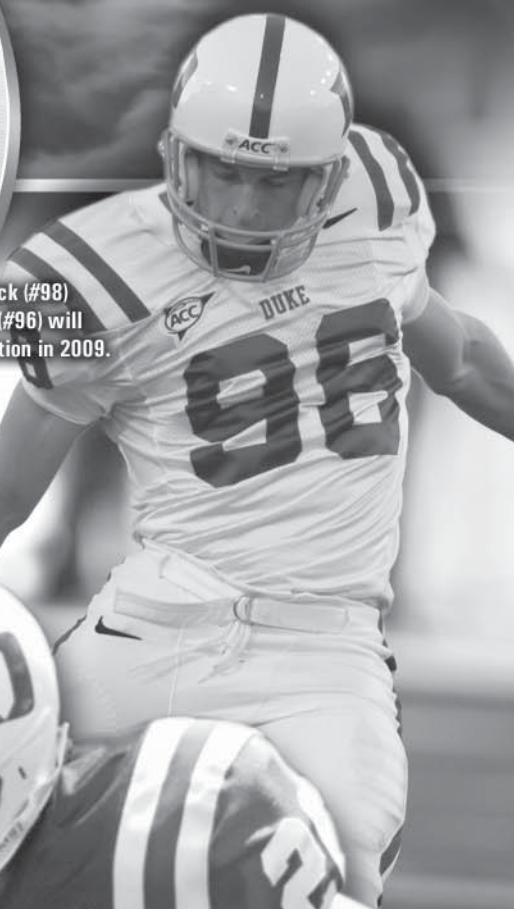

Junior Nick Maggio made 11-of-14 field goals and all 28 of his PAT attempts last season.

In 2008, sophomore Chris Shannon (#63) handled Duke's snapping chores in 2008 while sophomore Matt Daniels (#40) logged 22 tackles with one interception.

Redshirt freshman Paul Asack (#98) and junior Will Snyderwine (#96) will compete for placekicking action in 2009.

Senior Leon Wright has 206 career punt return yards to his credit.

Sophomore Donovan Varner averaged 6.2 yards per punt return last year.

Sophomore Lee Butler led the Blue Devils in punt return yardage last season.

THE DUKE DIFFERENCE

■ Duke has won the award for the highest graduation rate in college football a record 12 times from the American Football Coaches Association.

■ Duke head coach David Cutcliffe has enjoyed tremendous success in his 26 seasons on the sidelines. The 2003 SEC Coach of the Year, Cutcliffe helped Tennessee and Ole Miss to 22 bowl games and mentored Super Bowl MVPs Peyton and Eli Manning. Cutcliffe has participated in 22 bowl games in his coaching career and is 4-1 (.800) in bowl contests as a head coach.

■ Over the past four years, Duke has placed more student-athletes – 22 – on the Academic All-ACC Football team than any other league school.

■ Duke University is ranked eighth in the 2009 U.S. News & World Report listing for America's Best Colleges.

■ In 2009, an ACC-leading 12 of Duke's intercollegiate athletic programs were honored with NCAA Public Recognition Awards. The awards are presented each year to teams finishing among the top 10 percent of their respective sport based on the most recent multi-year Academic Performance Rate (APR). Duke's 12 programs that received the honor include baseball, men's basketball, men's cross country, women's fencing, football, men's golf, men's soccer, women's soccer, men's swimming and diving, men's indoor track and field, men's outdoor track and field and volleyball. Boston College was second among league schools with 11 teams honored, followed by North Carolina (6), Virginia (5), Wake Forest (5), Miami (4), Georgia Tech (3), N.C. State (2), Florida State (1), Maryland (1), Virginia Tech (1) and Clemson (0).

■ Duke had the only football program in the ACC qualify for the NCAA Public Recognition award and was one of just three schools from the six BCS conferences honored, joining Rutgers and Stanford.

At Duke University, student-athletes are awarded the best possible college experience with a first rate combination of academics and athletics and have accepted the task of upholding the strong traditions put forth by their predecessors.

DUKE

UNIVERSITY

■ Duke University is an independent, comprehensive, non-sectarian research university that traces its roots to 1838, when it was established as Union Institute in Randolph County, North Carolina. Through the support of the Duke family and others, in 1892 the school – renamed Trinity College – was moved to Durham on what is now East Campus.

■ In 1924, Trinity College, a long-time beneficiary of Duke family generosity, became the nucleus of Duke University. With $21 million provided by James B. Duke as a memorial to his father, Washington Duke and the donation of land by Julian S. Carr, West Campus was created and East Campus was rebuilt.

■ Today, the Georgian architecture of East Campus and the Gothic-styled West Campus are part of a 9,350-acre campus that includes two undergraduate schools – Trinity college of Arts and Sciences and the Pratt School of Engineering – as well as eight graduate and professional schools, the world-renowned Duke University Medical Center, the 7,900-acre Duke Forest, and the beautiful 55-acre Sarah P. Duke Gardens.

■ Duke offers one of the most dynamic undergraduate academic experiences in the world. There are many different choices with majors, minors, certificate programs, Focus clusters and first-year seminars. The Duke education is structured and flexible, classic and contemporary, theoretical and realistic. Come with an open and curious mind, a readiness to challenge and to be challenged, and a willingness to take chances.

▶ Since opening in 2008, the Durham Performing Arts Center features world-class performers, spacious seating, state-of-the-art sound and lighting, and convenient parking. The venue hosts Broadway musicals, concerts, family shows and comedy acts and is located in Durham’s American Tobacco District.

In 2002, Employment Review Magazine ranked "The Triangle" area of Durham, Chapel Hill and Raleigh as the number one place in America to live and work. Money Magazine made the same selection in 1994.

▲ Brightleaf Square in downtown Durham is a turn-of-the-century tobacco warehouse renovated into a unique shopping, dining and entertainment district.

■ Located in the heart of North Carolina's rolling Piedmont region, Durham stands out as a gem among southern cities. Through the years, the city has evolved from a tobacco and textile town into an international center for medicine, scholarship, biotechnology and electronics.

■ Founded in 1853, Durham is widely recognized for its diversity. Originally a manufacturing center, the city now is known for excellence in medicine, education, research and industry. The wide range of activities available in the area lends the city a multifaceted appeal that strikes even first-time visitors.

■ Durham has a natural appeal as well, characterized by 98,000 acres of hardwood and evergreen forests including the only remaining old growth Piedmont bottomland forests and 7,800 acres of cropland. Hills and dales, meandering rivers and streams, several lakes, 26 rare plant species and several rare species of birds and animals can also be found here.

■ With 187,000 residents in the one-city county, Durham is the fourth-largest city in North Carolina. It is ideally located on the large and small scale. Within the immediate area it stands as the pinnacle of the "Triangle" region of North Carolina, a metropolitan population of 1,000,000 people that includes Chapel Hill to the south and west and Raleigh, the state capital, to the south and east. On a regional level, this area is the primary center of culture, sports, education and government between Washington, D.C., and Atlanta.

■ With excellent sports and cultural activities in the area, Durham is a fun place to be. People from all walks of life — academic, industrial, professional, agricultural — blend to provide a warm, rich sense of hospitality and diversity.

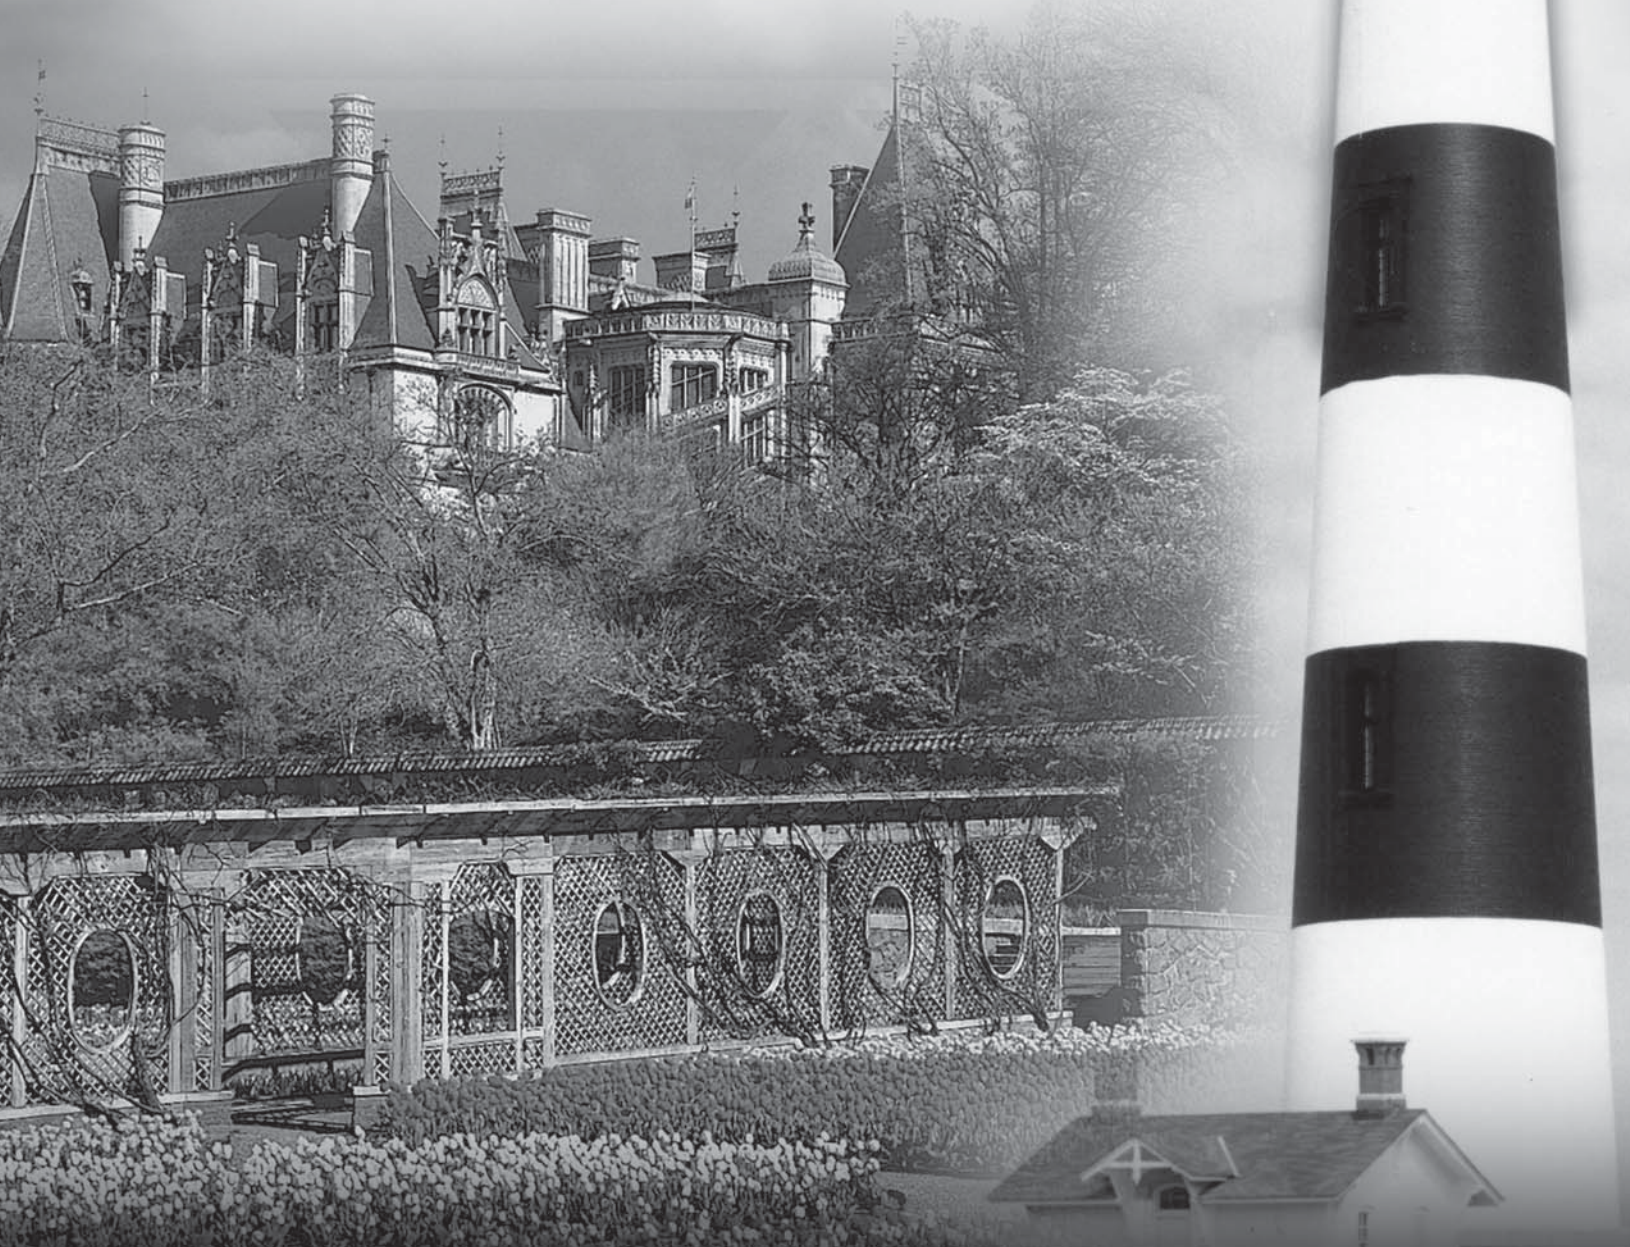

NORTH CAROLINA

FIRST IN FLIGHT

From the mountains to the west and the beaches of the Atlantic Ocean to the east, North Carolina's landscape is as diverse – and beautiful – as any state in the nation.

Millions of tourists come to North Carolina each year to take advantage of all the state has to offer.

■ North Carolina is a state of diversity — diversity in its population, in its economic production and in its beautiful scenery. According to the 2000 census, North Carolina was the home to more than eight million people of many nationalities.

■ Known for its major production of tobacco, North Carolina is also a major producer of textiles and furniture, fueled by the thousands of acres of forests that cover the state. Among its other leading products are broilers, hogs, turkeys, greenhouse products, sweet potatoes, corn, soybeans, peanuts and eggs. In addition, there are hundreds of coastal fisheries that yield shrimp, menhaden and crabs as the primary catches.

■ The scenery throughout the state is diverse and beautiful. From the mountains to the west and the beaches adjoining the Atlantic Ocean to the east, North Carolina is one of the nation's most picturesque states. Some of the major attractions in the state include the Great Smoky Mountains, the Blue Ridge National Parkway, the Cape Hatteras and Cape Lookout National Seashores, the Wright Brothers National Memorial at Kitty Hawk, Guilford Courthouse and Moores Creek National Military Parks. This scenery, enhanced by a mild climate with enough rainfall to assist with the state's abundant greenery, attracts millions of visitors who come to North Carolina annually to take advantage of its clean and uncluttered beaches, its string of forests and the mountain ranges in the western part of the state.

■ In recent years, North Carolina has become a favorite place for the entertainment industry. Some of the television shows and movies filmed in North Carolina include Cast Away (2001), The Green Mile (1999), Dawson's Creek (1997-2003), Kiss the Girls (1997), I Know What You Did Last Summer (1997), Forrest Gump (1998), The Fugitive (1993), The Last of the Mohicans (1992), Sleeping with the Enemy (1991), Bull Durham (1988) and Dirty Dancing (1987).

YOGI BERRA FOOTBALL CENTER

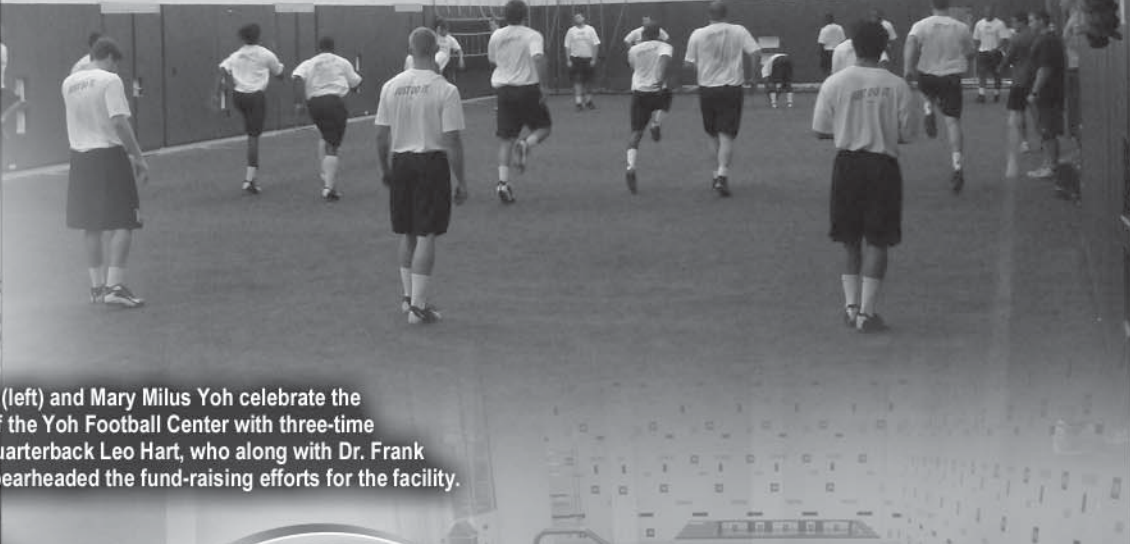

YOH

FOOTBALL CENTER

Spike Yoh (left) and Mary Milus Yoh celebrate the opening of the Yoh Football Center with three-time All-ACC quarterback Leo Hart, who along with Dr. Frank Bassett spearheaded the fund-raising efforts for the facility.

■ In August of 2002, the Duke football program moved into a new home — The Yoh Football Center. Located in the northeast corner of Wallace Wade Stadium, the $22 million, 70,000-square foot facility is named for the Yoh Family on the strength of Trustee Chairman Spike Yoh and Mary Milus Yoh's lead gift of $5.5 million.

■ The state-of-the art facility features a speed and agility room, lockerroom, coaches offices, a players' lounge and a memorabilia floor.

The completion of the building was celebrated with a ribbon-cutting dinner on August 30 — the night before Duke opened the 2002 season with a 24-16 victory over East Carolina — and a dedication dinner on October 4 during Homecoming Weekend.

Leadership Legacy

■ Over 750 gifts were received to fund the building of the Yoh Center, with over half coming from former Blue Devil football players. The Duke Football Campaign, the fund-raising effort for the facility, was spearheaded by the late Dr. Frank Bassett along with Leo Hart. Bassett, who served as Duke's team physician from 1966-93, was honored by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors with the organization's 2002 Volunteer of the Year Award. Hart, one of just three three-time first team All-ACC selections in Duke history, played quarterback for the Blue Devils from 1968-70 and continues to rank among the school's all-time passing leaders. In addition, tremendous support was given by the Gridiron Society chaired by Dr. Bob Deyton.

WALLACE WADE STADIUM

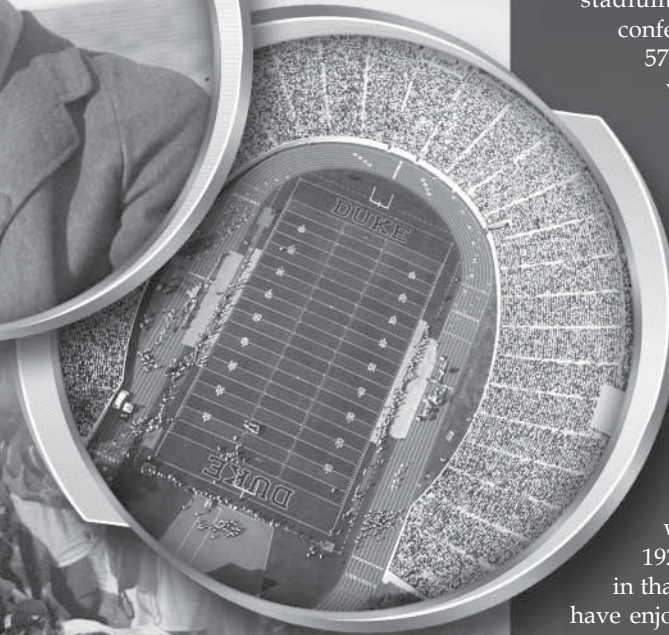

Wallace Wade Stadium also owns a special niche in college football history in that it is the only facility outside Pasadena, Calif., to host the Rose Bowl. The 1942 Rose Bowl came to Durham during World War II when gatherings of large crowds on the West Coast were dangerous. Oregon State defeated Duke 20-16 in the contest.

Today, in honor of that occasion, rose bushes from the Tournament of Roses Committee flank the bust of Wallace Wade at the stadium entrance.

In 2008, Duke hosted four crowds of 30,000 or more fans for the first time in school history.

■ Wallace Wade Stadium, home of the Duke Blue Devils since 1929, ranks among the finest collegiate football stadiums in the nation. It has been the home for 18 conference championship teams, eight bowl squads, 57 All-America players and over 200 Blue Devil victories.

■ Named for legendary Duke head coach Wallace Wade, Duke's stadium is one of the most comfortable in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The horseshoe-shaped structure, nestled among the greenery and towering pines of the surrounding Duke forest, features aluminum bench seating, newly remodeled rest rooms, a lighting system for evening and night games and a modern, computerized video scoreboard installed in 1998 and renovated in 2009.

■ The facility was known as Duke Stadium when it opened for the first time on October 5, 1929. The University of Pittsburgh defeated Duke in that first game, but since that time the Blue Devils have enjoyed a winning edge on their home turf. Duke owns a record of 209-170-7 in games played there, with 58 of the victories coming by shutout. The stadium seats 33,941 fans, making it an intimate – and picturesque – setting for bigtime college football.

■ In July of 1967, Duke's Board of Trustees approved the renaming of the stadium to honor Wade, who coached the Devils to a 110-36-7 record and two Rose Bowls. The dedication took place September 30, 1967.

■ Several improvements have been made to the stadium throughout the years, but none more important than the construction of the Yoh Football Center on the stadium's northeast corner. The Yoh Football Center, featuring new weight, training, meeting and locker rooms, an indoor workout facility, offices, an academic support area and a memorabilia area honoring Duke's football tradition, became the home to the Duke football program during the summer of 2002. It provides current and future Blue Devils with state-of-the-art facilities that compare favorably to any program in the nation.

■ Prior to the 2009 season, Duke constructed new restroom facilities and concession stands on the concourse. In addition, construction was completed on the new Brooks Football Building, which serves as the cornerstone of the Brooks Practice Facility,

BLUE DEVIL SPIRIT

2009 SENIOR CHEERLEADERS

■ The sights from gameday at Duke show that the Blue Devil football program is one branded by excitement, action and spirit.

■ Duke's home games, played at historic Wallace Wade Stadium, offer the pageantry only felt on a college football Saturday. In terms of media exposure, Duke hosts in excess of 75 media members at each home game. Since 1997, Duke has appeared on either national or regional television at least five times in each of those 13 seasons.

■ Head coach David Cutcliffe's goal of resurrecting Duke's proud football tradition appears to be on track. The gameday experience, like the one at Duke, is an integral part of Cutcliffe's equation to lead the Blue Devils back to national prominence.

■ In 2008, Cutcliffe instituted the Blue Devil Walk, where the team ventures from the historic Chapel on West Campus to the Yoh Football Center prior to kickoff. Lining the path to the lockerroom, fans interact with and welcome the players as the Duke community readies for another exciting game in Wallace Wade Stadium.

ACC Championship
Dec. 5, 2009
Raymond James Stadium
Tampa, Fla.

■ Now in its 57th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

■ Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 113 national championships, including 60 in women's competition and 53 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 145 times in men's competition and 92 times in women's action.

■ The conference had an immediate impact on the national college football scene in the fall of 1953 when the University of Maryland captured the first of what would eventually be five national football titles for the ACC. Clemson laid claim to the league's second national title in 1981 while Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990. Florida State pocketed national titles No. 4 and 5 in 1993 and 1999, respectively. Additionally, Miami has laid claim to five national gridiron titles over the past 22 seasons.

■ This past season nine ACC players earned first team All-America recognition, while six others garnered second or third team honors. The 12 institutions that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 547 first or second team gridiron All-Americans and 73 first team academic All-Americans.

■ Since becoming a 12-team league in 2005, the ACC has consistently made history in the NFL's annual professional football draft. In this past year's draft the ACC had four of the top nine players chosen. In the past four years, no other league has achieved that feat and the ACC has accomplished it twice (also in 2006).

■ The 12 current ACC schools have had 2,190 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 222 first round selections. If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC over the years has proven itself to be among the elite in Division I-A football. In 2008, the ACC won more non-conference games than ever before, posting a 41-17 record including 17-14 (.548 winning percentage) against teams from the SEC, Big Ten, PAC-10, Big 12 and Big East Conferences.

■ ACC Football was also No. 1 with a diploma in 2008 as the Conference, according to the NCAA, led all Football Bowl Subdivision Conferences in graduation rate and APR.

■ Led by nationally renowned physicians and certified athletic trainers, Duke's sports medicine program is widely considered the very best in the nation.

■ In essence, the mission of the sports medicine program at Duke is to combine the latest innovations and technology in injury recognition, prevention, treatment and performance enhancement with an outstanding collection of doctors, certified athletic trainers and other support personnel to give the Blue Devil student-athlete a quality experience while at Duke.

■ Dr. Claude T. Moorman III, former head team physician for the NFL's Baltimore Ravens, serves as Duke's head team physician. A 1987 graduate from the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine, he returned to Duke after serving as the Director of Sports Medicine at the University of Maryland Medical Center from 1996-2001. Moorman played football at Duke before graduating in 1983.

■ The Duke athletic training staff is headed by Dave Engelhardt, now in his 28th season at Duke, and Hap Zarzour, who is in his 17th year as the head football trainer.

■ In the summer of 2002, Duke opened its newest training room in the Yoh Football Center. It is a 5,500 square-foot facility, featuring extensive hydrotherapy system, rehabilitation and treatment areas. The hydrotherapy area includes a 10 x 20 multiddepth rehabilitation pool featuring an underwater treadmill, an 8 x 8 chiller pool and an 8 x 8 warm whirlpool.

■ The treatment area is highlighted by modern modalities and the latest technological equipment. Duke's new rehabilitation equipment ensures constant monitoring and thoughtful progression through every stage of rehabilitation. An unweighted treadmill and Biodex muscle testing and rehabilitation equipment is also featured in Duke's rehabilitation area.

■ Other facets of the sports medicine program include the very best training meals, monitored by sports nutritionist Franca Alphin and team meal coordinator Faye McIntosh, and the ability to utilize the resources of the Duke Sports Medicine Center. Those resources include The Duke Sports Medicine Clinic, Michael Krzyzewski Human Performance Lab (K-Lab) and the Duke Sports Performance Program. Each program brings an important element to the care of Duke student-athletes.

NIKE

EQUIPMENT

■ “Nike’s expertise in the field is second-to-none, and we are proud of our relationship with the company,” said Duke head football coach David Cutcliffe.

■ “We are thrilled to partner with Nike as our athletics footwear and apparel provider for the next decade,” said Duke Vice President and Director of Athletics Kevin White. “Nike is completely committed to the mission of Duke Athletics – to attain excellence in all phases of the student-athlete experience, whether it is in the classroom, on the playing fields, or in the Durham community. This agreement provides significant financial resources to service our student-athletes by providing the finest equipment and apparel in college athletics.”

■ “As an institution, Duke is rich in tradition, both in academics and athletics,” said Nike Director of College Sports Marketing Kit Morris. “Nike has enjoyed longstanding relationships with many Blue Devil coaches and teams, and we are especially excited to expand this partnership to include all programs. A commitment to exemplary performance, shared between Duke and Nike, serves as the foundation for this new agreement.”

The player in the background is wearing jersey number 35 and a helmet with the ACC logo. They are both looking towards the camera.

Components of the Duke-Nike Agreement

- Nike will provide cash compensation annually to the Duke Department of Athletics over the term of the contract.
- Nike will provide annual funding to local charities of Duke’s choice.
- Each year, one Duke student-athlete will receive a paid internship at Nike headquarters near Beaverton, Ore., beginning in the summer of 2009.

DUKE

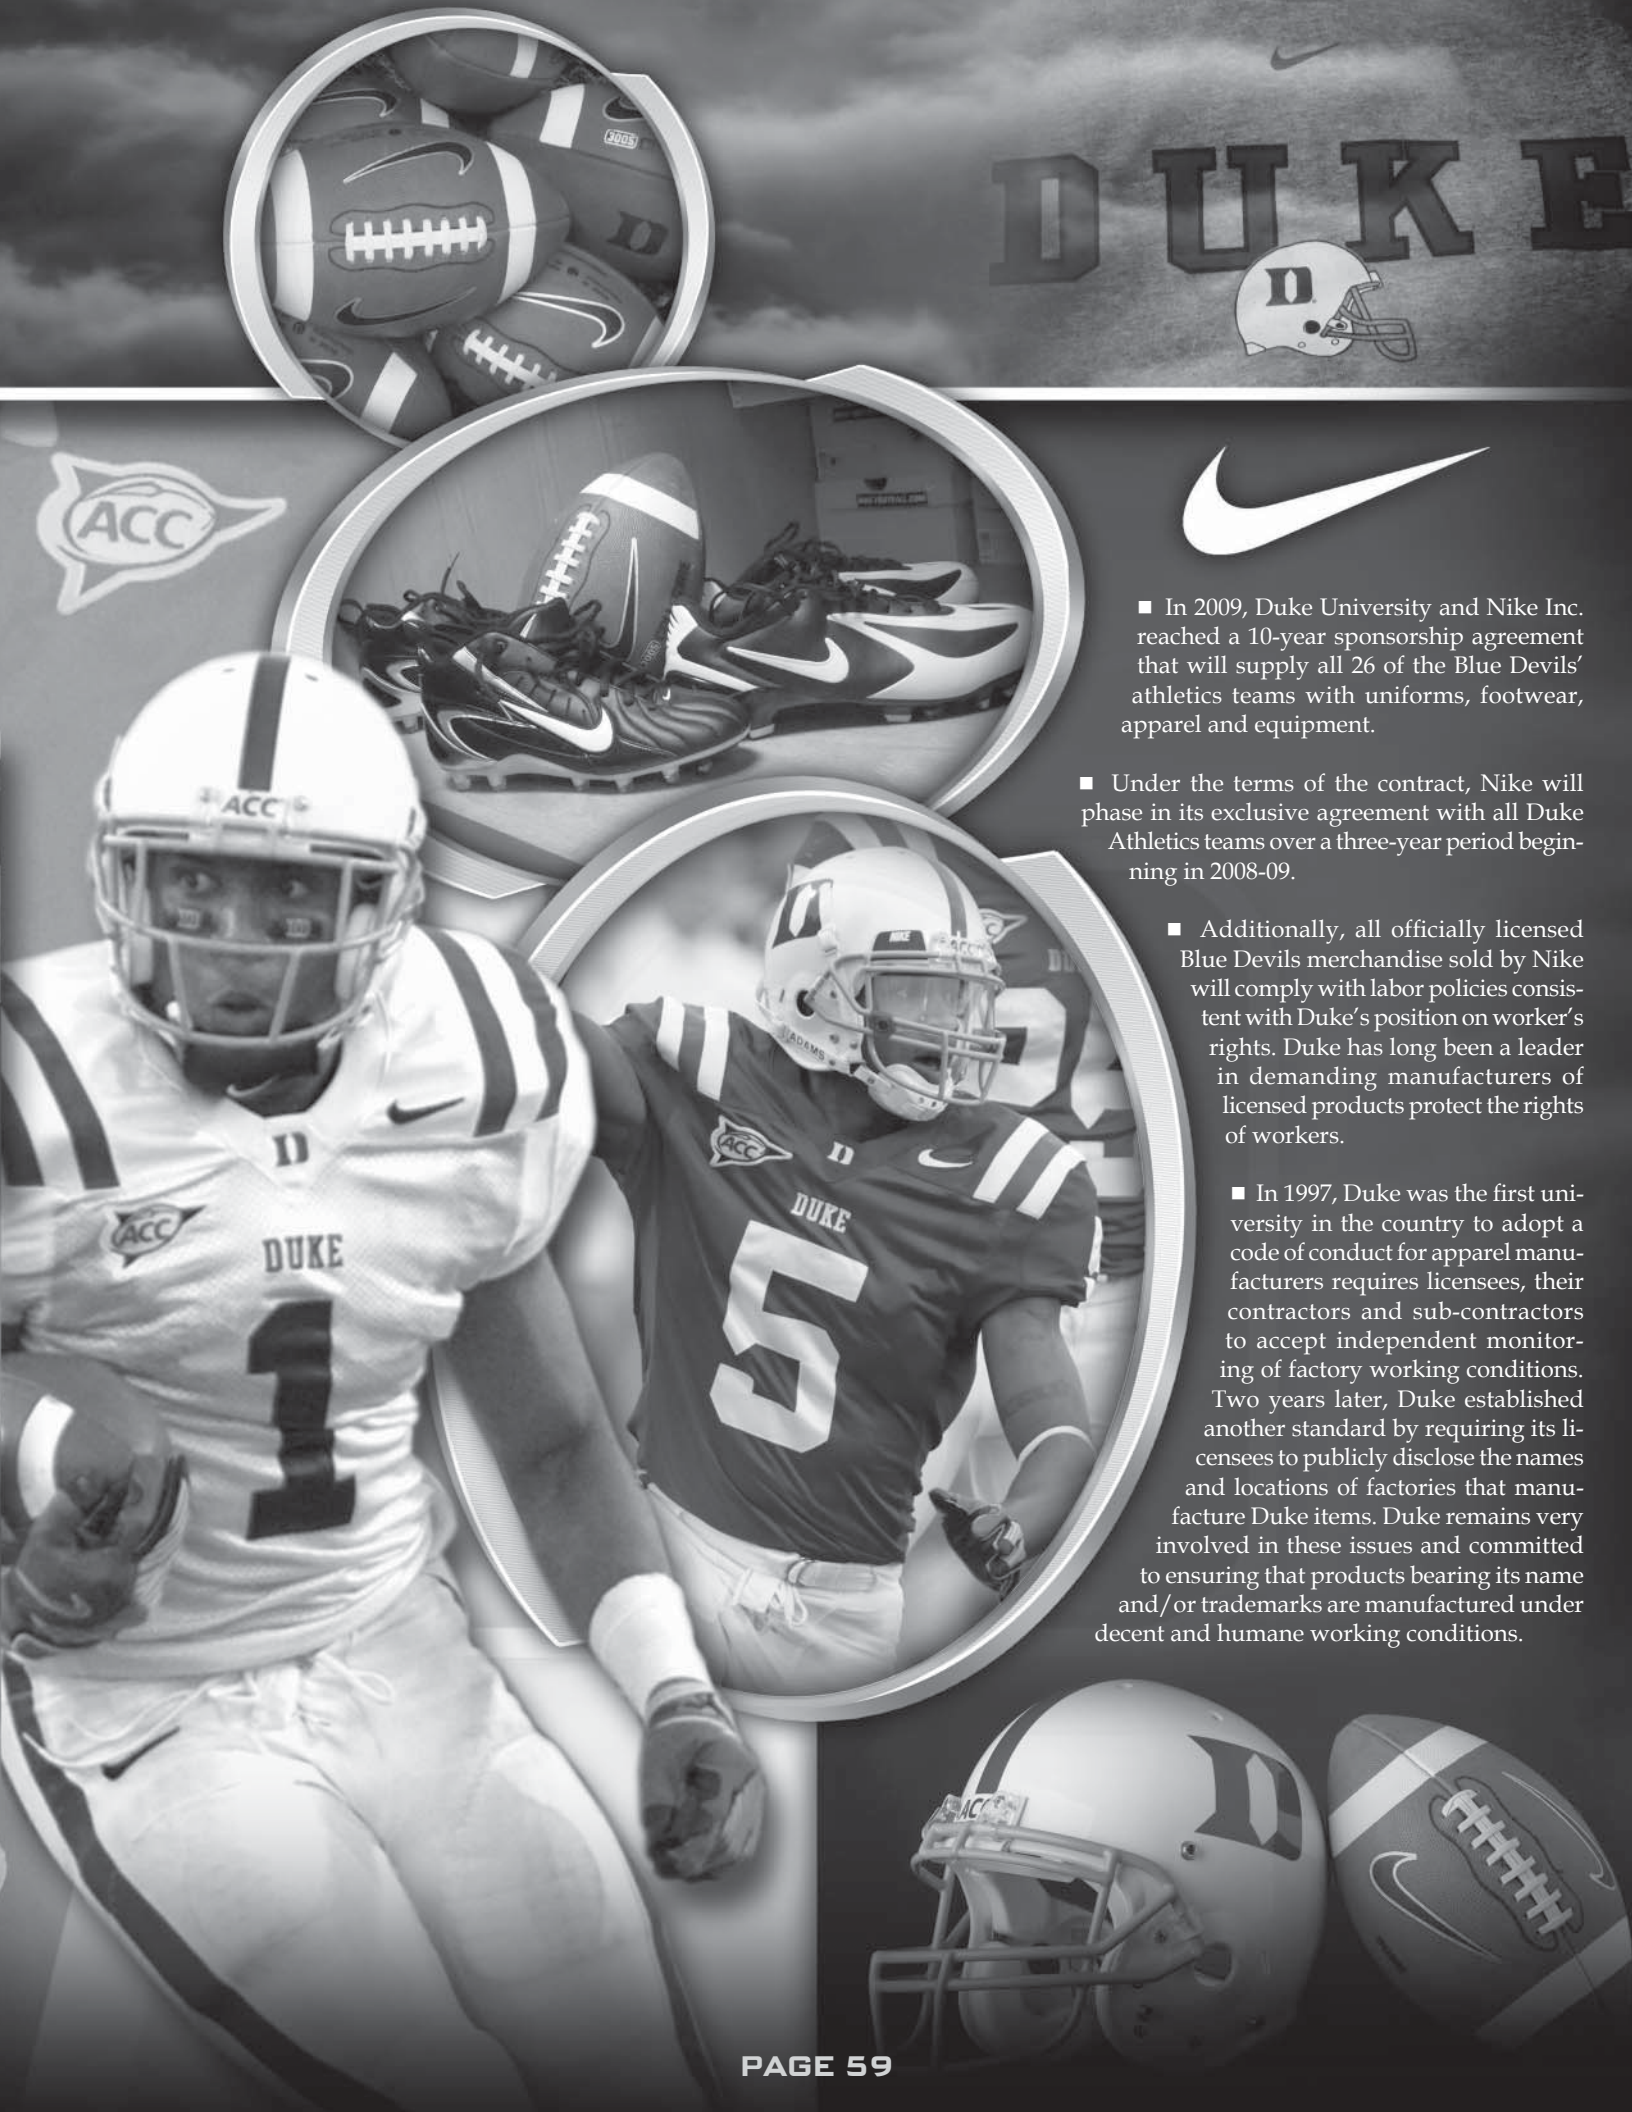

■ In 2009, Duke University and Nike Inc. reached a 10-year sponsorship agreement that will supply all 26 of the Blue Devils' athletics teams with uniforms, footwear, apparel and equipment.

■ Under the terms of the contract, Nike will phase in its exclusive agreement with all Duke Athletics teams over a three-year period beginning in 2008-09.

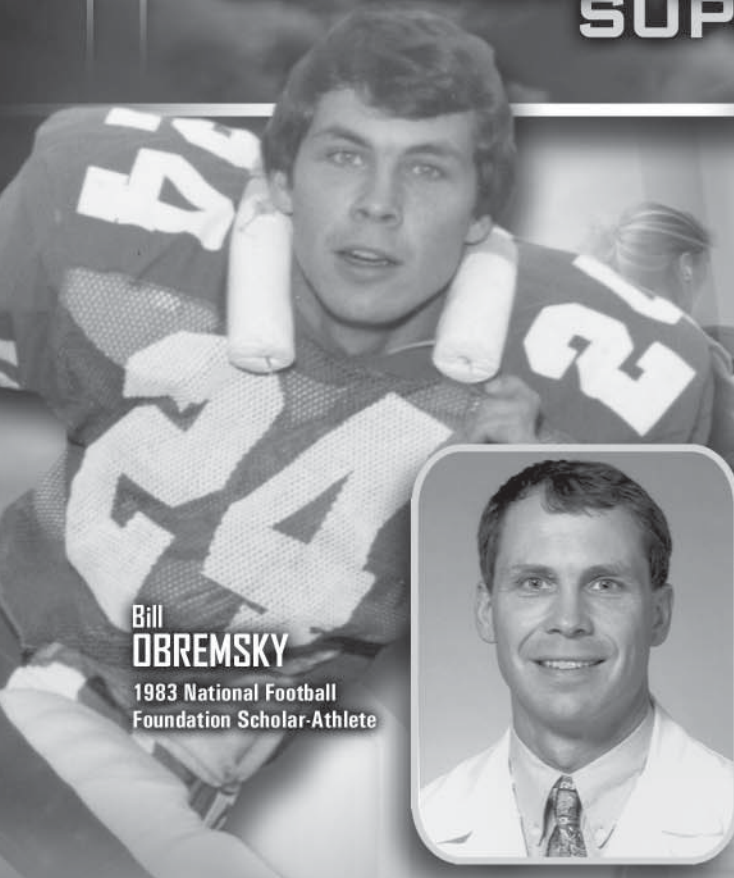

■ Additionally, all officially licensed Blue Devils merchandise sold by Nike will comply with labor policies consistent with Duke's position on worker's rights. Duke has long been a leader in demanding manufacturers of licensed products protect the rights of workers.

■ In 1997, Duke was the first university in the country to adopt a code of conduct for apparel manufacturers requires licensees, their contractors and sub-contractors to accept independent monitoring of factory working conditions. Two years later, Duke established another standard by requiring its licensees to publicly disclose the names and locations of factories that manufacture Duke items. Duke remains very involved in these issues and committed to ensuring that products bearing its name and/or trademarks are manufactured under decent and humane working conditions.

Heather Ryan

Director of Academics

■ Heather Ryan is in her fifth year at Duke and serves as the Director of Academics. She joined the Duke staff after serving as the Director of Academic Services in the athletic department at Tulane.

■ Ryan oversees the Duke Football program's academic progress, assisting with coordinating study strategy workshops, arranging tutor meetings, career counseling, helping with course scheduling, monitoring class performance and personal counseling.

■ A native of Goodland, Ind., Ryan received a degree in Sports Marketing and Management in 1997 from Indiana and then obtained a master's degree in College Student Personnel with an emphasis in Counseling and Development from Purdue University in 2002.

Kacy King

Academic Coordinator

■ Kacy King joined the Duke Athletic staff in the spring of 2007 as an Academic Coordinator, working with the school's football program.

■ King and her husband, Andrew, moved to Durham following a stint at Michigan State where she worked as an Academic Coordinator and Assistant for Life Skills. In addition, she taught at Jackson Community College in Jackson, Mich., in the Department of Foundation Studies.

■ A native of Bexley, Ohio, King received a bachelor of arts degree in Business Management from Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, in 2001. She was a member of the field hockey program and earned Academic All-America honors.

■ She later earned a master's degree in Higher, Adult and Lifelong Education from Michigan State in 2004, and earned a doctoral degree in the same discipline from Michigan State in 2008.

Jeremiah Walker

Academic Coordinator

■ Jeremiah Walker joined the Duke staff in the spring of 2008 and works as an Academic Coordinator with the football program.

■ Walker, a native of Russell, Ky., came to Duke after working as the academic coordinator for men's and women's basketball and the Director of Tutoring Services at Marshall University. He also worked as an Academic Counselor at Ohio University in the fall of 2006.

■ While earning his master's degree in sport administration from Marshall, Walker worked with the Thundering Herd football program as a graduate assistant in academics during the 2005-06 academic year.

■ Walkerr earned a bachelor of arts degree in political science from the University of Kentucky in 2003.

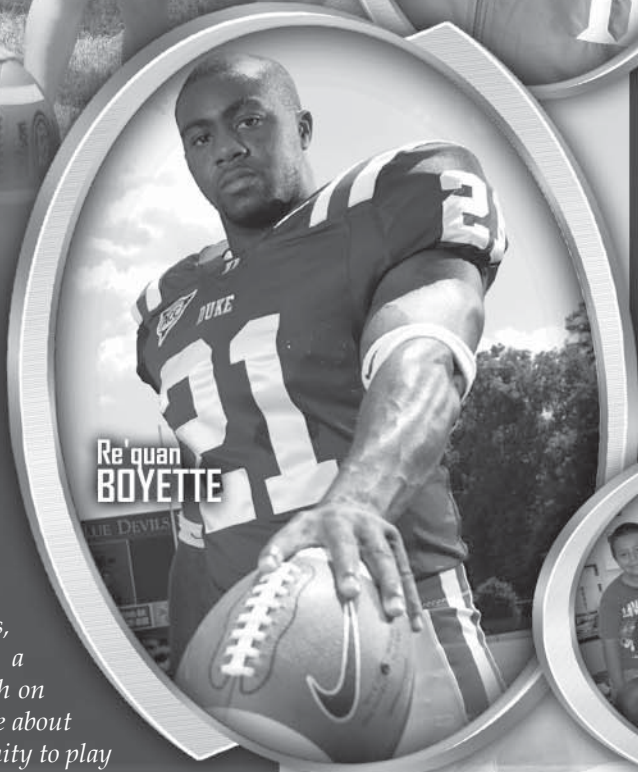

DUKE IN THE COMMUNITY

James
MITCHELL

James "Mitch" Mitchell joined the Duke gridiron program in 2009 and serves as the Director of Football Development.

In this capacity, Mitchell directs the Blue Devils' efforts in the community while serving as a mentor to the student-athletes. A former football coach at the collegiate level, Mitchell owns a passion for helping student-athletes identify their strengths while helping them evolve into quality players and, more importantly, outstanding people.

Re'quan
BOYETTE

In 2008, Duke running back Re'quan Boyette was named to the AFCA Good Works Team for his community service efforts. The Wilson, N.C., native was one of 11 players selected to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) unit.

"We have a responsibility to serve our community and we embrace it," Boyette said. "We take great pride in getting out there and helping others, whether that means taking part in a mentoring program, cleaning up trash on campus or speaking with young people about our experiences. Having the opportunity to play a role in the community is really one of the great benefits of our football program."

The players named to the squad were honored at the Sugar Bowl on January 2, 2009 in New Orleans. The team was selected for the 17th year to honor players that embody the true spirit of "teamwork" and "giving back" through selfless contributions and commendable acts of kindness.

Boyette became the second Duke player to earn a spot on the team, joining Zaid Abdul-Aleem who was honored in 1994.

During the 2008-09 academic year, Cameron Jones represented the Duke football program on the school's Student Athlete Advisory Committee. Jones attended the ACC Inter Academic Collaborative Student Leadership conference in Blacksburg, Va., and was nominated to represent the ACC on the NCAA's National Student Athlete Advisory Committee.

■ Duke student-athletes are an integral part of their community. In addition to hosting several "Meet the Blue Devils" events on campus, the Department of Athletics community outreach efforts continue with its highly successful reading program. The "Verizon Read with the Blue Devils" - intended to aid area teachers by providing reading incentives for third and fourth graders in Durham -- is in its 18th year of existence in the Durham Public School System.

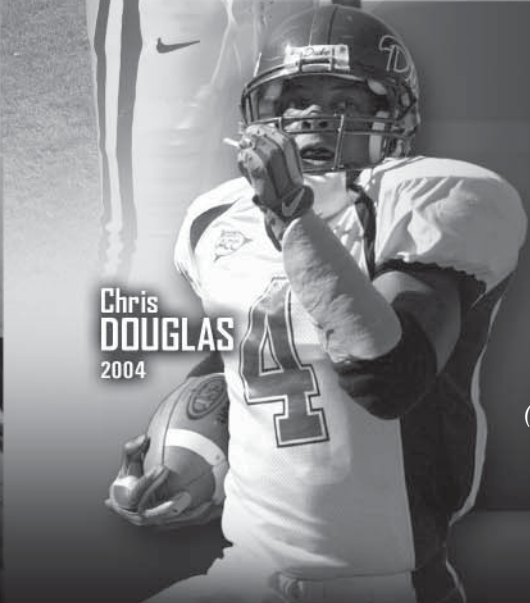

■ In December of 2008, the Duke football program joined forces with the gridiron program from N.C. Central University for the "Holiday Shoebox Campaign". The program featured the football players from both schools packing and wrapping shoeboxes filled with gifts for boys and girls aged 7-9 involved with the Durham Parks & Recreation after school programs.

The event was organized by the wives of the program's two head coaches - Karen Cutcliffe and Marilynn Rison.

"Some of my memories are going out to look under the Christmas tree and seeing a box under there and wondering what is in that box and what you are getting," said Duke quarterback Thaddeus Lewis. "We have the opportunity to put boxes under these kids' Christmas trees. To give back to the kids is a great thing."

■ Each summer, members of the Duke gridiron program spend an afternoon visiting and playing football with the children and families of the Durham Rescue Mission.

"We had a wonderful experience today," Blue Devil head coach David Cutcliffe said after the team's visit on July 13, 2008. "Part of our responsibility is to serve the Durham community, and we're proud to have such a good relationship with the people of the Rescue Mission."

DUKE ATHLETICS

A mainstay among the elite Division I athletic programs, Duke University once again ranked near the top during the 2008-09 athletic year. The women's tennis team claimed its first NCAA Championship in the spring with a dominating performance, which was Duke's 10th overall national title.

Freshman Mallory Cecil won the NCAA Individual title for women's tennis and freshman Becca Ward earned the NCAA Individual title in saber for fencing.

The women's tennis, men's basketball and men's lacrosse teams won ACC Championships, while the men's lacrosse team advanced to the NCAA Semifinals. The women's golf team turned in a sixth place finish at the NCAA Championship to go along with NCAA Elite Eight appearances by the women's soccer and women's lacrosse squads. The women's volleyball, men's lacrosse and women's tennis team also registered Co-ACC regular season titles.

Duke was also very successful nationally in 2008-09 as 13 teams competed in NCAA Tournament action. The Blue Devils had six teams ranked in the top-10 of the national rankings during the season.

Listed below are some facts from the 2008-09 athletic year:

- Freshman women's tennis performer Mallory Cecil won the NCAA Individual title, ITA National Player of the Year and the Honda Award.
- Coming off earning two Bronze medals at the 2008 Summer Olympics, freshman Becca Ward won the NCAA Individual fencing title in saber.
- The women's tennis team claimed its first NCAA Championship and Duke's 10th overall in school history.
- The men's lacrosse, women's tennis and volleyball squads earned Co-ACC regular season titles.
- The men's lacrosse team won its sixth overall ACC Championship and the women's tennis team notched its 16th overall ACC title.
- Duke had 27 student-athletes named All-America.
- A total of nine different Duke student-athletes were selected ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America, while 16 others received National Scholar-Athlete or Academic All-America accolades.
- Six Blue Devils were ACC Champions -- Jade Ellis (long jump for men's outdoor track & field), Amy Fryt (pole vault for women's outdoor track & field), Abby Johnson (three meter board for women's swimming & diving), Ryan McDermott (steeplechase for men's outdoor track & field), Ashley Twichell (1650 free for women's swimming and diving) and Konrad Dudziak (wrestling).
- Amanda Blumenherst (golf) and Ned Crotty (lacrosse) were named ACC Players of the Year. Crotty was also selected USILA National Attackman of the Year.
- Mike Grella (soccer) earned ACC Offensive Player of the Year and Chante Black (basketball) was named ACC Defensive Player of the Year.
- The Blue Devils had 39 All-ACC selections, and 26 were All-Region.
- A total of 429 Duke student-athletes registered a 3.0 or higher grade-point average during the 2008-09 campaign.
- Blue Devil junior heavyweight wrestler Konrad Dudziak was the runner-up at the NCAA Championship.

■ Three Duke student-athletes were finalists for the Lowe's Senior Class Award -- Nate Frieman (Baseball), Christie McDonald (soccer) and Abby Waner (Basketball). Matt Williams of the baseball team was also one of 30 semifinalists. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award has grown into the nation's premier tribute to college seniors. The award identifies personal qualities that define a complete student-athlete, with criteria including excellence in the "4 C's" of classroom, community, character and competition.

■ Men's Basketball Head Coach Mike Krzyzewski was named the USA Basketball Coach of the Year and Capital Broadcasting Sports Person of the Year.

■ Four Blue Devils received ACC Postgraduate Scholarships -- Amanda Blumenherst (golf), Kim Imbesi (lacrosse), Melissa Mang (tennis) and Peter Truszkowski (fencing).

■ Two Duke squads were ranked No. 1 during the 2008-09 campaign -- men's basketball and women's tennis. A total of six Blue Devil squads were ranked in the top 10 nationally during the season.

■ The field hockey team was recognized as a 2008 National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) Division I National Academic Team. The wrestling team had the fourth-highest grade-point average in NCAA Division I.

■ Duke finished 17th in the final 2008-09 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup Standings, which was released by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. This marks the sixth consecutive season that Duke has placed in the top 20 of the annual all-sports rankings. Overall, Duke ended with 891.80 points, its third-highest point total in the rankings since its inception in 1994. Among private schools, Duke ranked third nationally behind only Stanford (first) and Southern California (fourth). Duke ranked fourth among Atlantic Coast Conference schools behind North Carolina (second), Virginia (eighth) and Florida State (15th).

■ Duke University and Nike Inc. reached a 10-year sponsorship agreement that will supply all 26 of the Blue Devils' athletics teams with uniforms, footwear, apparel and equipment. The financial terms of the agreement were not disclosed. Under the terms of the contract, Nike will phase in its exclusive agreement with all Duke Athletics teams over a three-year period beginning in 2008-09. This will allow specific Duke programs and head coaches who have existing contracts with other equipment/apparel providers to honor those agreements. Several Duke teams, including men's basketball, women's basketball and football, already use Nike apparel and equipment.

■ An ACC-leading 12 of Duke's intercollegiate athletic programs were honored with NCAA Public Recognition Awards. The awards are presented each year to teams finishing among the top 10 percent of their respective sport based on the most recent multi-year Academic Performance Rate (APR). Duke's 12 programs that received the honor include baseball, men's basketball, men's cross country, women's fencing, football, men's golf, men's soccer, women's soccer, men's swimming and diving, men's indoor track and field, men's outdoor track and field and volleyball. In addition, Duke was one of 12 Division I institutions to have 12 or more sports honored, joining Colgate, Dartmouth, Georgetown, Harvard, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Princeton, Notre Dame, Pennsylvania and Yale.

SMALL NUMBERS IN SENIOR CLASS

Duke's 2009 roster features just nine scholarship seniors with only three players — RB Re'quan Boyette, OG Jarrod Holt & QB Thaddeus Lewis — on the offensive side of the football ... The squad features just four fifth-year seniors in Boyette, DT Vince Oghobaase, DE Ayanga Okpokowuruk and NG Kinney Rucker ... Duke's total of nine seniors ranks as the fewest in the ACC.

FINAL CALL FOR LEWIS

As a senior in 2009, QB Thaddeus Lewis will look to put a cap on a career that has seen steady improvement through three seasons ... A second team All-ACC pick in 2008, Lewis' completion percentage has been on the rise during his tenure, going from .529 as a rookie in 2006 to .553 as a sophomore in 2007 to .620 as a junior last fall ... In addition, his interception numbers have declined dramatically, moving from 16 in 2006 to 10 in 2007 to six in 2008 ... Among active players in the ACC, Lewis enters the 2009 campaign ranking first in passing yards (6,735), first in touchdown passes (47), first in 300-yard passing games (4) and second in total offense (6,609).

OFFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT

The Blue Devil offense made significant improvement in 2008 and will aim for higher ground with the return of QB Thaddeus Lewis and five other starters this year.

Category	2007	2008	+/-
Scoring Offense	17.9	20.1	+2.2
Total Offense	271.1	303.8	+32.7

VINCENT REY

BRYAN MORGAN, THADDEUS LEWIS & KYLE HILL

DEFENSIVE STRIDES

Duke's defensive unit posted better production in 2008 in all four major statistical categories ... The Blue Devils trimmed just under 10 points (9.7) off of its per game average, a mark that ranked as the sixth-best improvement nationally.

Category	2007	2008	+/-
Scoring Defense	33.2	23.4	-9.8
Rushing Defense	180.2	151.5	-28.7
Passing Defense	244.1	205.4	-38.7
Total Defense	424.3	356.9	-67.4

OGHOBAASE LEADS DEFENSIVE LINE

In 2008, DT Vince Oghobaase finished fifth in the All-ACC balloting for defensive tackles to receive honorable mention all-league honors ... Of note, the Houston, Texas, product was the leading vote-getter among non-seniors ... Among active ACC players, Oghobaase ranks second in career tackles for loss (29.0) and third in quarterback sacks (11.5) ... Oghobaase has started all 36 games over the past three years while compiling 128 tackles.

EARLY ENROLLEES

Four members of the 2009 signing day class graduated from high school early and enrolled at Duke in January: CB Zach Greene, TE Ryan Hall, LB Kevin Rojas and DT Sydney Sarmiento.

YOUNG RECEIVING CORPS

With the graduation of Eron Riley (144 career receptions for 2,413 yards) and Raphael Chestnut (72-760), the Duke wide receiving unit takes on a youthful look in 2009 ... Sophomores Johnny Williams (30-327 in 2008) and Donovan Varner (21-164) return after solid rookie seasons while juniors Sheldon Bell (14-93) and Austin Kelly (13-142) provide stability ... The group has zero seniors.

HILL & MORGAN

The Duke offensive line returns two starters — Kyle Hill and Bryan Morgan — from last year's unit that helped reduce the team's sacks allowed total from 45 in 2007 to just 22 in 2008 ... Hill was a second team Freshman All-America selection last year after starting all 12 games at left guard, and will switch to left tackle for the spring to replace graduated Cameron Goldberg, a three-year starter ... Morgan returns after starting all 12 games at center in 2008 ... Duke must replace three starters including Goldberg, OT Fred Roland and OG Rob Schirmann.

REY LOOKS FOR 100 ... AGAIN

Senior LB Vincent Rey enters his final season with the Blue Devils as the only active player in the ACC with multiple 100-tackle seasons to his credit ... Rey posted 111 stops as a sophomore before amassing 109 tackles last year ... Only six Blue Devils have reached the century mark in tackles in three seasons: Carl McGee (1975-76-77-78), Emmett Tilley (1980-81-82), Mike Junkin (1984-85-86), Erwin Sampson (1988-89-90), Darrell Spells (1990-91-92) and Ryan Fowler (2001-02-03).

BOYETTE EYES RETURN

Redshirt senior RB Re'quan Boyette — Duke's leading rusher in both 2006 and 2007 — is scheduled to return to the gridiron this spring after undergoing surgery on his left knee on August 10 and missing the entire 2008 season ... He was voted a team captain by his peers during the 2008 preseason ... The Wilson, N.C., native received a medical redshirt and begins his final season at Duke ranking 10th among active players in the ACC with 1,072 career rushing yards ... In addition, Boyette is a proven asset in the passing game with 30 career receptions.

KING BACK IN THE MIX

Duke's offense will welcome the return of TE Brandon King to the field ... The Doylestown, Pa., native lettered his first two seasons (2006-07) in Durham before missing the entire 2008 campaign due to injury ... King caught just 10 passes as a sophomore, but proved to be a valuable scoring threat with four touchdowns ... Also at tight end, Brett Huffman returns after catching 14 passes for 171 yards and one TD, as does Danny Parker (3-25-0).

RUNNING GAME DEPTH

With the unexpected loss of RB Re'quan Boyette prior to the 2008 season, opportunity presented itself to a pair of Duke running backs with zero college experience at the position ... Rookie Jay Hollingsworth burst onto the scene and led the Blue Devils in rushing with 399 yards while catching 25 passes for an additional 188 yards and two touchdowns ... The Sanford, N.C., native became the first true freshman to lead the team in rushing since B.J. Hill did so in 1998 ... Meanwhile, Tony Jackson, a converted safety, rushed for 259 yards while hauling in 12 passes for 106 yards and one touchdown.

RENFREE SLATED FOR BACKUP DUTY

Sean Renfree, who redshirted in 2008, joined three-year starter Thaddeus Lewis as the only two scholarship quarterbacks on the spring roster ... Zack Asack, the backup to Lewis the past two years, is no longer a member of the team while the career of Mike Cappetto, a reserve signal-caller for the last two seasons, has ended due to medical hardship ... Renfree was a PARADE All-America pick as a senior at Notre Dame Prep in Scottsdale, Ariz., in 2008 after throwing for 3,353 yards and 41 touchdowns.

JONES AMONG TOP ACC PUNTERS

Punter Kevin Jones ranked second in the ACC with a 40.8 yards per punt average last season ... Jones placed a league-high 27 punts inside the 20-yard line with just six touchbacks.

MAGGIO PERFECT ON PAT ATTEMPTS

Kicker Nick Maggio made all 28 of his extra point attempts and 11-of-14 field goals in 2008 ... His 28-of-28 season on PATs ranks tied for second best in school history.

A GLANCE AT THE 2009 SCHEDULE

Duke's 12 opponents combined for an 89-67 (.571) overall record while eight teams — Georgia Tech, Kansas, Maryland, Miami, North Carolina, N.C. State, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest — participated in bowl games ... Two schools — Virginia Tech (15th) and Georgia Tech (22nd) finished the year ranked in the Associated Press final poll ... In addition, Richmond posted a 13-3 overall record and captured the FCS title.

DAVID CUTCLIFFE
Head Coach
2nd Season at Duke
Alma Mater: Alabama '76

David Cutcliffe, who led Ole Miss to four bowl games in six seasons and mentored Super Bowl MVP quarterbacks Peyton and Eli Manning, was named Duke University's 21st head football coach on December 15, 2007.

In his first season at Duke, Cutcliffe directed the Blue Devils to a 4-8 record against the nation's second-most difficult schedule, equaling the program's victory total from the previous four seasons combined.

In 2008, Cutcliffe guided the Blue Devils to a 4-8 overall record against the nation's second-most difficult schedule, matching the program's win total from the previous four seasons combined. He brought instant enthusiasm to the Duke campus as season ticket sales increased by over 60 percent and Wallace Wade Stadium was host to four crowds of over 30,000 for the first time in school history.

David and Karen Cutcliffe with Marcus, Katie, Emily, Molly and Chris.

DUKE COACHING STAFF

The Blue Devils showed marked improvement on both sides of the football in 2008. Quarterback Thaddeus Lewis, an All-ACC choice, spearheaded the offensive attack by throwing for over 2,000 yards and 15 touchdowns as Duke achieved more points and yards than the previous season while lowering its sacks allowed total from 45 to 22. On defense, linebacker Michael Tauiliili became Duke's first All-America pick since 2000 while the Blue Devils trimmed numbers off its 2007 totals in scoring defense (-9.8 points), total defense (-67.4 yards) and touchdowns allowed (-13).

Cutcliffe was named the SEC Coach of the Year in 2003 after leading the Ole Miss Rebels to a 10-3 record including a 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl.

Cutcliffe, born September 16, 1954, came to Duke after serving the previous two seasons as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Tennessee. His head coaching experience includes a six-year stint at the University of Mississippi from 1999-04 where he compiled a 44-29 (.603) ledger with five winning seasons, five bowl game appearances and a share of the SEC Western Division championship in 2003. Cutcliffe was named the SEC Coach of the Year in 2003 after leading the Rebels to a 10-3 record including a 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl.

Cutcliffe has participated in 22 bowl games including the 1982 Peach, 1983 Florida Citrus, 1984 Sun, 1986 Sugar, 1986 Liberty, 1988 Peach, 1990 Cotton, 1991 Sugar, 1992 Fiesta, 1993 Hall of Fame, 1994 Florida Citrus, 1994 Gator, 1996 Florida Citrus, 1997 Florida Citrus, 1998 Orange, 1998 Independence, 1999 Independence, 2000 Music City, 2002 Independence, 2004 Cotton, 2007 Outback and 2008 Outback. He owns a 4-1 (.800) record as a head coach in bowl tilts with victories over Oklahoma, Nebraska, Oklahoma State and Texas Tech.

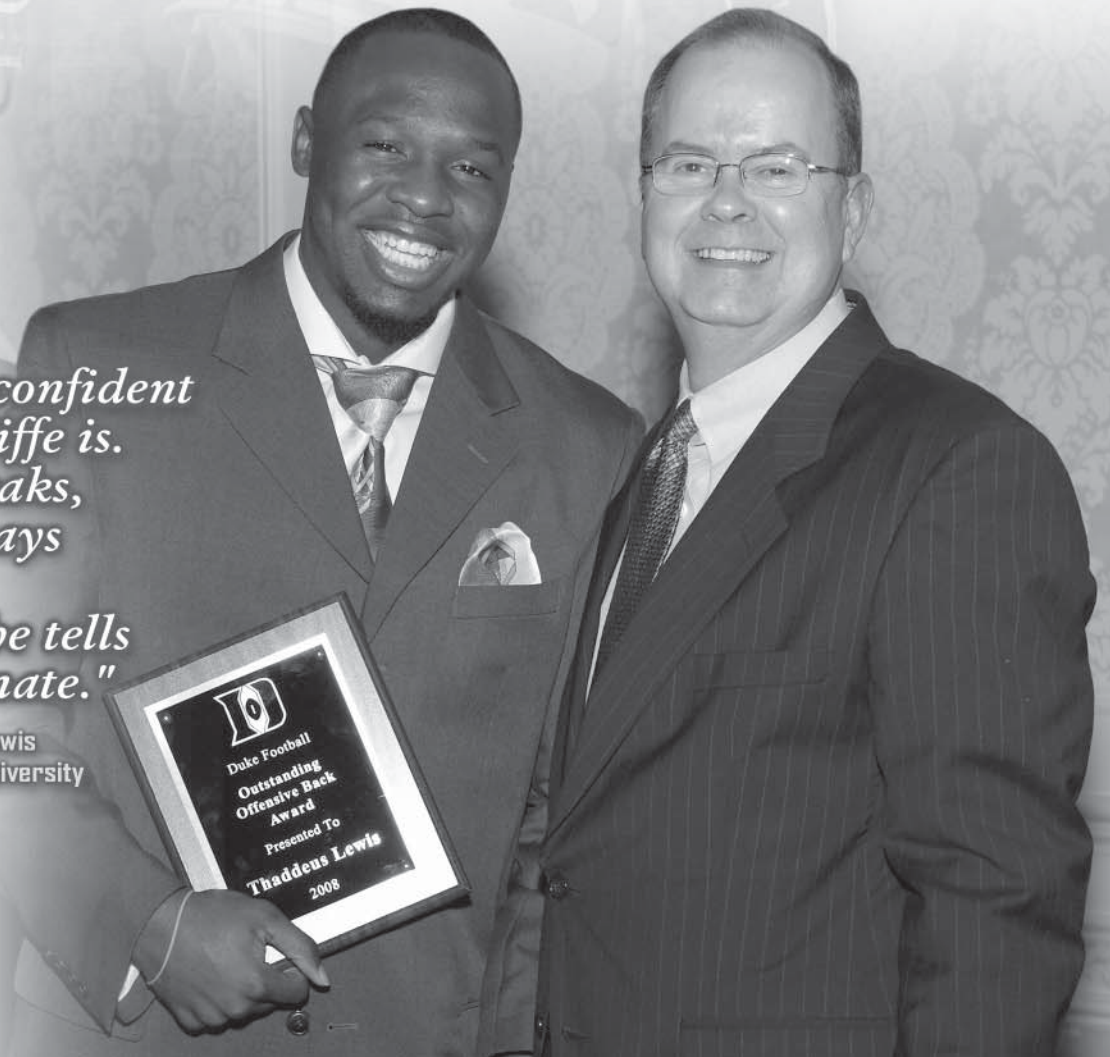

As a member of the coaching staff at Tennessee from 1982-98, Cutcliffe helped the Volunteers to four SEC championships, 16 bowl games in 17 seasons and the national title in 1998. His first tenure with the Vols featured the mentoring of quarterbacks Andy Kelly, Heath Shuler, Tee Martin and Peyton Manning.

Under David Cutcliffe, a total of eight quarterbacks have either earned all-conference honors or directed their respective school to a bowl game victory: Andy Kelly (Tennessee), Heath Shuler (Tennessee), Peyton Manning (Tennessee), Tee Martin (Tennessee), Romaro Miller (Ole Miss), Eli Manning (Ole Miss), Erik Ainge (Tennessee) and Thaddeus Lewis (Duke).

2009 FOOTBALL

"I love how confident Coach Cutcliffe is. When he speaks, everybody pays attention. Everything he tells you is legitimate."

-Thaddeus Lewis
QB, Duke University

During Cutcliffe's six seasons at the helm of the Mississippi program, the Rebels set school single-season records for total offense, passing offense and scoring offense while winning twice at both Auburn and LSU, securing consecutive victories over Florida, and defeating both Arkansas and South Carolina on three occasions.

"Coach Cutcliffe is a huge reason why I chose to attend Tennessee. He is a great match and a great fit for Duke."

-Peyton Manning
QB, Indianapolis Colts

DUKE COACHING STAFF

"I can promise, we will be totally committed to bringing winning football back to Duke."

-Head Coach David Cutcliffe

Kelly, who played at Tennessee from 1988-91 and graduated atop the school's career passing chart, went on to become the Arena Football League's career leader in pass completions, pass attempts, passing yards and touchdown passes. Shuler, a first team All-America choice in 1993 after throwing for 2,353 yards and a then school-record 25 touchdowns, was the third overall pick by the Washington Redskins in the 1994 NFL Draft. In November of 2006, Shuler was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives from North Carolina's 11th congressional district.

Cutcliffe has participated in 22 bowl games in his coaching career and owns a 4-1 (.800) record in bowl tilts as a head coach. Cutcliffe helped lead Tennessee to the national title in 1998 and four Southeastern Conference championships.

when the signal-caller threw for 3,819 yards and 36 touchdowns while earning first team All-America honors as well as the Maxwell Award presented annually to the nation's top player. Peyton Manning was the number one choice in the 1998 NFL Draft, earned league MVP honors in both 2003 and 2004 and was named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XLI as his Indianapolis Colts defeated the Chicago Bears, 25-17, on February 4, 2007.

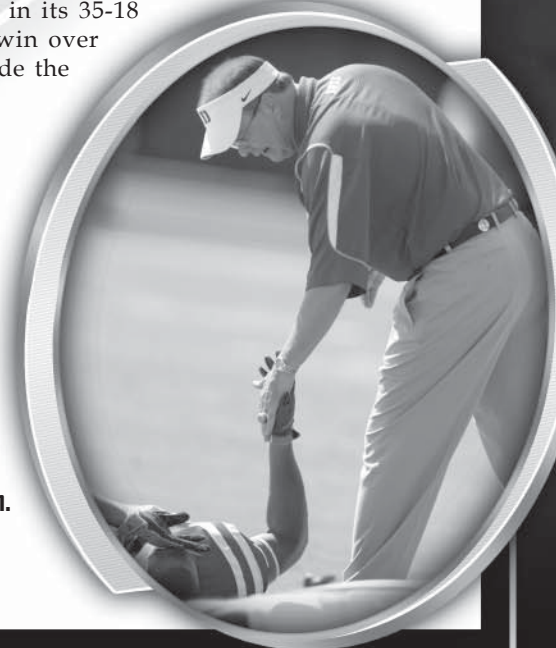

In 1997, the Tennessee offensive unit established school single-season standards for first downs (300), pass completions (296), pass attempts (492), passing yards (3,981), passing touchdowns (37) and total offense (5,794) as the Volunteers went 11-2 and defeated Auburn, 30-29, in the SEC championship game.

In 1998, Cutcliffe was honored with the Frank Broyles Award, an honor given annually to the top assistant coach in the country. During Cutcliffe's tenure as offensive coordinator from 1993-98, Tennessee enjoyed four 1,000-yard rushers in Charlie Garner (1,161 in 1993), James Stewart (1,028 in 1994), Jay Graham (1,438 in 1995) and Jamal Lewis (1,364 in 1997). Stewart (19th overall pick by Jacksonville in 1995) and Lewis (5th overall pick by Baltimore in 2000) went on to be first round selections in the NFL Draft.

Cutcliffe has coached two Super Bowl MVPs - Peyton Manning (Super Bowl XLI) and Eli Manning (Super Bowl XLII)

On December 2, 1998, Cutcliffe was named the head coach at Mississippi. Immediately taking the reigns, he coached Ole Miss in its 35-18 Independence Bowl win over Texas Tech to conclude the 1998 campaign.

In 1998, Cutcliffe was named the recipient of the Frank Broyles Award, an honor presented annually to the top assistant coach in the nation.

DUKE COACHING STAFF

While at Mississippi, Cutcliffe tutored 2003 SEC Player of the Year Eli Manning. The younger Manning brother was a first team All-America pick as a senior, closed his career with an SEC-record 10,119 passing yards and was the top overall choice in the 2004 NFL Draft.

With Cutcliffe as offensive coordinator, Tennessee scored 30 or more points in 62 of 100 games, posting a 59-3 record in those contests.

In his fourth professional season, he guided the New York Giants to the Super Bowl and earned MVP honors after throwing for 255 yards and two touchdowns in a 17-14 win over the previously unbeaten New England Patriots on February 3, 2008.

Cutcliffe also coached three-time All-SEC running back Deuce McAllister, who set Rebel career records for rushing yards (3,060) and rushing touchdowns (37) and was a first round selection of the New Orleans Saints in the 2001 NFL Draft.

Cutcliffe's recruiting efforts at Ole Miss produced three national award winners in Eli Manning (2003; Maxwell Award), Jon Nichols (2003; Lou Groza Award presented annually to the top kicker in the nation) and Patrick Willis (2006; Butkus Award presented annually to the top linebacker in the country). During his six seasons at the helm of the Rebel program, Mississippi set school single-season records for total offense, passing offense and scoring offense while winning twice at both Auburn and LSU, securing consecutive victories over Florida, and defeating both Arkansas and South Carolina on three occasions.

In the spring of 2005, Cutcliffe joined the coaching staff at Notre Dame, but resigned from the post for health reasons. He then returned to Knoxville prior to the 2006 season. Cutcliffe has helped the Volunteers to a 19-8 record from 2006-07 with two appearances in the Outback Bowl. In 2007, Tennessee went 10-4 with a 6-2 league mark en route to winning the SEC Eastern Division crown. The Tennessee offense allowed an NCAA-low four sacks on the year, and quarterback Erik Ainge earned MVP honors of the Outback Bowl after throwing for 365 yards and two touchdowns as the Volunteers defeated Wisconsin, 21-17. Tennessee running back Arian Foster rushed for 1,193 yards on the year while wide receiver Lucas Taylor reached the 1,000-yard plateau for receiving yards. In addition, offensive guard Anthony Parker garnered first team All-SEC and second team All-America accolades.

With Cutcliffe at offensive coordinator, Tennessee scored 30 or more points in 62 of 100 games, posting a 59-3 (.952) ledger in those contests. The Volunteers compiled an overall record of 173-54-7 (.754) during his 19 seasons on staff. Cutcliffe is the only coach in SEC history to have two quarterbacks throw for over 10,000 career yards while his offenses produced the all-time leading passers, rushers and receivers at both Mississippi and Tennessee.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Cutcliffe graduated from the University of Alabama in 1976. He got his start in coaching at Banks High School — his alma mater — and spent four years as an assistant coach before becoming the head coach in 1980.

Cutcliffe is married to the former Karen Oran of Harriman, Tenn. They have four children — Chris, Marcus, Katie and Emily — and one daughter-in-law, Molly.

■ In two seasons under David Cutcliffe, Tennessee quarterback Erik Ainge threw for 6,511 yards and 50 touchdowns. Ainge was selected by the New York Jets in the 2008 NFL Draft.

■ In 2006-07, Cutcliffe helped Tennessee win 19 games with two berths in the Outback Bowl.

■ "David Cutcliffe is an offensive mastermind."

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT DAVID CUTCLIFFE

"Duke is serious about restoring excitement and a winning tradition to Duke football. David Cutcliffe's selection as our head coach shows Duke is committed to helping our players achieve the excellence we seek, both on and off the field. Coach Cutcliffe is a proven motivator and experienced leader."

Dr. Richard H. Brodhead,
President, Duke University

"David Cutcliffe's hiring is a clear sign that Duke is serious and committed to its football program. He is an established coach at the highest level of collegiate competition and his track record speaks for itself. Coach Cutcliffe has traveled roads our program has not enjoyed in recent years, and that can only benefit the young men he will lead here at Duke. I am excited about this hire for our University, our Department of Athletics, and most importantly, for the current and future Blue Devil football players."

Mike Krzyzewski,
Head Basketball Coach, Duke University

"Coach Cutcliffe knows what he is talking about when it comes to playing quarterback. The system forces you to be a student of the game, and that aspect has helped me so much. His production speaks for itself starting with Heath Shuler and on to Peyton and Eli Manning and everyone else that has played in his system."

Thaddeus Lewis,
• QB, Duke University
• All-ACC, 2008

"I'm excited for Coach Cutcliffe. I think he deserves to be a head coach again. His influence on me has been well documented; he was a huge reason why I chose to attend the University of Tennessee.

Speaking for Eli, Coach Cutcliffe being named the head coach at Ole Miss was a swaying factor in Eli's decision to go to school there."

Peyton Manning,

- QB, Indianapolis Colts
- University of Tennessee
- SEC Player of the Year & First Team All-America, 1997
- No. 1 Overall Selection, 1998 NFL Draft
- NFL MVP, 2003, 2004 & 2008
- MVP, Super Bowl XLI

"The greatest thing about Coach Cutcliffe is his ability to teach the game of football. He works so well with quarterbacks in particular, and teaches you how to lead your team from that position. He works hard, is dedicated and has a passion for winning. I know his teams will be well prepared for anything that happens in a game."

Eli Manning,

- QB, New York Giants
- University of Mississippi
- SEC Player of the Year & First Team All-America, 2003
- No. 1 Overall Selection, 2004 NFL Draft
- MVP, Super Bowl XLII

"I'm very excited for Coach Cutcliffe and I think that all the people associated with Duke should be excited. He's an outstanding human being and a really good football coach."

Archie Manning,

- University of Mississippi
- First Team All-America, 1969 & 1970
- College Football Hall of Fame, Inducted in 1989

"Just knowing Coach Cutcliffe and his dedication to not only football but development for young men, it's a great hire for Duke. I think it's going to be a great marriage for him as well with the University."

Deuce McAllister,

- University of Mississippi
- All-SEC, 1999 & 2000
- No. 23 Overall Selection, 2001 NFL Draft
- Two-time Pro Bowl selection
- Holds New Orleans Saints all-time records for rushing yards and touchdowns

COACHING STAFF

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT DAVID CUTCLIFFE

"His knowledge surpasses so many others. He's as quality a human being as I've ever been around. He's going to surround himself with good coaches and good players. Look at the unbelievable players he has recruited."

Heath Shuler,

- QB, University of Tennessee
- SEC Player of the Year, 1993
- No. 3 Overall Selection, 1994 NFL Draft

"I have a tremendous amount of respect for David Cutcliffe. He is truly one of the great offensive coaches in college football. He is outstanding in the development of quarterbacks and with the passing game in particular. I thought he did a really good job at Mississippi and knew it would only be a matter of time before he was his own boss again."

Todd Blackledge,
ESPN

"David Cutcliffe is an offensive mastermind. He does an exceptional job with quarterbacks. Peyton Manning pays him the highest compliment when he tells all Tennessee quarterbacks, 'Just do what he says. Period.'"

Mike Patrick,
ESPN

"Anyone who is credited with mentoring both of the Mannings currently playing in the NFL has pretty solid credentials as a football coach. Archie, Peyton and Eli all speak of David Cutcliffe with a great degree of admiration ... I think David is a great choice for Duke."

Verne Lundquist,
CBS

"When it comes to David Cutcliffe, the record speaks for itself: Five winning seasons in six years at Ole Miss; two No. 1 overall picks in the NFL Draft; a national reputation that is second to none when it comes to developing quarterbacks and great offenses. After a year out of coaching followed by two years at Tennessee, David Cutcliffe is smarter, hungrier, and more than ready to be a head coach again. Duke is getting David at the best possible time in his life and in his career. He will bring an excitement to Duke football that it has not seen since the days of Steve Spurrier."

Tony Barnhart,
Atlanta Journal-Constitution/CBS

"If there could be a perfect fit at Duke, it's David Cutcliffe. A meticulous, hard-working, no-frills, no-excuses coach. And one of the best Xs and Os tacticians in the game. He was a quarterback guru before it became fashionable to call a coach a quarterback guru."

Matt Hayes,
Sporting News

"David Cutcliffe is a great teacher, a developer of quarterbacks, an offensive innovator, a hardworking recruiter and a great person whose presence gives Duke a chance to compete in the ACC."

Joe Schad,
ESPN

"Coach Cutcliffe was great. He was pretty much the reason I went to the University of Tennessee. He is an offensive genius and at quarterback and he knows what he's talking about. He was a big reason for our success at Tennessee and when he went on to Ole Miss, he was very successful there in turning that program around. I think it's great for Duke to have Coach Cutcliffe there."

Tee Martin,

- QB, University of Tennessee
- All-SEC, 1999

"I think [Coach Cutcliffe] is the right person for the job. He's a real first-class guy and he'll do everything by the book. He's going to get the most out of those guys because he is a motivator."

Derrick Burgess,

- DE, Oakland Raiders
- University of Mississippi
- All-SEC, 2000

DUKE COACHING STAFF

RON MIDDLETON

Associate Head Coach
Special Teams Coordinator/Tight Ends

2nd Season at Duke

Recruiting Area: South Alabama, South Georgia & Florida Panhandle

■ Ron Middleton is in his second season as associate head coach and special teams coordinator while coaching the tight ends.

■ In 2008, Middleton directed Duke's special teams units to significant improvement from the previous campaign. The Blue Devils' field goal percentage of .722 (13-18) was the highest since 1997 while Nick Maggio became just the third kicker in school history to successfully convert 25 or more PATs without a miss. In addition, Kevin Jones ranked second in the ACC in punting while Jabari Marshall became Duke's all-time leader in kickoff return yardage.

■ In 2007, Middleton helped the Alabama Crimson Tide to a 7-6 overall record and 30-24 victory over Colorado in the Independence Bowl. Under Middleton's direction, Alabama kicker Leigh Tiffin totalled 111 points — the second-highest single-season point total in Tide history — with a school single-season record 25 field goals along with 36 extra points. In addition, Javier Arenas ranked among the SEC's top 10 performers in both kickoff and punt return average while tight end Nick Walker caught 23 passes for 204 yards and two touchdowns.

■ The former Auburn letterman and 10-year NFL veteran served three seasons (2004-06) as an assistant coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under head coach Jon Gruden. While with the Bucs, Middleton coached the tight ends and assisted with special teams and helped Tampa Bay to the 2005 NFC South Division championship.

■ Middleton spent five seasons (1999-03) on the coaching staff at Mississippi working along side Duke head coach David Cutcliffe. While with the Rebels, Middleton coached the tight ends for three years (1999-01) and running backs for two campaigns (2002-03) and served as the special teams coordinator. Ole Miss participated in four bowl games during Middleton's tenure, and the Atmore, Ala., native mentored kicker Jonathan Nichols, who set 15 school records, earned All-SEC honors and captured the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top placekicker in 2003. That season, Nichols booted 24-of-28 field goal attempts and all 45 of his point after touchdown tries en route to scoring an Ole Miss single-season record 117 points.

■ Also in 2003, Mississippi punter Cody Ridgeway garnered second team All-SEC accolades while the Rebels paced the league in net punting, kickoff returns, field goals, and PAT kicking.

■ Before joining Cutcliffe at Ole Miss, Middleton spent two seasons (1997-98) at Troy, coaching the tight ends, offensive tackles and assisted with special teams. He also spent time in private business, serving as vice president of American Communications.

■ A four-year letterwinning tight end at Auburn from 1982-85, Middleton helped the Tigers to a four-year ledger of 37-12 with four bowl game appearances that produced three victories. In 1983, Auburn

"Coach Middleton has been around the game for his whole life. He's really a veteran of the game, both playing and coaching, being in the NFL for ten years. I have a lot of respect for him and I know the entire team does, too."

- Duke tight end Brett Huffman

posted an 11-1 record, won the SEC title and defeated Michigan, 9-7, in the Sugar Bowl. Middleton earned a degree in pre-law/history from Auburn in 1988 and later received a master's degree in sports and fitness management from Troy in 1998.

■ Middleton's professional playing career spanned 10 seasons with five organizations. Undrafted out of Auburn, he played two years (1986-87) with the Atlanta Falcons before joining the Washington Redskins for the 1988 campaign. Following one season (1989) with the Cleveland Browns, Middleton returned to the Redskins for a four-year tenure that included a 37-24 victory over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVI. He finished his career playing single campaigns with the Los Angeles Rams (1994) and San Diego Chargers (1995).

■ Middleton, who was a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' training camp coaching staff in 2003 as a part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program, was selected by Gruden in 2006 to attend the NFL's Coaches Career Development Symposium. In addition, Middleton joined with other Tampa Bay coaches to host the 2004 High School Coaching Academy, a one-day clinic designed to elevate the quality of football coaching at the prep level.

■ Middleton and his wife, Mia, are the parents of three children: Ron II, Desmond and Zaria.

MIKE MacINTYRE

Defensive Coordinator

2nd Season at Duke

Recruiting Area: Western North Carolina, North Florida & Central Tennessee

■ Mike MacIntyre is in his second season on the Blue Devil staff and serves as Duke's defensive coordinator.

■ In 2008, Duke's defensive unit allowed 67.4 fewer yards and 9.8 few points per game than the previous season. Headlined by All-ACC honorees Vince Oghobaase and Michael Tauiilili, the Blue Devils registered eight more turnovers while yielding 13 fewer touchdowns as Duke made significant improvement from 2007.

■ Duke's defense last year allowed 23.4 points per game - the lowest total in 20 seasons - and held three opponents to less than 10 points for the first time since 1976.

■ MacIntyre served on David Cutcliffe's staff at Ole Miss from 1999-02, helping the Rebels to a four-year ledger of 29-19 with appearances in the Independence Bowl (1999 & 2002) and Music City Bowl (2000). MacIntyre coached the 1999 and 2000 seasons with the Ole Miss wide receivers before tutoring the defensive secondary in his final two years.

■ While mentoring the Mississippi wide receivers, MacIntyre coached two of the school's top pass-catchers in Cory Peterson and Grant Heard. On the Rebel career charts, Peterson ranks sixth in catches (135) and fifth in yards (1,842) while Heard stands third in receptions (142), third in yards (2,029) and second in receiving touchdowns (16). In 2001 - MacIntyre's first season with the Ole Miss defense - the Rebels led the SEC and ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.

■ MacIntyre served the 2007 season as an assistant coach with the NFL's New York Jets, coaching the defensive backs. He spent four seasons (2003-06) as an assistant coach under Bill Parcells with the Dallas Cowboys. During his time with Dallas, the Cowboys posted three winning seasons and earned playoff berths in both 2003 and 2006.

■ While with the Cowboys, MacIntyre coached safety Roy Williams, who was the eighth overall selection in the 2002 NFL Draft following a standout collegiate career at Oklahoma. Williams was selected to the NFL Pro Bowl in all four years that MacIntyre was on the Dallas staff and is one of four safeties in Cowboys history to earn four Pro Bowl berths. MacIntyre also coached cornerback Terrence Newman, who was an NFL All-Rookie choice in 2003 and an alternate for the Pro Bowl one season later.

"When you look at coach MacIntyre, he brings a lot of experience to the table. He's always pushing you. He's always trying to look out for the players."

- Duke safety Matt Daniels

■ MacIntyre got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Georgia (1990-91) and then spent the 1992 season as the defensive coordinator at Davidson College.

■ Before joining Cutcliffe at Ole Miss, MacIntyre coached the defensive backs at Temple in 1997-98. Prior to his stint with the Owls, he was at Tennessee-Martin, where he served as co-defensive coordinator from 1993-95 and defensive coordinator in 1996. MacIntyre added recruiting coordinator duties in 1994 and became the assistant head coach in 1995.

■ A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech with a bachelor's degree in business management, MacIntyre played two seasons (1987-88) at free safety and punt returner for the Yellow Jackets under head coach Bobby Ross. Prior to attending Georgia Tech, MacIntyre played two years at Vanderbilt (1984-85) under his father, George, who served as the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85. He went on to earn a master's degree in education with an emphasis on sports management from Georgia in 1991.

■ Born March 14, 1965, in Miami, Fla., MacIntyre and his wife, Trisha, have three children, Jennifer, Jay Michael and Jonston.

MARION HOBBY

Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line

2nd Season at Duke

Recruiting Area: Eastern North Carolina,
Southern Virginia & North Alabama

■ Marion Hobby begins his second year as Duke's defensive coordinator while coaching the defensive line.

■ In 2008, Hobby directed the Blue Devil defensive line that included All-ACC tackle Vince Oghobaase. In addition, end Greg Akinbiyi ranked among the league's leaders in both tackles for loss and quarterback sacks. Duke's defense allowed 23.4 points per game – the lowest total in 20 seasons – and held three opponents to less than 10 points for the first time since 1976.

■ Hobby joined the Duke program following two seasons (2006-07) with the New Orleans Saints where he coached the defensive line. In 2006, the Saints posted a 10-6 record during the regular season and won the NFC South Division championship en route to an appearance in the NFC title game. Hobby coached Will Smith, a defensive end who registered 10.5 quarterback sacks and was tabbed a starter for the Pro Bowl.

■ In 2005, Hobby served on the staff at Clemson, helping the Tigers to an 8-4 ledger. That year, Clemson won six of its final seven contests, defeated Colorado by a 19-10 count in the Champs Sports Bowl and was ranked 21st in the final Associated Press national poll.

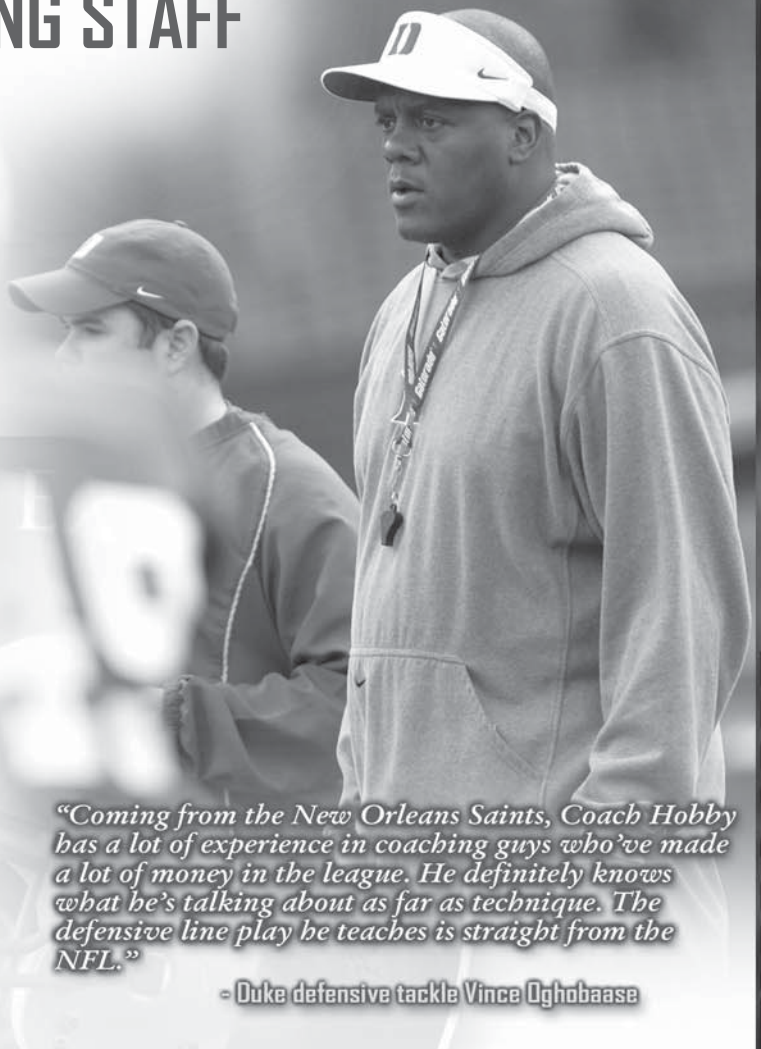

■ Prior to his stint with Clemson, Hobby worked six years (1999-04) alongside Cutcliffe at Ole Miss. During that stretch, the Rebels went 43-29 (.603) with five winning seasons, four bowl game appearances and a share of the SEC Western Division championship in 2003.

■ Hobby got his start in coaching in 1995, working with the defensive tackles at Tennessee-Martin. He then served two seasons at Southwest Louisiana as strength and conditioning coach (1996) and defensive tackles coach (1997) before spending one year (1998) at Tennessee as assistant strength and conditioning coach. The 1998 Volunteer squad went 13-0 and won the national championship with a 23-16 victory over Florida State in the Fiesta Bowl.

■ A four-year letterman and three-year starter on defense at Tennessee from 1986-89, Hobby served as team captain as a senior as the Volunteers went 11-1, captured the SEC championship, defeated Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl and finished the year ranked fifth in the final Associated Press national poll. During his playing tenure, the Vols posted a record of 33-14-1 and won three bowl games.

■ A first team All-SEC choice in 1989 who was named to Tennessee's 100-year Anniversary squad, Hobby was a third round pick of the Minnesota Vikings in the 1990 NFL Draft and played three seasons with the New England Patriots (1990-92).

■ A native of Irondale, Ala., Hobby and his wife, Constance, have three children, Maria, Mariah and Camille.

"Coming from the New Orleans Saints, Coach Hobby has a lot of experience in coaching guys who've made a lot of money in the league. He definitely knows what he's talking about as far as technique. The defensive line play he teaches is straight from the NFL."

- Duke defensive tackle Vince Oghobaase

DUKE COACHING STAFF

KURT ROPER

Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks

2nd Season at Duke

Recruiting Area: Texas & Western Tennessee

■ A coaching veteran who has spent time on staffs at three SEC schools, Kurt Roper is in his second season as Duke's offensive coordinator while directing the Blue Devil quarterbacks.

■ In 2008, Roper guided quarterback Thaddeus Lewis to an All-ACC citation. Lewis finished the season ranking second in the league in passing yards per game, total offense per game and touchdown passes while becoming just the third Duke quarterback to throw 10 or more touchdown passes in three consecutive seasons.

■ Duke's offense also featured All-ACC wide receiver Eron Riley, who signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Baltimore Ravens after catching 61 passes for 693 yards and eight touchdowns. In addition, the Blue Devils showed marked improvement in the rushing game (+42.2 yards per game) while allowing 23 fewer sacks than the previous season.

■ Roper joined the Duke program in January of 2008 after serving the previous two years at Tennessee where he coached the running backs. The Volunteers produced 19 wins against eight losses from 2006-07 with one SEC Eastern Division crown and a pair of berths in the Outback Bowl.

■ Tennessee's rushing attack in 2007 was featured by Arian Foster, who gained 1,193 yards on 245 carries while scoring 12 touchdowns on the ground. On the Volunteer single-season record charts, Foster's numbers landed him fourth in rushing attempts, tied for fifth in rushing touchdowns and ninth in yards. In addition, he had five 100-yard rushing games on the year and his 98-yard, three-touchdown performance against Georgia helped Tennessee defeat the then 12th-ranked Bulldogs, 35-14. Foster finished his career with 2,964 rushing yards.

■ Roper got his start in coaching at Tennessee, serving as a graduate assistant coach from 1996-98 while working with the Volunteer defensive and special teams units. He then followed current Duke head coach David Cutcliffe to Ole Miss and spent six years in Oxford as the Rebels went 44-29 with four bowl game victories. Mississippi enjoyed one of its finest seasons in school history in 2003 when the Rebels went 10-3, captured a share of the SEC Western Division title and defeated Oklahoma State, 31-28, in the Cotton Bowl.

■ While with Ole Miss, Roper coached the quarterbacks all six years and added the responsibility of passing game coordinator for his final three seasons. Among his pupils was record-setting, All-America signal-caller Eli Manning, the 2003 SEC Player of the Year who was the number one overall pick in the 2004 NFL Draft.

■ In 2005, Roper coached the quarterbacks at Kentucky under head coach Rich Brooks.

"Coach Roper is all about execution. He's all about getting better. He's one of the best teachers and toughest coaches I've ever had. He stays on me, and that's what I love about him."

- Duke quarterback Thaddeus Lewis

■ In all, Roper has coached in nine bowl games: 1997 Florida Citrus, 1998 Orange, 1998 Independence, 1999 Independence, 2000 Music City, 2002 Independence, 2004 Cotton, 2007 Outback and 2008 Outback.

■ A native of Ames, Iowa, Roper earned three varsity letters on the gridiron as a defensive back and quarterback at Rice before graduating in 1995. He went on to earn a master's degree from Tennessee in 1998.

■ Roper is married to the former Britt Albertson of High Point, N.C., and the couple has one daughter, Reese Leslie, who was born February 8, 2008. His brother, Zac, also is a member of the Duke football coaching staff.

COACHING STAFF

MATT LUKE

Offensive Coordinator
Running Game/Offensive Line
2nd Season at Duke

Recruiting Area: North Georgia, Eastern Tennessee, Southern Ohio, Southeastern North Carolina & Illinois

■ In his second season at Duke, Matt Luke serves as Duke's offensive coordinator/running game while directing the offensive line.

■ In 2008, Duke's offensive line trimmed 23 sacks off of its total from the previous season while paving the way for the Blue Devils to average 42.2 more rushing yards. In addition, the unit provided protection for quarterback Thaddeus Lewis to throw for 2,171 yards and 15 touchdowns against just six interceptions en route to earning All-ACC honors.

■ Duke offensive tackle Cameron Goldberg signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs following the 2008 season. In addition, guard Kyle Hill was named second team Freshman All-America by Sporting News.

■ Luke spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons at Tennessee, coaching the tight ends and offensive line while serving as recruiting coordinator. He helped the Volunteers to a 19-8 overall record including one SEC Eastern Division championship and two appearances in the Outback Bowl.

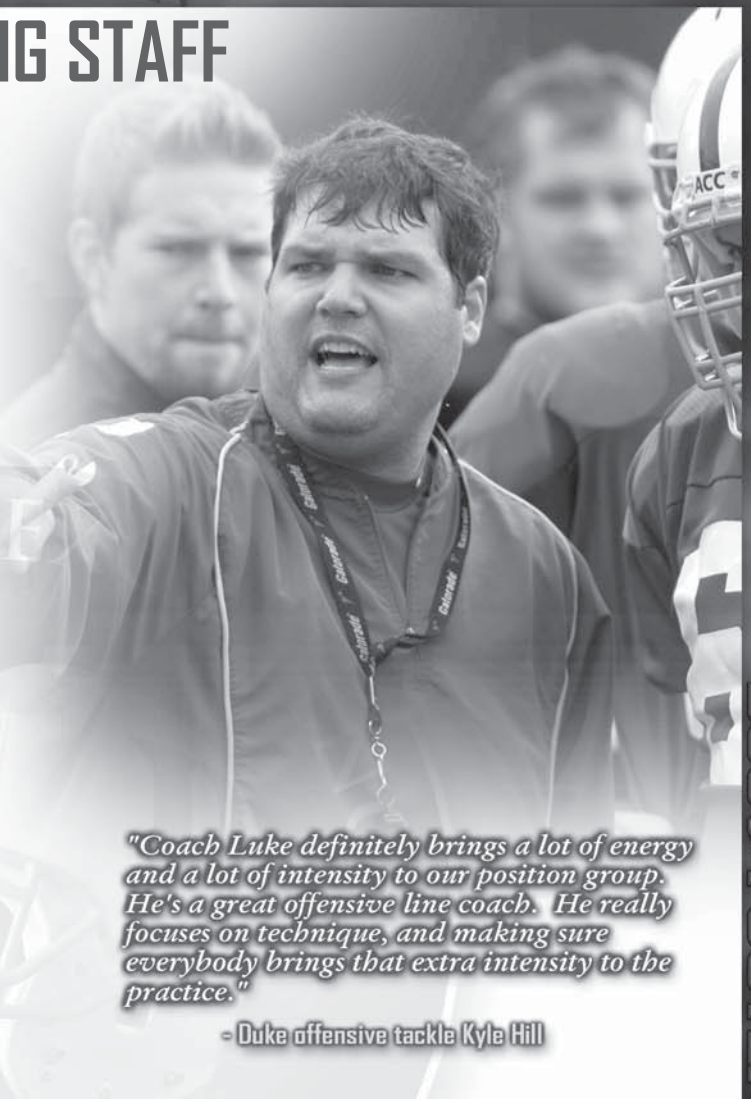

■ On the recruiting front, Tennessee's 2007 class was rated third-best nationally by Rivals.com and fourth-best by Scout.com.

■ A native of Gulfport, Miss., Luke lettered four seasons (1995-98) as a center at Ole Miss. A starter in 33 career games for the Rebels, he served as team captain in 1998 as Ole Miss posted a 7-5 ledger and defeated Texas Tech in the Independence Bowl. He was named the 1998 Ole Miss Most Valuable Senior by the Jackson (Miss.) Touchdown Club and twice earned Academic All-SEC honors.

■ Following his playing career, he served as a student assistant coach at Ole Miss under current Duke head coach David Cutcliffe in 1999, helping the Rebels to an 8-4 ledger with regular season wins against Auburn, South Carolina, LSU and Arkansas as well as a 27-25 triumph over Oklahoma in the Independence Bowl. He graduated in May of 2000 with a degree in business administration.

■ Luke spent two years (2000-01) coaching the offensive line at Murray State before returning to his alma mater to guide the Rebel tight ends and offensive line for four seasons (2002-05). Ole Miss won two bowl games during that stretch, defeating Nebraska in the Independence Bowl to close the 2002 season and upending Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl a year later to cap a 10-3 campaign that included a share of the SEC Western Division championship.

■ Luke is married to the former Ashley Grantham of Oxford, Miss., and the couple has one son, Harrison Thomas, who was born February 18, 2008. His father, Tommy, was a defensive back at Mississippi in the 1960s while his brother, Tom, quarterbacked the Rebels from 1989-91.

"Coach Luke definitely brings a lot of energy and a lot of intensity to our position group. He's a great offensive line coach. He really focuses on technique, and making sure everybody brings that extra intensity to the practice."

- Duke offensive tackle Kyle Hill

DUKE

COACHING STAFF

SCOTTIE MONTGOMERY

Wide Receivers

4th Season at Duke

Recruiting Area: South Florida, Central Georgia & Central North Carolina

■ One of the best wide receivers ever to wear a Duke uniform, Scottie Montgomery was hired by head coach David Cutcliffe as an assistant coach to lead the wide receiving corps.

■ A member of the coaching staff at his alma mater since 2006, Montgomery has tutored two of the finest wide receivers in Duke history in Eron Riley and Jomar Wright. Riley, a two-time All-ACC selection, capped an outstanding career in 2008 by catching 61 passes for 693 yards and eight touchdowns. He went on to sign a free agent contract with the NFL's Baltimore Ravens following the season. Wright, a senior captain in 2007, had 56 grabs for 599 yards and five touchdowns during his final campaign. Both players rank among Duke's all-time leaders in career receptions and yards.

■ As a wide receiver for the Blue Devils from 1996-99, Montgomery paced Duke in receiving three straight seasons (1997-99) and twice earned the program's Carmen Falcone Award (1998 & 1999) as the Most Valuable Player. The Cleveland County, N.C., native joins Howard Pitt (1951-53) and Stan Crisson (1961-63) as the only Duke players to lead the program in receiving in three straight years and is one of just five two-time team MVPs in school history.

■ On Duke's all-time pass receiving charts, Montgomery ranks second in receptions (171), fourth in yards (2,379), tied for seventh in 100-yard receiving games (4) and tied for eighth in touchdowns (13). He caught 51 passes in both 1997 and 1999 and registered a career-high 60 receptions as a junior in 1998. The 60 catches marked the most by a Duke player in a single season since All-America Clarkston Hines hauled in 61 passes during the 1989 campaign. Hines and Montgomery are the only Duke players to post three straight seasons with at least 50 receptions and 600 yards.

■ Montgomery's name also is etched into the Duke record book for longest plays, ranking tied for second for pass completions with an 88-yard catch from Bobby Campbell against Vanderbilt in 1998 and fourth under kickoff returns with a 99-yard return versus Wake Forest in 1999. Montgomery ranks fifth on Duke's all-time chart for both kickoff returns (63) and kickoff return yards (1,515), while his 4,188 career all-purpose yards rank as the third-highest total in school history.

■ During his senior campaign in 1999, he established the school standard for all-purpose yards in a season with 1,565 — a mark that was broken in 2001 when Chris Douglas amassed 1,849 yards. Montgomery continues to hold two of Duke's top 10 single-game totals for all-purpose yardage with 262 versus Vanderbilt in 1998 (7th) and 250 against Virginia in 1999 (10th). In the Vanderbilt contest, he registered 243 receiving yards, a total that stands fourth on Duke's chart for single-game performances.

"Coach Montgomery is the perfect example of what is great about Duke Football. He's accomplished what we all are striving for - earn a Duke degree and play in the NFL."

- Eron Riley, 2008 All-ACC wide receiver

■ Montgomery played professionally with the NFL's Denver Broncos (2000-02) and Oakland Raiders (2003). He is married to the former Ebony McDuffie of Detroit, Mich.

2009 FOOTBALL

DUKE COACHING STAFF

■ Zac Roper enters his second season on the Blue Devil coaching unit. At Duke, Roper serves as recruiting coordinator while coaching the running backs and assisting with the special teams.

■ In 2008, Roper managed the unexpected loss of returning starting running back Re'quan Boyette by preparing three backs – Clifford Harris, Jay Hollingsworth and Tony Jackson – for action despite the trio combining for a total of 92 career rushing attempts entering the year. The combination rushed for 1,003 yards while catching 51 passes for an additional 421 yards on the year. In addition, Hollingsworth became the first true freshman to lead Duke in rushing since 1998.

■ On the placekicking front, Duke's field goal percentage of .722 (13-18) was the school's highest since 1997 while Nick Maggio became just the third kicker in school history to successfully convert 25 or more PATs without a miss. In addition, Kevin Jones ranked second in the ACC in punting and was named to the academic all-league squad.

■ From 2005-07, Roper helped Cornell University to an overall ledger of 16-14. He coached the running backs and tight ends during his first two seasons before switching to cornerbacks in 2007 and also served as special teams coordinator. Roper coached or recruited eight Ivy League Player of the Week selections during his three seasons.

■ On the special teams front in 2007, Cornell paced the league in punt return average – returning two punts for touchdowns during the year – and kickoff coverage. The Big Red also posted touchdowns via fake field goal and kickoff return.

■ Coaching the running backs in 2006, Roper tutored Luke Siwula, who rushed for 885 yards in 2006 en route to receiving second team All-Ivy League honors. In 2005, he mentored the tight ends as Cornell finished the year ranked 10th nationally in rushing offense.

■ Roper's work with the Cornell placekickers yielded zero missed point after touchdown attempts over his three seasons as A.J. Weitsman and Peter Zell combined to boot 84 consecutive extra points. In addition, Weitsman established a Cornell single-season record with 14 field goals while punter Michael Bolling downed 23-of-52 punts inside the 20 yardline without a touchback in 2005.

■ Prior to joining the Big Red staff, Roper spent four years at Ole Miss as a graduate administrative aide and graduate assistant coach under current Duke head coach David Cutcliffe, working with the wide receivers, tight ends and placekickers. Mississippi's 2003 squad won 10 games with a share of the SEC Western Division title and defeated Oklahoma State, 31-28, in the Cotton Bowl.

"Coach Roper brings a lot of intensity to our program. His focus and attention to detail is incredible. He's a really great coach, and we're glad to have him."

- Duke running back Re'quan Boyette

■ Ole Miss kicker Jonathan Nichols enjoyed a sensational season in 2003 by earning All-SEC and All-America honors while winning the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker. He graduated as the school's all-time leader in total points (344) and finished his career having made 117 consecutive PATs. Punter Cody Ridgeway was an all-league choice in 2003 after ranking 11th nationally in punting average.

■ Roper was an undergraduate assistant coach at Oklahoma under head coach John Blake from 1996-98. He graduated from Ole Miss in 2001 with a degree in political science and went on to earn a master's degree in higher education/student personnel two years later.

■ A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Roper is married to the former Rebecca Harvey of Bossier City, La., and the couple has one son, Joshua David, who was born January 5, 2009. Roper's brother, Kurt, also is a member of the Duke football coaching staff.

DUKE COACHING STAFF

JIM COLLINS

Linebackers

8th Season at Duke

Recruiting Area: Central North Carolina
& Central Florida

■ No stranger to Duke football, Jim Collins was named to the Duke coaching staff in January of 2008 for his third stint with the Blue Devils. Collins was a graduate assistant with head coach Steve Sloan in 1983 and later served five campaigns from 1985-89 under both Sloan and Steve Spurrier. Collins coaches the Blue Devil linebackers.

■ In 2008, Collins directed a linebacking unit that featured All-America Michael Tauiiili, who led the ACC with 140 tackles. Tauiiili, who finished his career ranking fourth on Duke's all-time tackle chart, signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Indianapolis Colts following the season. Also, Vincent Rey recorded 109 tackles and enters the 2009 season as the only active linebacker in the ACC to have posted 100 or more tackles in each of the past two seasons.

■ In 2008, Duke's defense allowed 23.4 points per game – the lowest total in 20 seasons – and held three opponents to less than 10 points for the first time since 1976.

■ A native of Greensboro, N.C., Collins began his coaching career at Page (N.C.) High School in 1974. He then served as the defensive coordinator at Lees-McRae Junior College in 1980 before coaching the defensive backs and outside linebackers at Appalachian State from 1981-82. After one season at Duke as a graduate assistant coach, he was the defensive coordinator at Jacksonville State in 1984.

■ In 1985, Collins returned to Durham for a five-year stint with the Blue Devils. Coaching Duke's linebackers, he mentored Mike Junkin, a second team All-America pick in 1986 who became the school's all-time leading tackler and was a first round selection of the Cleveland Browns in the 1987 NFL Draft. Collins served as Duke's co-defensive coordinator in 1989 as the Blue Devils posted an 8-4 record, won seven straight games to close the regular season, captured the ACC championship and participated in the All American Bowl in Birmingham, Ala.

■ Collins then went with Spurrier to Florida, serving on the staff from 1990-01. During his tenure with the Gators, he worked with the linebackers, defensive ends and tight ends while also serving as recruiting coordinator as Florida compiled an overall record of 122-27-1. The successful 12-year run included the 1996 national championship with a 52-20 victory over Florida State in the Sugar Bowl as well as an 82-12 record in SEC regular season action, nine 10-win seasons, 10 campaigns ranked in the top 10 of the final Associated Press national poll, six SEC titles, 11 bowl game appearances, 81 All-America citations and 13 first round NFL Draft selections.

"Coach Collins has helped us to get better. The best way I can sum it all up is demanding the best of us every single day."

- Duke linebacker Vincent Rey

■ In 2002-03, Collins worked with the NFL's Washington Redskins, coaching the linebackers while assisting with special teams. He then Collins joined the staff at Marshall where he guided the defensive backs in 2004 before coordinating the defense for the next two years. In 2005, his Thundering Herd defensive unit led Conference USA in total defense while ranking 12th nationally against the pass.

■ During his college coaching career, Collins has participated in 13 bowl games: 1989 All American, 1992 Sugar, 1992 Gator, 1994 Sugar, 1995 Sugar, 1996 Fiesta, 1997 Sugar, 1998 Citrus, 1999 Orange, 2000 Citrus, 2001 Sugar, 2002 Orange and 2004 Fort Worth.

■ Collins played defensive back at Elon College before graduating in 1974 with a degree in physical education. He later earned a master's degree in education from North Carolina A&T in 1979. He and his wife, Geri, have one daughter, Jennifer.

DUKE COACHING STAFF

DEREK JONES
Defensive Backs
2nd Season at Duke

Recruiting Area: South Carolina, Northern New Jersey, Western Pennsylvania, Northern Ohio & Southern New York

■ Derek Jones is in his second season on the Duke staff where he coaches the Blue Devil defensive backs.

■ In 2008, the Blue Devil defense allowed 23.4 points per game – the lowest total in 20 seasons – and held three opponents to less than 10 points for the first time since 1976. Catron Gainey finished third on the team in tackles with 66 while Glenn Williams was named Duke’s Outstanding Defensive Back after contributing 60 tackles, two sacks and three caused fumbles. In addition, Adrian Aye-Darko had 58 tackles and three interceptions while Jabari Marshall logged two interceptions, returning one 42 yards for a touchdown in Duke’s 31-3 victory over Virginia.

■ Prior to joining the Duke staff, Jones helped Memphis to a 7-6 overall record in 2007 – a five-game improvement in the win column from the previous year – with a berth in the New Orleans Bowl. One of Jones’ pupils, LaKeitharun Ford, was named co-MVP of the squad after posting 45 tackles and two interceptions.

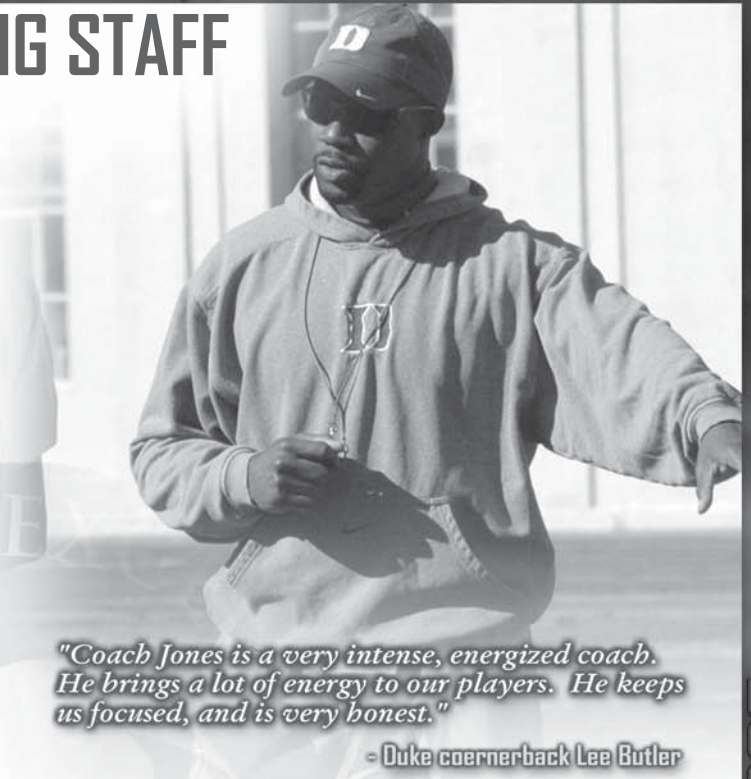

■ In 2006, Jones coached the cornerbacks at Tulsa as the Hurricane defense ranked first in Conference USA in pass defense and total defense. Tulsa posted an 8-5 ledger that season and participated in the Armed Forces Bowl. Cornerback Nick Graham earned all-conference honors and is a current member of the Philadelphia Eagles.

■ Prior to joining the Tulsa staff, Jones worked one season as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State University where the Blue Raiders ranked 30th nationally against the pass.

■ Jones received his start in coaching at Ole Miss in 1998 as a graduate assistant for football operations and recruiting. He then served as a defensive graduate assistant coach in 1999 with the Rebels under current Duke head coach David Cutcliffe.

■ From 2000-04, Jones served as cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator at Murray State, mentoring seven all-conference selections in five years. The Racers enjoyed defensive success during Jones’ tenure, leading the Ohio Valley Conference in pass defense in 2003 and, one year later, ranking 11th nationally in total defense and 23rd nationally in scoring defense.

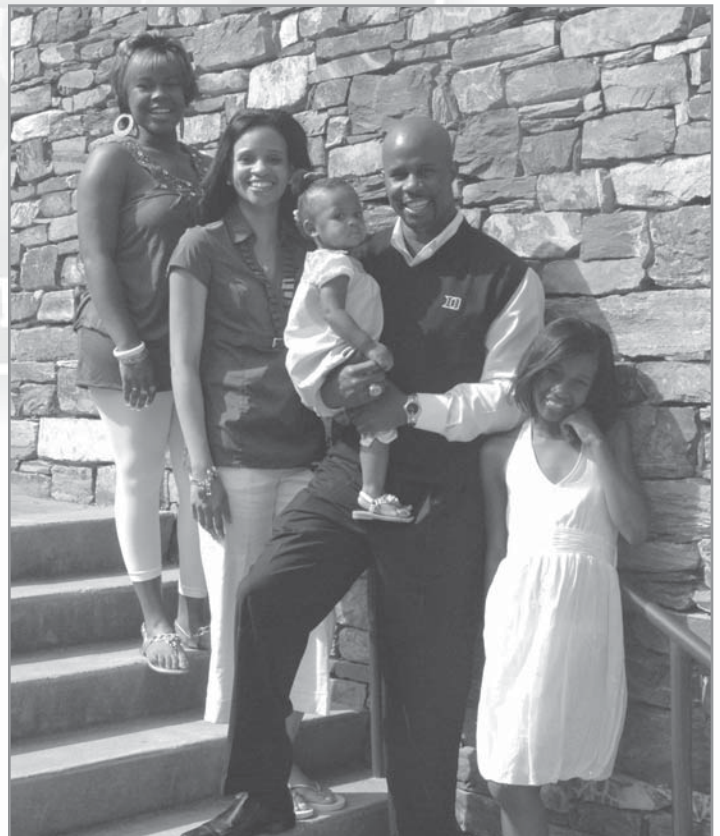

■ A native of Woodruff, S.C., Jones lettered four seasons as a cornerback at Ole Miss from 1993-96. He was a two-time second team All-SEC pick, captained the Rebels in 1996 and was selected to play in the prestigious Blue-Gray All-Star Classic following his senior campaign. He also earned All-SEC accolades in track and field as a sprinter.

"Coach Jones is a very intense, energized coach. He brings a lot of energy to our players. He keeps us focused, and is very honest."

- Duke cornerback Lee Butler

■ Jones received a degree in public administration from Ole Miss in 1996, and then played professionally with the Toronto Argonauts and Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League and Nashville Kats of the Arena Football League. He and his wife, Naketa, have two daughters, Madison and Brooklyn Savannah. Jones has another daughter, Darquisha.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

KEVIN WHITE

Vice President and Director of Athletics
Adjunct Professor of Business
Alma Mater: St. Joseph's College '72

Kevin M. White was named Duke University's vice president and director of athletics on May 31, 2008. He also serves as an adjunct professor of business administration at the university.

White, 58, joined the Duke family after leading Notre Dame's athletics program to success both on the playing fields and in the classroom from 2000-08. He also has held a number of prominent national leadership roles within intercollegiate athletics, including his service in 2006-07 as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and in 2005-06 as president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association.

Guided by the Strategic Plan that was approved by Duke's Board of Trustees in April of 2008, White made an immediate impact on Duke Athletics. He reshaped the organization into a more efficient and modern department; strengthened ties to both campus and community constituents through consistent outreach efforts; successfully oversaw Duke's fundraising efforts during an economic downturn; completed partnerships with major corporate entities to enhance revenue streams; commissioned a master facilities plan to position Duke well into the 21st Century; and emphasized a stronger commitment to the university's intramural, club and recreational sports programs.

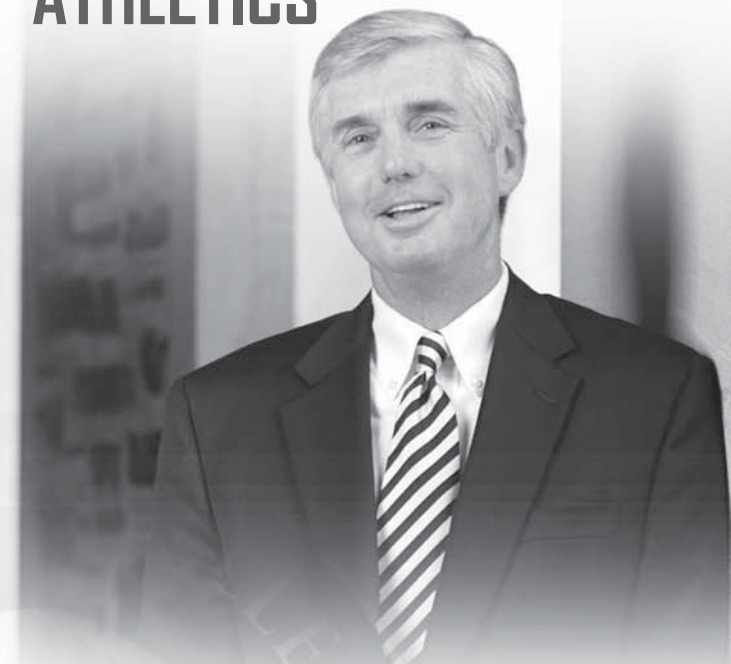

In his first year at Duke, White oversaw a program that won a national championship (women's tennis) - the school's 10th overall - and four ACC titles (men's basketball, men's lacrosse, women's tennis and volleyball). Duke placed 17th in the 2009 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, which determines an institution's all-around strength in intercollegiate athletics. The Blue Devils' 891.80 points in the all-sports competition were the third-most for the school, and it was the sixth consecutive year Duke has ended among the nation's top 20 programs. Six Blue Devil teams ranked among the nation's top 10 teams during their regular seasons and two - men's basketball and women's tennis - reached No. 1. In all, 13 Duke teams advanced to postseason competition in 2008-09.

Individually, 27 student-athletes earned All-America, 39 All-ACC and 26 All-Region honors in 2008-09. Duke boasted two NCAA individual champions in Becca Ward (women's fencing, saber) and Mallory Cecil (women's tennis) and six Blue Devil athletes were individual ACC champions.

Academically, Duke teams continued their strong performances as 25 of 26 Blue Devil varsity teams earned grade point averages of 3.0 or better during the 2009 spring semester, marking the first time in Duke Athletics history that occurred. A total of 429 Duke student-athletes registered a 3.0 or higher grade-point average during the 2008-09 campaign. Former women's tennis player Parker Goyer was a Rhodes Scholar award winner, while track athlete Sally Liu earned a prestigious Marshall Scholarship.

In two key elements in tracking a department's academic success, Duke ranked among the nation's best again. Duke posted a 97% Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and 19 teams achieved a 100% GSR. Twelve Blue Devil teams were ranked in the top 10% of their respective sport in the most recent Academic Performance Rate (APR) Report. Duke had the only football program in the ACC to qualify for this recognition and was one of just three schools from the six BCS conferences honored. Four Blue Devils received ACC Postgraduate Scholarships -- Amanda Blumenherst (golf), Kim Imbesi (lacrosse), Melissa Mang (tennis) and Peter Truszkowski (fencing).

Under White, Duke has continued its focus on outreach to the local community. Modeling the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program's commitment to service, learning projects and outreach, close to 500 Duke student-athletes across the department participated in a combined effort of more than 1,300 community service hours (based only on activities and events coordinated through and reported to Student-Athlete Development during the 2008-09 year).

White, who holds a Ph.D. in education, has taught graduate-level classes since 1982 and currently teaches a sports business course in Duke's Fuqua School of Business as part of Duke's MBA program.

In August 2003, SI.com (the Sports Illustrated web site) listed White, then at Notre Dame, third in its rankings of the most powerful people in college football. In January 2004, Sporting News listed him in its Power 100 as third among five names in the "front office" category (and the lone college athletics director among the 100).

White currently is a representative with the football Bowl Championship Series. He previously served on numerous NCAA committees, including being an ex-officio member of the NCAA Committee on Academic Performance and a member of its Penalty and Rewards subcommittee. Additionally, White was part of the NCAA Coalition on Intercollegiate Athletics (COIA) that dealt with academics, fiscal reform and student-athlete well-being.

Given his background and success, it is not surprising that 16 current or former directors of athletics were mentored by White. That impressive list includes Jim Sterk of Washington State, Tom Boeh of Ohio University and Fresno State, Ian McCaw of Northeastern, Massachusetts and Baylor, Bruce Van De Velde previously of Utah State and Iowa State, Herman Frazier previously of Hawaii, Rudy Keeling formerly of Emerson and now commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC), Scott Devine of St. Mary's College (Md.), Tim Van Alstine of Western Illinois, Mark Wilson of Tennessee Tech, Bubba Cunningham of Ball State and Tulsa, Sandy Barbour (who followed him at Tulane) of California-Berkeley, Jim Phillips of Northern Illinois and Northwestern, Bernard Muir of Georgetown and Delaware, Sandy Hatfield-Clubb of Drake, Vic Cegles of Long Beach State, and Norwood Teague of Virginia Commonwealth.

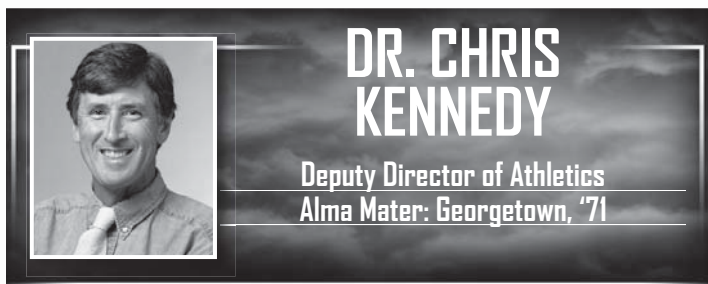

Prior to joining Notre Dame in 2000, White served as athletic director at Arizona State University, Tulane University, the University of Maine and Loras College in Iowa, where he originated the National Catholic Basketball Tournament.

Before becoming an administrator, White served as head track and field coach at Southeast Missouri State (1981-82) and assistant cross country and track and field coach at Central Michigan (1976-80). He began his coaching career at Gulf High School in New Port Richey, Fla., coaching cross country and track and assisting in football and wrestling.

White earned his Ph.D. from Southern Illinois University in 1983 with an emphasis on higher education administration. In 1985, he completed postdoctoral work at Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management. He earned his master's degree in athletics administration from Central Michigan University in 1976 and his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1972 from St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., where he also competed as a sprinter.

White and his wife, Jane, a former college track and field coach, have five children and eight grandchildren.

SENIOR ADMINISTRATION

DR. CHRIS KENNEDY

Deputy Director of Athletics
Alma Mater: Georgetown, '71

Chris Kennedy was promoted to Deputy Director of Athletics on August 12, 2008, and has been a part of the Duke Athletics staff since 1977.

His other capacities within the department of athletics have included academics coordinator and compliance coordinator. He became the senior associate director of athletics in 1997 and in the summer of 2008 served as interim director of athletics. His role includes oversight of the compliance and academic support areas as well as additional administrative duties.

Kennedy, a native of Hillsborough, Calif., is a 1971 graduate of Georgetown University.

Under Kennedy's oversight, Duke has won the College Academic Achievement Award a record 12 times, including five consecutive years from 1993-97, for the graduation rate of its football student-athletes. Kennedy has been presented five times with a special citation from the CFA for his excellence in academic advising. Additionally, Duke consistently ranks among the nation's best in overall graduation rates of its student-athletes. In compliance, Kennedy has overseen the growth of a department that now includes four full-time positions, two of whom hold law degrees.

A 1971 graduate of Georgetown, Kennedy is a Peer Reviewer for the NCAA Certification Committee and served as Duke's athletics department liaison as it went through the process twice in the past 10 years.

Kennedy earned his master's degree from Georgetown in 1974 and his Ph.D. from Duke in 1979. He still serves as an adjunct assistant professor of English at Duke. He and his wife, Ana Beamud, have two children - Joe, a 2005 graduate of Duke and former captain of the school's men's lacrosse team, and Marion, a 2009 Duke graduate.

STAN WILCOX

Deputy Director of Athletics
Alma Mater: Notre Dame, '81

Stan Wilcox joined the Duke staff in August of 2008 and serves as Deputy Director of Athletics.

Before moving to Durham, Wilcox, a former basketball letterman at Notre Dame, spent three years as the deputy director of athletics at his alma mater. Prior to returning to South Bend in 2005, he served 11 years as an associate commissioner of the BIG EAST Conference.

At Duke, Wilcox's duties include managing the day-to-day operation of the department and oversight of the football program. Other areas within athletics he will oversee are Health, Physical Education and Recreation, Human Resources, Sports Medicine and the Strength and Conditioning departments. In addition, Wilcox is responsible for coordinating scheduling and serves as the department's primary liaison with Duke's legal counsel.

While working at the BIG EAST Conference, Wilcox was the league's representative to the NCAA Management Council from 2000-05 and served on the Management Council subcommittees on incentives and disincentives, governance, nominations and the task force to review the NCAA's one-time transfer exception rule. Also, he spent time on the NCAA recruiting task force and the basketball issues committee. For the BIG EAST, Wilcox, who in 2001-02 received the National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators

Outstanding Achievement Award, was responsible for the league's NCAA governance, legislative, enforcement and compliance services.

Additionally, Wilcox is a past president of the Black Coaches Association (BCA), having held the post from June, 2003 to June, 2005. Overall, he served 11 years on the BCA's Board of Directors.

Before his tenure at the BIG EAST Conference, Wilcox worked as a legislative assistant at the NCAA from 1989-94. Prior to that, he worked as a senior court analyst for the King County Supreme Court in Brooklyn, N.Y., from 1982-89. Following his graduation from Notre Dame in 1981 with a degree in economics, he spent one year as an account executive for Serres, Visonese & Rice Insurance in New York, N.Y.

A native of North Babylon, N.Y., Wilcox played in 100 career games on the hardwood for the Fighting Irish and was a member of Notre Dame's 1978 club that faced Duke in the NCAA Final Four in St. Louis, Mo. He helped the Irish to a four-year ledger of 92-26 with four NCAA Tournament berths. Wilcox went on to earn a juris doctor degree from the Brooklyn Law School in 1988 and is a member of the New York State Bar Association.

He is married to the former Ramona Harrell. Stan has three daughters, Soraya, Yasmeen and Nadia, and Ramona has three sons, James, Brian and Charles.

SEASON REVIEW

All-America

Senior linebacker Michael Tauiliili was named a second team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation and a third team All-America by the Associated Press ... He became Duke's first All-America selection since 2000 when punter Brian Morton earned second team honors ... The last Duke linebacker selected to an All-America team was Mike Junkin in 1986.

Freshman All-America

Redshirt freshman Kyle Hill was named a second team Freshman All-America by Sporting News and Rivals.com after starting all 12 games at left guard in 2008 for the Blue Devils ... Duke has had a freshman receive Freshman All-America honors in six straight seasons and in eight of the nine years since 2000 ... Hill joined Michael Tauiliili (2005 1st Team) as the only two Duke players named first or second team Freshman All-America.

Four Receive All-ACC Honors

The Blue Devils had four players receive All-ACC honors in 2008 ... Senior linebacker Michael Tauiliili was named to the first team for his first career conference honor ... Senior wide receiver Eron Riley and junior quarterback Thaddeus Lewis were each named to the second team ... Riley received the honor for the second straight year while Lewis earned his first award ... Junior defensive tackle Vince Oghobaase received honorable mention All-ACC ... He was a freshman All-ACC pick in 2006.

AFCA Good Works Team

Senior running back Re'quan Boyette was one of 11 players nationally chosen to the 2008 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team ... Boyette became the second Blue Devil to be honored for his efforts in the community and the classroom with a spot on the AFCA Good Works Team ... Defensive back Zaid Abdul-Aleem was selected in 1994.

Blue Devils Finish Season 4-8

First year head coach David Cutcliffe and his staff led Duke to a 4-8 record in 2008 ... The four wins under Cutcliffe, mark the most by a Duke head coach in a single-season since 1994 ... The four victories matched the combined total of Duke's four previous seasons (2-9 in 2004, 1-10 in 2005, 0-12 in 2006 & 1-11 in 2007).

Attendance Records

Duke posted an average home season attendance of 28,727 in 2008, the highest home attendance since 1994 (30,845) ... The Blue Devils drew four crowds of over 30,000 fans for the first time in school history ... Attendance was up 8,663 fans per game from the 2007 final totals ... Head coach David Cutcliffe and the sports marketing office achieved a 60% increase in season tickets from 2007 to 2008.

Kyle Hill

Marked Improvement

The Blue Devils improved in several statistical categories from 2007 to 2008 in all facets of the game ... Some of the noticeable differences on offensive included an average of 32.7 yards per game more of total offense and 42.2 more rushing yards per game ... The offensive line allowed 22 sacks, which was 23 fewer than the year before ... The defense also made great strides allowing 9.8 fewer points per game, the sixth biggest change in the country ... Duke gave up 13 fewer touchdowns and forced eight more turnovers ... The defense allowed 67.4 fewer yards of total offense per game, including 38.7 fewer passing yards and 28.7 fewer rushing yards per contest ... On special teams the field goal percentage increased by 45 percent and the PAT percentage was 100 percent.

Lewis Under Center

Quarterback Thaddeus Lewis threw for 2,171 yards on the year to rank second in the ACC with 197.4 yards per game ... He also ranked second in passing touchdowns (15) and total offense (206.1 ypg.), third in completion percentage (62.0) and fourth in pass efficiency (123.0 rating) ... On the Duke single season records list, Lewis' junior campaign ranks seventh in completions (224), eighth in attempts (361), tied for eighth in touchdown passes (15) and ninth in completions ... Lewis set two school records during the season, including most consecutive passes without an interception (206) and most passes in a single game without an interception (52 vs. N.C. State) ... He also became just the third Duke player to throw 10 or more touchdown passes in three straight seasons ... The only other two players to accomplish the feat were Steve Slayden (1985-86-87) and Spence Fischer (1993-94-95).

Lewis-to-Riley

Quarterback Thaddeus Lewis and wide receiver Eron Riley connected broke the school record for the most quarterback-to-receiver career touchdown passes ... In the three seasons the duo played together they connected for 19 touchdowns, passing the previous record of 16 by the tandems of Ben Bennett-to-Chris Castor and Steve Slayden-to-Doug Green ... Lewis and Riley connected for seven touchdown passes in 2008.

Riley Caps Off Great Career

Senior Eron Riley finished his Duke career as one of the top receivers in school history ... He put together his best season as a Blue Devil in 2008 with a career-high 61 catches to go with 693 yards and eight touchdowns ... His 61 grabs ranked tied for third most in a single season while his eight touchdowns rank tied for seventh ... In his senior season, he ranked fourth in the ACC in receptions (5.08) and receiving yards (57.8) per game ... His eight touchdown catches were the second most in the league ... He ended his four years ranked among the Duke career leaders in yards per reception receiving yards (2nd, 2,413), touchdowns (3rd, 22) and receptions (7th, 144).

Freshman Among Top Receivers

Of Duke's top four receivers in 2008, three were true freshmen ... Johnny Williams ranked second on the team with 30 catches for 327 yards ... His 30 receptions marked the third most by a Duke freshman while his 327 yards rank fourth ... Running back Jay Hollingsworth finished third with 25 receptions for 188 yards and two touchdowns ... The 25 catches are the most by a freshman running back at Duke and rank fifth among all Blue Devil freshmen ... Donovan Varner was fourth with 21 catches for 164 yards and one touchdown despite missing two games ... Williams and Varner each posted among the top single game performances by NCAA freshmen in 2008 ... Williams caught 11 passes for 135 yards against Northwestern ... His 11 catches ranked fourth among NCAA freshmen while his 135 yards ranked 11th ... The 135 yards was second most by a freshman in Duke history ... Varner had 10 catches for 73 yards against North Carolina, tied for the sixth most receptions in the NCAA.

Back-To-Back 100 Tackles

Linebackers Michael Tauiliili and Vincent Rey each recorded over 100 tackles for the second straight season ... Tauiliili tallied 140 tackles to lead the ACC and rank third nationally ... His 140 tackles are tied for the eighth most in a single season at Duke ... Tauiliili had 108 tackles as a junior and finished his career ranked fourth in Duke history with 434 career tackles ... He had 13.0 tackles for loss in 2008 to close out his four seasons ranked third in school history with 46 tackles for loss ... Rey tallied 109 tackles as a junior after recording 111 as a sophomore ... He finished the 2008 season ranked fifth in the ACC ... He also recorded 10.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, one interception, one caused fumble and two fumble recoveries.

JAMES MADISON 7
DUKE 31

NORTHWESTERN 24
DUKE 20

DURHAM, N.C. — Duke RB Clifford Harris and WR Eron Riley scored two touchdowns each as the Blue Devils ushered in the David Cutcliffe Era with a 31-7 victory over James Madison in front of a crowd of 32,571 at Wallace Wade Stadium.

A near-capacity crowd witnessed Cutcliffe — hired the previous December as Duke's 21st head football coach — and the Blue Devils snap a nine-game losing streak.

Harris gave the Blue Devils a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter by scoring from one yard out to cap an 11-play, 66-yard drive. The march included a fourth down conversion when RB Tony Jackson picked up four yards off tackle on fourth-and-one from the James Madison 45 yard line.

The Dukes answered with a scoring drive of their own, but needed just five snaps to score when QB Rodney Landers darted 47 yards to the end zone to tie the game.

In the second quarter, Duke QB Thaddeus Lewis engineered a 14-play, 67-yard scoring drive and found Riley for six points from seven yards out with just five seconds prior to halftime. The Blue Devils again executed a fourth down conversion when Harris gained five yards on fourth-and-one from the James Madison 21 yard line.

James Madison claimed the momentum to begin the second half on Scotty McGee's 60-yard kickoff return, but Landers' pass on second down from the Duke 32 yard line was intercepted and returned 67 yards by CB Jabari Marshall. The Blue Devils took advantage of the miscue as a Lewis-to-Austin Kelly pass pushed Duke inside the five yard line before Harris plunged into the end zone from the one for a 21-7 lead.

On the next play from scrimmage, Landers fumbled the football and Duke DE Greg Akinbiyi recovered to give the Blue Devils possession at the James Madison 34 yard line. Six plays later, Lewis hooked up with Riley on a 20-yard scoring strike to increase the margin to 28-7. The Blue Devils scored on their fourth consecutive possession later in third period when K Nick Maggio's 27-yard field goal capped an 11-play, 38-yard drive.

Harris finished the night with a career-high 95 yards on 17 carries as the Duke ground attack picked up 218 yards. Lewis hit on 17-of-28 throws for 141 yards and the two touchdowns, with Riley hauling in seven tosses for 67 yards.

Duke's defense allowed just 239 yards of total offense. Akinbiyi finished the game with three tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and two fumble recoveries.

For James Madison, Landers rushed for 96 yards and added an additional 51 in the air.

DURHAM, N.C. — Northwestern QB C.J. Bacher threw for 226 yards and RB Tyrell Sutton scored two touchdowns as the Wildcats defeated Duke, 24-20, in front of 23,614 fans at Wallace Wade Stadium.

The Blue Devils took the opening kickoff and marched 72 yards in 11 plays for a 7-0 when RB Clifford Harris scored from two yards out. Later in the opening period, Northwestern used a four-play, 55-yard drive for an 18-yard scoring run by Sutton to knot the contest.

Early in the second quarter, Northwestern turned a Duke miscue into points. The Blue Devils gave the Wildcats excellent field position with a punting game error, and Sutton's 18-yard touchdown run pushed the visitors ahead, 14-7. The two teams then traded field goals in the final three minutes of the half and Northwestern claimed a 17-10 advantage at intermission.

Duke K Nick Maggio's second field goal of the game capped a nine-snap, 60-yard drive and pulled the Blue Devils to within 17-13 with 5:14 remaining in the third quarter. Backup QB Zack Asack engineered the drive, completing all five of his pass attempts for 38 yards while rushing three times for an additional 13 yards. Two possessions later, QB Thaddeus Lewis guided a nine-play, 73-yard drive and scored on a 16-yard rush to push Duke back in front, 20-17, with just over 12 minutes left in the fourth period.

Northwestern responded with a nine-play, 72-yard drive and received the game-winning touchdown on a two-yard run by RB Omar Conteh. Duke would drive inside the Northwestern 25 yard line on each of its final two possessions, but could not score.

Lewis finished the night with a career-high 24 completions in 42 attempts for 256 yards. Freshman WR Johnny Williams caught 11 passes for 135 yards, marking the second-highest single-game total for receiving yards by a rookie in Duke history. WRs Austin Kelly and Eron Riley hauled in four passes each for 37 and 28 yards, respectively. Harris had 86 yards on the ground on 18 attempts while RB Jay Hollingsworth carried the ball 11 times for 41 yards.

In addition, CB Jabari Marshall became Duke's career leader in kickoff return yards, eclipsing the previous mark of 1,890 yards held by Randy Jones (1987-90).

Defensively for the Blue Devils, LBs Vincent Rey and Michael Tauiliili logged eight tackles apiece.

For the Wildcats, Bacher was 14-of-31 through the air for 226 yards while Sutton finished the night with 66 yards on 16 carries.

Duke outgained Northwestern by a 472-328 margin in total offense, and held possession of the football for 39:15 of the game.

DURHAM, N.C. — Duke QB Thaddeus Lewis threw three touchdown passes to WR Eron Riley to guide the Blue Devils to a 41-31 victory over visiting Navy in front of 25,082 fans at Wallace Wade Stadium.

The Lewis-to-Riley combination became the top touchdown-producing tandem in Duke history with their 17th scoring play — a 49-yard effort that gave Duke a 10-point cushion in the final period. The previous school standard of 16 touchdown passes was held by the combinations of Ben Bennett-to-Chris Castor and Steve Slayden-to-Doug Green.

For the second straight week, the Blue Devils took the opening kickoff and marched to the end zone. Lewis capped off the 12-snap, 78-yard drive with a 27-yard scoring strike to Riley. The Midshipmen responded with a 73-yard touchdown run by Shun White to knot the game at 7-7.

After K Nick Maggio's career-long 46-yard field goal gave Duke a 10-7 advantage, Navy took advantage of a mishandled Duke punt at the Blue Devil 10 yard line. Navy QB Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada hooked up with SB Greg Shinego for a 10-yard passing touchdown and a 14-10 lead late in the opening quarter.

Duke's defense got into the scoring act midway through the second period when LB Vincent Rey scooped up a fumble and rumbled 37 yards for a touchdown. Navy, however, produced 10 points in a span of 1:05 late in the half to go ahead 24-17, and Duke K Joe Surgan sent the teams into intermission with the Mids up by four points by booting a career-long 52-yard field goal as time expired.

Lewis guided two short scoring drives of 38 yards in the third quarter to give Duke a 34-24 lead. His five-yard touchdown toss to Riley came with 7:17 left in the period before TE Tielor Robinson scored on the ground from two yards out with 1:46 on the clock.

The Midshipmen would pull within three points on their next possession when QB Jarod Bryant hit WR Tyree Barnes for a 68-yard touchdown pass on the final snap of the third period. Duke's defense would hold Navy to just 40 yards of total offense in the final quarter to help seal the victory.

Lewis completed 25-of-35 passes for 317 yards and three touchdowns while adding a career-high and team-best 41 rushing yards. Riley finished with eight grabs for 137 yards and the three scores. LBs Michael Tauiilili and Rey paced the Duke defense with 13 and 12 tackles, respectfully.

DURHAM, N.C. — Duke's defense forced six turnovers and LB Michael Tauiilili posted 16 tackles as the Blue Devils snapped a 25-game losing streak in ACC play with a 31-3 triumph over Virginia.

Tauiilili added one interception, one fumble recovery and one caused fumble and received National Defensive Player of the Week honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation. The Houston, Texas, native also moved into eighth place on Duke's all-time tackles chart with 340 career stops. The double figure tackle performance marked Tauiilili's second in 2008 and the 14th of his career.

The first half featured just six total points as the teams traded field goals — a 33-yarder by Virginia's Yannick Reyer and a 20-yard effort from Duke's Nick Maggio. In the third quarter, Duke rookie RB Jay Hollingsworth sparked the Blue Devil offense by carrying the football seven times for 35 yards and capping a 10-play, 55-yard drive with a 10-yard touchdown reception from QB Thaddeus Lewis to give the Blue Devils the lead.

Following an interception by Duke CB Leon Wright, Lewis marched the Blue Devils 62 yards in six snaps and hit WR Eron Riley for a 30-yard touchdown to push the lead to 17-3 with 3:37 left in the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, the Blue Devils extended their advantage to 24-3 when CB Jabari Marshall returned an interception 42 yards for a touchdown. Later in the period, Duke took advantage of another turnover when TE Tielor Robinson scored on the ground on one yard out to account for the final margin.

Lewis struggled for much of the opening half, hitting on just nine-of-20 throws for 73 yards and two interceptions. After intermission, the junior completed nine-of-12 tosses for 87 yards and two touchdowns. Hollingsworth finished the afternoon with a team-high 59 rushing yards on 15 carries. WR Austin Kelly caught a team-best four passes for 34 yards.

Duke's defensive forced five turnovers in the second half including four interceptions. LB Vincent Rey (11) and S Glenn Williams (10) joined Tauiilili in reaching double figures in the tackle column.

Wright added three pass breakups while DE Greg Akinbiyi was credited for one quarterback sack. The three points allowed marked Duke's lowest total in conference play since the Blue Devils shut out North Carolina in the 1989 season finale.

Virginia QB Marc Verica started for just the second time in his career and was 19-of-42 passing for 194 yards with four interceptions. LB Jon Cooper paced the Cavalier defense with 12 tackles while LB Clint Sintim posted six tackles including three sacks.

ATLANTA, Ga. — Georgia Tech's defense held Duke scoreless and FB Jonathan Dwyer rushed for a career-high 159 yards as the Yellow Jackets defeated the Blue Devils, 27-0, in front of 46,104 fans at Bobby Dodd Stadium in Atlanta, Ga.

Duke's offense managed just nine first downs and 132 yards of total offense while the Yellow Jackets posted 454 yards with a balanced attack headlined by Dwyer's rushing and QB Jaybo Shaw's 230-yard passing day. Shaw completed nine-of-14 passes — all to WR Demaryius Thomas — for 230 yards including an 88-yard scoring strike.

Georgia Tech drove to the Duke eight yard line on its opening possession of the game, but DE Greg Akinbiyi forced a fumble that was recovered by teammate Wesley Oglesby to thwart the scoring chance. The Yellow Jackets moved the ball to the Duke 30 yard line early in the second period, but lost possession when NG Clifford Respress stopped Shaw after a one-yard gain on fourth-and-three.

Shaw's 32-yard completion to Thomas highlighted Tech's 11-play, 61-yard drive that resulted in a 20-yard field goal by K Scott Blair with just under six minutes before halftime.

The Yellow Jackets went ahead 10-0 midway through the third quarter when Roddy Jones found the end zone from four yards out on the ground to cap a 10-snap, 57-yard drive. On the first play of the fourth period, Shaw scored on a two-yard run to push the lead to 17-0.

Shaw's long touchdown pass to Thomas and a 26-yard field goal from Blair accounted for the final margin.

For the Blue Devils, QB Thaddeus Lewis completed 15-of-28 tosses for 97 yards with one interception. WR Eron Riley caught a team-high five balls for 20 yards. The Duke defense was led by LB Michael Tauiiliili, who reached double digits in the tackle column for the 15th time in his career with an 11-stop outing that included two tackles for loss. Akinbiyi finished the day with seven tackles including three behind the line of scrimmage while DT Vince Oghobaase picked up five stops with one quarterback sack.

Dwyer averaged 6.9 yards per attempt with 159 yards on 23 carries. The Yellow Jackets maintained possession of the football for 38:46 of the game including 11:06 of the third quarter. Georgia Tech's defense posted 11 tackles behind the line of scrimmage, forced eight Duke punts and allowed just two third down conversions in 11 attempts.

DURHAM, N.C. — Miami QB Jacory Harris threw for four touchdowns and ran for another as the Hurricanes spoiled Duke's Homecoming with a 49-31 victory over the Blue Devils at Wallace Wade Stadium.

Harris came off the bench to complete 18-of-28 throws for 185 yards and added 53 yards on the ground. Miami scored 35 unanswered points in the second half to overcome a 17-14 halftime deficit to post their fifth straight win over the Blue Devils.

The Hurricanes jumped on top 7-0 late in the opening period when QB Robert Marve tossed a 17-yard scoring strike to WR Davon Johnson. The Blue Devils responded with an 11-play, 80-yard scoring drive to knot the game on QB Thaddeus Lewis' two-yard touchdown pass to RB Clifford Harris. The touchdown drive was keyed by Harris' 39-yard halfback pass to WR Eron Riley that gave Duke a first-and-goal at the Miami five yardline.

On the next possession, Marve was intercepted by Duke S Adrian Aye-Darko, and the Blue Devils took advantage by marching 77 yards on 10 snaps as Lewis scored from one yard out to give Duke a 14-7 lead. The Blue Devils went ahead 17-7 when K Nick Maggio booted a 40-yard field goal with 1:33 remaining in the half. The Hurricanes sent the teams to intermission with the scored 17-14 by driving 68 yards on eight plays at the end of the second quarter with Harris finding TE Chris Zellner for a nine-yard scoring pass.

The third quarter began with Aye-Darko's second interception of the day setting up another Duke touchdown. Harris was picked off on Miami's first snap from scrimmage, and Lewis hooked up with WR Raphael Chestnut for a 10-yard touchdown to push Duke ahead, 24-14.

Miami then scored 35 consecutive points with Harris throwing three touchdown passes in the spurt. The Hurricanes took advantage of good field position with scoring drives that covered 69, 59, 28, 55 and 46 yards, respectively.

Duke accounted for the final margin when QB Zack Asack capped a 12-play, 64-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown run late in the fourth period.

Lewis was 12-of-28 through the air for 130 yards with two touchdowns. Chestnut caught five balls for 48 yards while the Blue Devil ground attack was paced by RB Tony Jackson (69 yards) and Harris (56 yards). LB Michael Tauiiliili carded a team-high nine tackles.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Duke CB Chris Rwabukamba recorded the first interception of his career at the one yard line with less than one minute remaining in the game to preserve the Blue Devils' 10-7 victory over Vanderbilt.

Trailing by three points and facing second down-and-10 from the Duke 39 yard line, Vanderbilt QB Mackenzi Adams lofted a pass deep down the right-hand sideline that Rwabukamba snagged just outside the end zone with 38 seconds left on the clock. The Blue Devils then ran a pair of quarterback sneaks with Thaddeus Lewis to run out the clock and post their first road win over an SEC opponent since 1988.

The Blue Devils claimed a 7-0 lead late in the second quarter when Lewis found RB Tony Jackson for a 22-yard touchdown pass along the left sideline. The scoring toss — a pass that moved Lewis into a tie for fourth place on Duke's all-time list at 42 with Dave Brown — capped an eight-play, 60-yard drive that included a 14-yard completion to Jackson on third-and-11 from the Vanderbilt 36 yard line.

Midway through the third quarter, Duke forced and recovered a fumble on a punt return to gain possession at the Commodore 15 yard line. After allowing a sack on third down, the Blue Devils settled for a field goal, which K Nick Maggio knocked home from 42 yards out to push Duke ahead, 10-0.

After gaining just 96 yards of total offense through three quarters, Vanderbilt got on the scoreboard on the third snap of the final period when Adams connected with WR Sean Walker on a 79-yard touchdown pass to pull the Commodores to within three points. Vanderbilt's final three possessions of the game ended with a missed field goal, turnover on downs and Rwabukamba's interception as the Blue Devils earned their fourth victory of the season.

Lewis finished 21-of-36 through the air for 222 yards, with WR Eron Riley catching a game-high and career-best nine balls for 83 yards. WR Johnny Williams added four grabs for 39 yards while Jackson totaled three receptions for a career-high 74 yards. RB Jay Hollingsworth (10 carries, 39 yards) and Jackson (10 carries, 29 yards) paced the Duke rushing attack.

On defense, LB Vincent Rey led the charge with eight tackles as the Blue Devils held Vanderbilt to 16 points below its season average of 23.0 points per game entering the week. DE Ayanga Okpokowuruk added seven tackles and two quarterback sacks. In addition, P Kevin Jones was instrumental in the battle for field position by downing six of his seven punts inside the Vanderbilt 20 yard line.

For the Commodores, Adams completed 14-of-31 tosses for 210 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. Walker had six catches for 138 yards while RB Jared Hawkins rushed 11 times for a team-best 45 yards.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. — Wake Forest K Shane Popham booted a 28-yard field goal in overtime to lift the Demon Deacons to a 33-30 victory over Duke as a Homecoming crowd of 32,226 looked on at BB&T Stadium.

Following Popham's kick in the extra session, Wake Forest CB Alphonso Smith intercepted a Blue Devil pass in the end zone to preserve the win. Duke had a chance to win the game in regulation, but K Nick Maggio's 42-yard field goal attempt on the final snap was wide right.

The Demon Deacons were able to jump on top early, claiming a 7-0 lead when QB Riley Skinner scored from one yard out after Duke fumbled away the opening kickoff. After Duke drove 74 yards on 10 plays for a two-yard touchdown pass from QB Zack Asack to WR Donvon Varner, Wake Forest went ahead 9-7 when Smith blocked a Duke punt for a safety.

Wake Forest closed out the scoring in the first half when Popham connected on a 24-yard field and the Deacons led, 12-7, at intermission.

Midway through the third period, Wake Forest RB Brandon Pendergrass caps a 10-play, 46-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown run to push the Deacons ahead, 19-7. Duke answers with a scoring drive of its own when QB Thaddeus Lewis tossed a 33-yard strike to RB Clifford Harris, pulling the Blue Devils to within 19-14. The Devil defense then forced a punt, and Lewis directed a 10-snap, 70-yard march that ended when RB Jay Hollingsworth rumbled into the end zone from six yards out. Duke's two-point conversion failed and the Blue Devils held a 20-19 advantage.

The two teams then traded field goals before Skinner and WR D.J. Boldin combined for a 20-yard touchdown pass and two-point PAT as Wake Forest claimed a 30-23 lead with 10:16 left in the fourth period. Duke knotted the game at the 6:48 mark when Lewis hit Harris for a 20-yard touchdown pass.

On Wake Forest's next possession, the Deacons drove to the Duke 33 yard line, but CB Chris Rwabukamba knocked away a fourth down pass to give the Blue Devils possession. Lewis then marched Duke to the Wake Forest 24 yard line, but Maggio's kick was wide, forcing overtime.

Lewis finished the day hitting 18-of-26 passes for 229 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions. Hollingsworth (15-69) and RB Tony Jackson (12-63) spearheaded the ground attack while Riley and TE Brett Huffman each caught six passes.

For Wake Forest, Skinner was 18-of-31 through the air for 232 yards while Pendergrass picked up 64 rushing yards on 21 carries.

DURHAM, N.C. — N.C. State QB Russell Wilson threw for 218 yards and two touchdowns and CB J.C. Neal added an 94-yard kickoff return for a score as the Wolfpack defeated Duke, 27-17 at Wallace Wade Stadium.

The two teams traded field goals in the opening quarter with N.C. State K Josh Czajkowski booting a 22-yarder and Duke K Nick Maggio connecting from 29 yards out. Following Maggio's successful field goal, N.C. State used a reverse handoff on the ensuing kickoff that allowed Neal to race 89 yards down the right side for the go-ahead score.

Duke responded by marching to the Wolfpack 10 yardline, but RB Jay Hollingsworth was stopped short on fourth down to lose possession. Russell then guided N.C. State on a 12-play, 89-yard drive that resulted in a two-yard touchdown pass to TE Anthony Hill for a 17-3 lead.

After a 36-yard kickoff return by Jabari Marshall gave the Blue Devils possession at their own 43 yardline, Duke QB Thaddeus Lewis directed a three-snap, 57-yard drive that ended with a 26-yard scoring toss to TE Brett Huffman. Wilson put the Wolfpack ahead 24-10 at halftime by connecting with WR Jarvis Williams on a 32-yard touchdown pass with less than three minutes left in the second quarter.

Czajkowski's 32-yard field goal late in the third period pushed N.C. State ahead by a 27-10 count. Lewis hooked up with Hollingsworth for a four-yard touchdown pass late in the game to account for the final margin.

Duke outgained the Wolfpack on the day by a 411-377 margin, but the Blue Devils scored just twice in five trips inside the red zone and were 0-for-4 on fourth down conversions.

Lewis established career-best efforts for both pass completions (37) and attempts (52) while throwing for 317 yards and two touchdowns. The 37 completions mark the second-highest single-game total in Duke history, falling just one short of the standard of 38 set by Ben Bennett against Wake Forest in 1980. Lewis, who also led Duke in rushing with 41 yards on six attempts, utilized 11 different receivers with WR Eron Riley hauling in nine passes for 89 yards while Hollingsworth logged seven receptions for 80 yards.

On defense, LB Michael Tauiliili picked up a career-high 18 tackles.

N.C. State rushed for 159 yards with RBs Jamelle Eugene (11-92) and Andre Brown (16-57) getting the bulk of the carries. The Wolfpack defense was paced by DBs Jeremy Gray and DeAndre Morgan, who each posted 14 tackles.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Clemson RB C.J. Spiller accounted for 201 all-purpose yards and two touchdowns to lead the Tigers past Duke, 31-7, in front of a Homecoming crowd of 75,000 fans at Memorial Stadium.

Duke QB Thaddeus Lewis, who entered the game as the ACC leader in total offense, passing yardage and touchdowns, left the game midway through the first quarter after suffering a foot injury. He did not return to the contest. Backup Zack Asack filled in for the injured Lewis, completing 10-of-22 passes for 61 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions while rushing 10 times for 32 yards.

Spiller got the Tigers on the scoreboard first with a 24-yard touchdown run late in the opening period. At the 4:10 mark of the second quarter, Clemson K Mark Buchholz capped an 11-play, 52-yard drive with a 39 yard field goal. The Tigers went into halftime with a 17-0 advantage after RB James Davis found the end zone from one yard out with less than one minute remaining in the half.

The first half saw Clemson outgain the Blue Devils, 268-39, while producing 16 first downs.

Spiller scored on his first touch of the football in the third quarter by taking a screen pass from QB Cullen Harper and sprinting 83 yards for a touchdown. Davis scored on Clemson's next possession, rushing in from three yards out, to put the Tigers ahead, 31-0, with 9:28 left in the third quarter.

Duke accounted for the final margin when Asack hooked up with WR Eron Riley for a 28-yard touchdown pass at the 6:21 mark of the fourth period. Riley closed the afternoon with three catches for 51 yards with the scoring reception marking Riley's seventh of the year. He moved into a tie for third place with Cedric Jones (1978-81) on Duke's all-time chart with 21 career touchdown receptions.

Duke LB Michael Tauiliili posed a game-high 12 tackles to surpass the 400-tackle barrier for his career. The senior from Houston, Texas, ranks sixth on the school's career tackles list with 405 stops. Duke DT Vince Oghobase posted a pair of quarterback sacks while CB Glenn Williams had 11 tackles, one quarterback sack and one caused fumble.

On the afternoon, Spiller rushed 10 times for 71 yards, caught seven passes for 108 yards and returned two punts for 22 yards. Harper finished with 20 completions in 26 attempts for 292 yards while WR Aaron Kelly became the ACC's all-time leader in pass receptions with a 10-catch, 96-yard day. Clemson finished the game with 466 yards of total offense and controlled the football for 35:36.

BLACKSBURG, Va. — Virginia Tech QB Sean Glennon threw for 132 yards and one touchdown and CB Victor Harris returned an interception for another score as Virginia Tech defeated Duke, 14-3, on a cold evening in front of 66,233 fans at Lane Stadium.

With temperatures in the mid-to-upper 20s, the Blue Devils utilized an offensive gameplan that featured an option attack with backup QB Zack Asack filling in for injured starter Thaddeus Lewis. Duke rushed the football 40 times compared to just nine pass attempts, with Asack grinding out a career-high 87 yards on 24 carries.

Duke's defense was solid all evening long, forcing five turnovers and sacking the Hokie quarterbacks four times.

The Blue Devils scratched the scoreboard first when K Nick Maggio booted a 39-yard field goal at the 14:50 mark of the second period. The possession was set up when S Matt Daniels recovered a fumble at the Hokie 43 yard line. Asack highlighted the six-play, 22-yard drive with a 19-yard run to the Virginia Tech 22 yardline.

Virginia Tech claimed a 7-3 advantage just before intermission when Glennon directed an 11-play, 83-yard drive that ended with a 19-yard touchdown reception by WR Jarrett Boykin.

The two squads endured scoreless third period as the respective offensive units combined for 89 total yards and five first downs. In the final quarter, Duke forced three Hokie punts and took possession at its own 20 yardline with 1:31 on the clock trailing by four points. However, on the first play from scrimmage, Harris intercepted Asack's toss and returned it 23 yards for a touchdown to push the lead to 14-3. Asack also would throw an interception on Duke's final possession of the contest.

Duke RB Jay Hollingsworth added 24 rushing yards on eight attempts while Asack completed two-of-nine throws for 20 yards with four interceptions.

LB Vincent Rey paced the Blue Devil defense with a game-high 11 tackles while LB Michael Tauiliili posted nine stops, one sack, one interception, one quarterback pressure and three pass breakups. A pair of safeties — Matt Daniels and Catron Gainey — each logged two takeaways with one fumble recovery and one interception apiece.

For the Hokies, RB Darren Evans gained 111 yards on the ground on 24 carries while QB Tyrod Taylor and TE Greg Boone contributed 39 and 25 yards, respectively. Glennon was 12-of-20 through the air for 132 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Taylor was two-of-five throwing the football with two interceptions and two lost fumbles.

20

DURHAM, N.C. — North Carolina QB T.J. Yates threw three touchdown passes and the Tar Heel defense stopped Duke's potential game-tying drive with an interception for a 28-20 victory over the Blue Devils in front of 30,322 spectators at Wallace Wade Stadium.

Trailing by eight points, Duke took possession at its own 19 yardline with 2:21 left in the fourth quarter. Duke QB Thaddeus Lewis marched the Blue Devils to the Tar Heel 16 yard line with seven pass completions in eight attempts. However, on fourth-and-six from the 16, Lewis was forced out of the pocket and threw an off-balance pass that was intercepted by S Trimane Goddard, ending the threat.

Lewis guided the Blue Devils on a five-play, 63-yard drive on the opening possession of the contest and hit WR Eron Riley for an eight-yard touchdown less than two minutes into the game. North Carolina responded with a 10-snap, 73-yard scoring drive that ended when RB Shaun Draughn scored on the ground from four yards out.

The Duke defense then got into the scoring act when LB Vincent Rey recovered a fumble by Draughn and returned it 36 yards for a touchdown. The Tar Heels knotted the game at 14-14 with 1:41 left in the opening period when Yates hooked up with Draughn for an 11-yard touchdown pass.

In the second quarter, Yates hit WR Hakeem Nicks for a 25-yard scoring strike to give North Carolina a 21-14 lead at the 4:28 mark. The teams went to the dressing room with the Tar Heels ahead, 21-17, after Duke K Joe Surgan booted a career-long 55-yard field goal on the final snap of the first half.

The Blue Devils trimmed the Tar Heel advantage to one point with a 27-yard field goal by K Nick Maggio, but North Carolina countered with a seven-play, 67-yard drive that resulted in a 32-yard touchdown toss from Yates to TE Richard Quinn for a 28-20 lead. Following Quinn's touchdown, North Carolina held Duke to three consecutive three-and-out possessions and then caused back-to-back turnovers to preserve the victory.

Lewis would finish the night passing 34-of-49 for 278 yards with one touchdown and one interception. His top target was rookie WR Donvan Varner, who hauled in 10 passes for 73 yards as seven Blue Devils caught three or more passes. RB Jay Hollingsworth logged 111 all-purpose yards with nine carries for 50 yards on the ground and six catches for 61 yards.

Duke's defense was spearheaded by LB Michael Tauiliili, who was credited with a career-high 20 tackles in his final game.

Yates was 15-of-19 through the air for 190 yards while Draughn picked up 110 rushing yards on 29 attempts. LB Quan Sturdivant paced the Tar Heels with 13 tackles.

November 20, 1965

In head coach Bill Murray's final game, the Blue Devils down North Carolina, 34-7, to give Murray a share of his seventh ACC title ... Bob Matheson returns an interception 35 yards for a score while Jay Calabrese contributes three touchdowns ... Following the contest, Murray stunned the Blue Devils by telling them he was resigning after 15 years as the head coach at Duke.

October 7, 1967

With a 10-7 victory over Army at West Point, Duke earns the 300th win in program history.

November 22, 1969

Wide receiver Wes Chesson scores a 53-yard touchdown on the famous "shoestring" play to key a 17-13 win over North Carolina ... Quarterback Leo Hart pretends to tie his shoes while Chesson takes a pitch from end Marcel Courtillet and races to the end zone.

1970 Season

Quarterback Leo Hart becomes Duke's first three-time first team All-ACC selection after throwing for 2,236 yards ... The Kinston, N.C., native completes his career by completing 487-of-872 (.559) of his passes for 6,116 yards and 23 touchdowns ... In his final season, Hart threw for over 300 yards in Blue Devil victories over Clemson (318) and South Carolina (301).

October 2, 1971

In a battle of two top-20 teams, 19th-ranked Duke earns a 9-3 win on the road over 10th-ranked and defending Rose Bowl champion Stanford ... Ernie Jackson scores the game's only touchdown on a 54-yard interception return ... The Blue Devils play without star back Steve Jones, who missed the game due to injury ... Jones had rushed for 469 yards in Duke's first three games of the year prior to the trip to Palo Alto.

December, 1971

Standout defensive back Ernie Jackson is named the ACC Player of the Year after returning two of his four interceptions for touchdowns during the season ... Jackson also starred at running back during his final campaign, rushing for 181 yards against Navy in week seven.

November 18, 1972

Playing in his last game for Duke, running back Steve Jones gains 99 yards in a loss at North Carolina ... Jones, who held Duke's career rushing title until Chris Douglas eclipsed his total in 2003, gains 1,236 yards in 1972 on his way to capturing ACC Player of Year honors.

1974 Season

All-America linebacker Keith Stoneback registers 134 total tackles en route to earning his second consecutive Team MVP honor ... The two-year team captain also garners his second All-ACC citation.

1975 Season

For the fifth time in school history, Duke finishes the ACC season undefeated, landing six Blue Devils on the all-league first team ... Duke goes 3-0-2 in conference play to finish second.

October 16, 1976

Kicker Vince Fusco boots a single-game record six field goals in Duke's 18-18 tie with Clemson ... Included in his six successful field goals is a school-record 57-yarder, and the New York native also connects on kicks from 27, 22, 22, 25 and 37 yards out.

November 20, 1976

Duke and North Carolina combine for a record 720 rushing yards in the Tar Heels' 39-38 victory ... The game marked the last for Duke's Billy Bryan, an All-America center who went on to play 13 seasons with the Denver Broncos.

October 29, 1977

Quarterback Mike Dunn finds wide receiver Tom Hall for a seven-yard touchdown completion on fourth down with just 13 seconds remaining in the fourth period to cap a furious Blue Devil comeback and lift Duke to a 25-24 win over Georgia Tech in Atlanta ... The Blue Devils trail 24-9 after three quarters, but Hall catches seven of his eight passes in the final 15 minutes – including three on the game-winning drive – to propel Duke.

November 11, 1978

Scott McKinney kicks a 25-yard field goal and the Duke defense intercepts four passes as the Blue Devils defeat Wake Forest, 3-0.

The 1980s

Duke boasts four ACC Players of the Year during the 1980s: Chris Castor (1982), Ben Bennett (1983), Anthony Dilweg (1988) and Clarkston Hines (1989).

1980 Season

Freshman Ben Bennett becomes the only Duke player to be named ACC Rookie of the Year ... In his first year, Bennett throws for 2,050 yards and 11 touchdowns while breaking eight ACC and 15 school records ... His top passing game is a 469-yard outing against Wake Forest.

November 7, 1981

Duke has three players rush for over 100 yards in a 31-10 win at Wake Forest ... Blue Devils Mike Grayson (21-118), Joel Blunk (20-110) and Greg Boone (16-101) all top the 100-yard barrier on the day.

September 4, 1982

Blue Devil Greg Boone breaks a kickoff return for 100 yards and a touchdown against the Tennessee Volunteers in Duke's season-opening 25-24 win in Knoxville ... Under head coach Shirley "Red" Wilson, Duke would finish the season 6-5 for its second consecutive winning season.

November 20, 1982

Quarterback Ben Bennett's five-yard touchdown pass to tight end Carl Franks snaps a 17-17 tie and proves to be the game-winning points as the Blue Devils defeat North Carolina, 23-17 ... Bennett finishes the day with 273 yards through the air while running backs Mike Grayson and Greg Boone rush for 118 and 105 yards, respectively.

Summer of 1983

Former Duke quarterback Sonny Jurgensen, an 18-year NFL veteran who threw 255 touchdown passes, is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... The seventh all-time leading passer in NFL history is one of three Blue Devils enshrined in Canton, Ohio, joining Ace Parker (inducted in 1972) and George McAfee (inducted in 1966).

November 10, 1983

On Senior Day, Duke rallies from a 26-7 third quarter deficit to defeat N.C. State, 27-26, as Ben Bennett throws the game-winning touchdown pass to Mike Militello with 26 seconds remaining in the game ... Bennett enjoys an outstanding day by throwing for 442 yards through the air.

November 23, 1985

Wide receiver Doug Green catches three second-half touchdown passes – including two in the final two minutes – to guide Duke past North Carolina, 23-21, in Chapel Hill ... Green, who finishes with 10 receptions for 152 yards, grabs the game-winning score from Steve Slayden with just 1:10 left in the game as Duke rallies from a 21-3 late third quarter deficit ... Linebacker Mike Junkin preserves the victory with an interception.

1986 Season

Linebacker Mike Junkin establishes a school record for most tackles by a Blue Devil in a single season with 188 total stops ... The Belvidere, Ill., native received All-ACC and All-America honors for his efforts ... An eventual first round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns, Junkin would finish as Duke's all-time leader in tackles with 513.

October 1, 1988

In a 17-15 win over Vanderbilt, quarterback Anthony Dilweg throws for 349 yards to post his fifth straight game with 300 or more passing yards ... The ACC Player of the Year, Dilweg would finish the year with school-single-season records for passing yards (3,824), touchdowns (24) and 300-yard passing games (9) ... The following spring, he is selected in the third round of the 1989 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers.

September 30, 1989

Facing a 1-3 record and given a one in a million chance of winning by head coach Steve Spurrier, Duke defeats seventh-ranked Clemson, 21-17, for the first of seven consecutive wins en route to the ACC title ... Billy Ray's seven-yard touchdown pass to Chris Brown with 3:18 remaining in the game proves to be the difference.

October 28, 1989

Duke's Randy Cuthbert rushes 32 times for a then school-record 234 yards as the Blue Devils down the Yellow Jackets, 30-19, en route to the ACC Championship ... Of note, the two coaches in the contest – Steve Spurrier and Bobby Ross – would go on to capture national championships with Florida (1996) and Georgia Tech (1990), respectively.

DUKE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

November 18, 1989

Led by coach Steve Spurrier, Duke upends rival North Carolina, 41-0, in Chapel Hill to finish the year with seven straight wins and a share of the ACC championship ... Quarterback Dave Brown sets a school single-game standard with 479 passing yards in the contest ... With wide receiver Clarkston Hines setting school, ACC and NCAA reception records, the Blue Devils receive a bid to the All American Bowl.

September 14, 1991

In a 42-22 win over Rutgers, Wyatt Smith returns an interception 55 yards for a score to become Duke's all-time leader with three career returns for touchdowns ... Smith would end his career with 13 interceptions, a total which stands tied for second at Duke.

November 30, 1991

Under head coach Barry Wilson, Duke travels to Japan to play Clemson in the Coca-Cola Bowl ... The Blue Devils fall to the Tigers, 33-21, in front of 50,000 fans in Tokyo.

November 6, 1993

Duke races to a 21-0 lead and then holds on for a 21-20 victory ... N.C. State pulled within 21-20 with 2:19 remaining, and went for the victory with a two-point conversion attempt ... Geoff Bender's pass fell incomplete as Duke knocked off the 22nd-ranked Wolfpack.

1994 Season

First-year head coach Fred Goldsmith leads Duke to a 7-0 start, a No. 13 national ranking and its first New Year's Day bowl game in over 30 years as Robert Baldwin, Ray Farmer and Matt Williams earn All-America honors ... Duke would play in the Hall of Fame Bowl ... Baldwin garners ACC Player of the Year honors after rushing for 1,187 yards and 12 touchdowns while Goldsmith is named the ACC Coach of the Year.

September 3, 1994

Robert Baldwin rushes for a school single-game record 238 yards on 33 carries as the Blue Devils open the season with a 49-16 win over Maryland ... Baldwin's total eclipses the previous mark of 234 yards set by Randy Cuthbert against Georgia Tech in 1989.

IRON DUKES - 1938 DUKE FOOTBALL

Unbeaten • Untied • Unscored Upon

Duke's most famous squad is the 1938 team, nicknamed the Iron Dukes after rolling through the regular season unbeaten, untied and unscored upon. Since 1920, only three schools have accomplished the feat – Colgate in 1932, Duke in 1938 and Tennessee in 1939.

Guided by legendary head coach Wallace Wade, the Blue Devils secured the Southern Conference title and outscored its nine regular season foes by a 114-0 cumulative count. The term "Iron Dukes" was taken from Bill Cox, then a reporter for the Virginian Pilot.

In the regular season finale, the third-ranked Blue Devils hosted fourth-ranked Pittsburgh in front of 49,138 fans at Duke Stadium. Played in a snow storm, Duke won by a 7-0 score with the lone touchdown coming when Bolo Perdue blocked a Pittsburgh punt and recovered it in the end zone. The game featured 16 punts by Duke's Eric Tipton, with 14 of them pinning Pitt inside its own 20 yard line.

Duke then traveled to Pasadena, Calif., for the Rose Bowl, where a late touchdown – the first points given up by the Blue Devils all season – by Southern California propelled the Trojans to a 7-3 win in front of 93,000.

Tipton and Dan Hill served as team captains of the famed team, and both earned first team All-America honors. Robert O'Mara was the top offensive threat, rushing for 703 yards on 162 attempts and scoring a team-best five touchdowns. Tipton added 577 rushing yards on 129 carries.

1942 ROSE BOWL GAME

Duke vs. Oregon State

Following the bombing of Pearl Harbor in December of 1941, large crowds were not allowed to assemble on the West Coast. This action forced the Rose Bowl to look for an alternate location for its contest, and bowl officials accepted an offer from Duke to have the game in Durham, marking the only time the game has not been played in Pasadena.

Duke Stadium served as the site of the 1942 Rose Bowl, a tilt that pitted the Blue Devils against Oregon State. Duke had won the Southern Conference championship and was a perfect 9-0 on the season, while the Beavers were champions of the Pac 10.

With the score knotted at 14-14 in the third quarter, Oregon State took the lead for good when Gene Gray hauled in a 68-yard touchdown pass from Bob Dethman. After a safety pulled the Blue Devils within 20-16, Duke got inside the Oregon State 35 yard line three times, but could not score.

Steve Lach, who finished with 124 rushing yards on 12 attempts, and Winston Siegfried scored touchdowns for Duke while Tom Davis added 80 yards.

The Rose Bowl appearance marked Duke's second in four seasons under Wallace Wade, and capped another outstanding season for the Blue Devils. Lach received first team All-America honors while tackle Frank Ribar and center Bob Barnett, the team's captain, were named to the second and third team squads, respectively.

The Blue Devils' famed "Iron Dukes", with co-captains Dan Hill and Eric Tipton leading the way, entered the Rose Bowl having completed the regular season unbeaten, untied and unscored upon, but Southern Cal ruined that perfect season in the final minute of Duke's first bowl appearance.

Coach Wallace Wade said, "I hated to see the boys lose it when they played such a great game. We did well as long as they used only two teams, but when they put in those third and fourth teams, they were too much for us."

But Duke probably won more national fans that day than they would have had they won. Bill Stern's NBC radio broadcast went into homes here and abroad and millions of fans mourned with the Blue Devil faithful.

The game itself rocked back and forth for three quarters, mostly a punting duel between Granny Lansdell and Mickey Anderson of the Trojans and Tipton of the Blue Devils.

Late in the third quarter, Lansdell booted one to George McAfee who returned it 26 yards to the Trojan 49, and two plays later, McAfee took a pass from Tipton and went to the USC 25.

After Roger Robinson, Tipton and Bob O'Mara had picked up nine yards in three rushes, Tony Ruffa booted a field goal and Duke led, 3-0, with just a minute played in the fourth quarter.

With seven minutes remaining in the game, a Duke fumble gave the Trojans the ball on the Blue Devil 10-yard line, but three plays later they were back at the 15-yard line and then missed a 24-yard field goal attempt.

It looked like Duke had it, but with two minutes to go and the Trojans on the Duke 35, coach Howard Jones sent in Doyle Nave, their number four quarterback. He simply completed three straight passes to Al Krueger, their number two left end, with the clincher coming from the 16-yard line.

But the game was not over. On the very last play, Tipton threw a forward pass to McAfee who went 17 yards to the Trojan 40-yard line where the final Trojan caught him.

USC's winning touchdown ended Duke's defensive domination after the Blue Devils had held opponents scoreless in the previous nine games.

Anthony J. McKevelin, sports editor of the Raleigh News & Observer reported that "the fans who jammed the huge Rose Bowl got more than they expected. They were treated to a football battle worthy of the setting. Long will they talk about this game, and always the talk of the great play of the Blue Devils will be words of praise."

The Duke starting lineup included Bolo Perdue (left end), Frank Ribar (left tackle), Fred Yorke (left guard), Hill (center), Allen Johnson (right guard), Bob Haas (right tackle), Bill Bailey (right end), Bob Spangler (quarterback), Willard Eaves (left halfback), Tipton (right halfback) and O'Mara (fullback).

The Blue Devils became one of just three teams since 1920 to go through the regular season unbeaten, untied and unscored upon, joining Colgate in 1932 and Tennessee in 1939.

The 1942 Rose Bowl game is like no other in the history of this famous contest. Large crowds had been banned on the West Coast due to the Japanese bombing of Pearl Harbor, and bowl officials accepted an offer from Duke to host the game in Durham, making this the only time the game has ever been played outside of Pasadena.

Often called the most hectic week in Durham's history, the final days leading to the transplanted 1942 Rose Bowl only served as a prelude to what transpired on the field of play. Not even a steady rain that chilled the 56,000 spectators at Duke Stadium could detract from a marvelously contested affair between the Southern Conference champion Blue Devils and the invaders from Oregon State.

Coach Wallace Wade's team, during a 9-0 regular season, averaged 34.5 points a game and scored at least 50 three times, making them the second-highest scoring club in the country.

The Blue Devils promptly fumbled away the opening kickoff to their guests. That play certainly set the tone for the rest of the afternoon.

The Beavers' first scoring march started on their own 49 and proceeded to inside the Duke 20 before it ran into a snag at the 15. It was third down and eight to go and everyone in the stadium knew it was a passing down except Don Durdan. He took the toss from center and dropped back a few feet as if to pass. Duke's onrushing linemen stormed in but were caught by surprise when Durdan took off running around the right and crossed the goal line without being touched.

Steve Lach scored Duke's first touchdown, scampering into the end zone on a reverse from four yards out. Durham's own Bob Gantt converted the extra point to tie the score at 7-7.

The third period featured three touchdowns. The first one was the direct result of two big plays, with Gene Gray carrying the ball 24 yards from his own 45 to Duke's 31. After a four-yard running play and an offside penalty, left halfback Bob Dethman shot a pass to left end George Zellick for the touchdown.

Duke struck back only two minutes later. Lach turned in the key yardage by bolting 39 yards on another reverse to put the ball at the Beaver 25. After a Lach run and a penalty, Siegfried plunged in with no difficulty from the one-yard line and Tommy Prothro booted an extra point to tie the score again.

Just two plays after taking the Duke kickoff, Dethman rifled a deep pass from his own 32 down to the Duke 28. Gray sprinted to the end zone to complete the 68-yard play that won the game.

Duke added a safety in the fourth quarter when Durdan was swarmed by five Duke players on a bad snap from center. Duke threatened offensively throughout the final period, three times advancing inside the Oregon State 35 and once to the 20 before George Peters intercepted a pass. The game ended with Dethman intercepting a Rute pass, with the score 20-16.

DUKE BOWL GAMES

1945 SUGAR BOWL

January 1, 1945 • New Orleans, La.

DUKE
ALABAMA

29
26

In a game that sportswriter Grantland Rice called, "one of the greatest thrillers of all time," the Blue Devils were forced to come from behind twice in the Sugar Bowl.

Despite its 5-4 record, Duke again was cast in the favorite's role. After a 61-7 crunching of Richmond in the season opener, Duke lost in succession to Pennsylvania, North Carolina Pre-Flight, Navy and Army. The Blue Devils had gained much prestige with their showings against the service academies and was the only team to hold a lead on Army all season.

Duke's explosive offense, nicknamed the "Whiz Kids" for its speed and wide-open style of play, was led by running backs Tom Davis and George Clark as Davis picked up 101 yards on 27 carries and Clark 123 on 14 with each adding two touchdowns.

The lead changed hands four times and Coach Eddie Cameron, who was in charge of the Blue Devils during Wallace Wade's war absence, found his team down 19-7 midway in the second quarter. The score was not ultimately settled until the final play when Duke's Gordon Carver pulled down an Alabama receiver on the 24-yard line as the clock expired.

As expected, Cameron's charges started the game with a flurry, scoring the first touchdown just 2:25 into the contest. It took only five plays for the Blue Devils to cross the goal line. Clark returned the opening kickoff and then ran around left end on the first play for a gain of 52 yards. Three plays later, Clark scrambled for the TD with a PAT success from Harold Raether.

Alabama, led by quarterback Harry Gilmer who completed all eight of his passes for 142 yards, came back with three straight scores for a 19-7 lead.

It was now time for a Duke comeback, and Cameron decided to try the passing attack. He installed Cliff Lewis and he promptly engineered a 63-yard scoring drive. Lewis pitched once to Raether for 13 yards, then to Carver for 15. Next, Lewis ran around the right side for 26 yards to the 2-yard line. Davis scored the TD and made it a 19-13 halftime deficit.

Duke returned to its more traditional power tactics after the break with the fullback Tom Davis carrying the ball on 11 of the 12 plays of the first drive of the second half. He capped the 64-yard drive with a one-yard TD plunge, putting Duke back ahead 20-19.

The Blue Devils started a fourth quarter drive at the Tide 30-yard line when Lewis, looking to pass to Carver, threw wildly and was intercepted by Alabama's Hugh Morrow who ran it back 78 yards for a score. Then he hit the extra point to make it 26-20.

Alabama took possession with just under three minutes to play and elected to take a safety on first down to avoid any gambles on a bad pass from center. The result was disastrous as Clark took the ensuing free kick and brought it all the way back to the Alabama 39.

Larue followed with a 19-yard gain on a reverse to set the stage for a dramatic, game-winning 20-yard run by Clark for the 29-26 final score.

Seeing their first bowl action in 10 years, the Blue Devils, champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference, represented the league in the Orange Bowl and came away with an impressive 34-7 win over Nebraska.

It was Duke's rushing game that proved too tough for the 'Huskers as the Blue Devils tallied 288 yards to Nebraska's 84. Duke gained 370 total yards to the slim 110-yard attack that Nebraska mounted.

After a scoreless first quarter, Duke unleashed a relentless offensive attack. On the first possession of the second quarter, captain Jerry Barger directed Duke 65 yards to its first score. The senior quarterback hit end Sonny Sorrell with a 22-yard pass for the biggest gainer of the drive. Left halfback Bob Pascal had an 11-yard run in the series and climaxed the march with a seven-yard jaunt around the end untouched. Jim Nelson's extra point made it 7-0 with 11 minutes to play in the first half.

Later in the quarter, Nebraska's number two quarterback, Don Erway, tried to pass from his own 20-yard line. Duke fullback Bryant Aldridge intercepted downfield and returned the ball to the 21, and three plays later the Blue Devils were on top 14-0. Jerry Kocourek scored the TD on a perfect two-yard pass from Barger just 28 seconds before halftime.

"That intercepted pass gave us that second touchdown and put us on the ice," said head coach Bill Murray. "Nebraska had a good, tough team. But we got the big break. Nebraska gave us the big chance with that pass and we took advantage of it."

After Nebraska made it 14-7 in the third quarter, Duke took the next kickoff and drove 65 yards in eight plays to go up 20-7. On their next possession, following a Nick McKeithan interception and 25-yard return, the Blue Devils went 11 yards and made it 27-7, getting the TD on the first play of the fourth period. The very next time they got their hands on the ball, they went 51 yards in ten plays to close out the scoring for the 34-7 margin.

Sorrell hauled in a 17-yard scoring strike from Barger to get that third TD, following a nice 29-yard run by Pascal. McKeithan got the fourth score on a one-yard buck through the line then Sam Ebert climaxed the 51-yard drive with a three-yard run for the fifth and final score.

Many of the record 68,750 spectators started leaving the stands when Duke made it 27-7. That was of little concern to Murray, however, as he completely cleared his bench and allowed all 36 players who dressed for the game to play in it.

"I knew we'd have to play our best to stand a chance of beating Duke," said Nebraska head coach Bill Glasford. "But we came up with a stinking performance and got spanked. That Duke line outcharged us. Those linemen were on top of our ball carriers before they got started."

Duke found its return trip to the Orange Bowl a little sour in 1958.

First of all, 1957 marked the last year that the ACC would send its champion to the Orange Bowl, and Duke made it because league leader N.C. State was on NCAA probation. On top of that, the Blue Devils were paired against highly-favored and 4th-ranked Oklahoma.

Duke, which started out the 1957 campaign with a 5-0 record but ended the regular season 6-2-2, kept pace with the 9-1 Sooners through the first three quarters.

No one, however, could have expected the game to be decided the way it was — by the Sooners turning six Duke mistakes into touchdowns.

Duke served up the Sooners' first two scores as Oklahoma built an early 14-0 lead. Blue Devil mistakes also accounted for the Sooners' final four as Oklahoma scored 27 points in the fourth quarter to break open a 21-14 nail biter. The six strikes came on quick conversions of two Duke fumbles, two Duke interceptions, a blocked punt and a wild snap from center.

Oklahoma's first conversion came after Duke moved deep into Sooner territory. Quarterback George Harris tossed a wild pass into the right flat which David Baker picked off at the six-yard line and ran it back 94 yards for paydirt.

Soon after, Oklahoma was back in the scoring column after a bad snap in punt formation which Clendon Thomas took at the Duke 13-yard line and returned for a 14-0 lead.

To Duke's credit, the Blue Devils responded with fury and took the ball 65 yards in seven plays for a score to make it 14-7 at the half. Key plays in the drive included Wray Carlton's 20-yard run and a twisting 17-yard run by George Dutrow that put the ball on the three. Team captain Hal McElhaney scored the first two times he touched the ball in this game.

Both teams scored in the third quarter with Oklahoma first on a six-inch sneak by Carl Dodd. He set up the score with 36-yard punt return to the Duke 14.

Duke cameright back and pushed its way with authority through the Oklahoma defense for 85 yards on 11 plays. Pryor Millner's passing and Dutrow's running ate up the yardage. Then Dutrow circled around the end eight yards for the score behind a jarring block by Roy Hord.

After that, very little went right for Duke. Two fumbles, a blocked punt and an interception all spelled doom in the fourth quarter.

Running backs Wray Carlton and George Dutrow led the way for the Blue Devils with 84 and 69 yards, respectively.

Overall, Duke outrushed the Sooners 231-165 and ran more plays, 69-44, but the final score was all Oklahoma.

ARKANSAS

Duke won its fourth ACC football title in 1960 and landed squarely in its first Cotton Bowl. But don't get the impression that the Blue Devils and their 7-3 record rolled into Dallas on a high note. Coach Murray's team lost its last two regular season games and had plenty to prove when it met Arkansas.

Two of the nation's premier passing teams were to showcase their aerial talents, but it was defense that proved to be the final factor. Quarterback Don Altman led the Blue Devil attack as the Blue Devils captured a narrow 7-6 victory over Arkansas in Duke's only trip to the Cotton Bowl.

The first ever tilt with the Hogs marked one of Duke's all-time great comeback victories. The Blue Devils didn't have far to come back from but they waited until the very end and did it in a dramatic fashion.

After a scoreless first half, Arkansas' great back, Lance Alworth, ended the shutout with 2:53 remaining in the third period by returning a Duke punt 49 yards for a touchdown. Duke stopped the extra point when Dave Unser broke through the line to smother the attempt.

Finally, Duke's offense came to life in the fourth quarter. Arkansas had yielded only one touchdown in its final four regular season contests. Duke knew the yards would come tough, and they did. The Blue Devils managed only 189 yards for the game and 73 came on one drive.

Duke's game winning touchdown drive came in the face of this defense and can only be called remarkable. With gritty determination, the Blue Devils marched 73 yards into the teeth of the Razorbacks and scored with just 2:45 to play. Altman engineered the drive which featured no long gains and took 18 snaps to accomplish. Two of those plays were fourth down conversions and six were passes hauled in by All-America end Claude "Tee" Moorman.

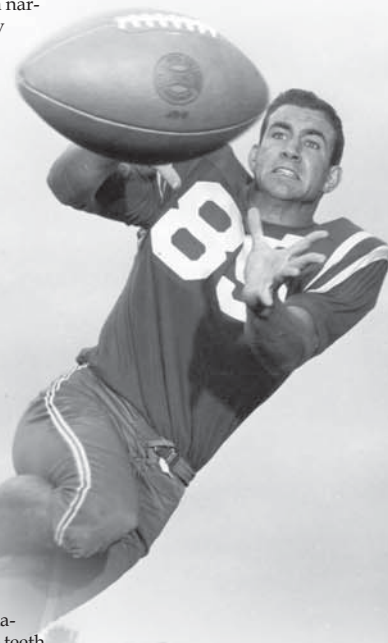

Three plays leading up to the TD were considered especially devastating from the Razorbacks' side of the field. First, there was a seven-yard pass from Altman to Bob Spada after Altman had appeared to be trapped for a long loss. Then, Duke had third-and-three on the Arkansas 30-yard line and the Hogs suspected a pass in the flat to Moorman. They guessed right with Alworth getting his hands on the ball only to have Moorman struggle it away but for a three-yard loss.

That set up fourth down and Altman calmly found Dean Wright in the clear and hit him with a pass good for 11 yards.

Four plays later came the tying touchdown pass, and it involved just a little tomfoolery. The play went down in the scoring summary as a nine-yard pass from Altman to Moorman, but there were two spur-of-the-moment wrinkles on this play. The play, 31-rollback, had been used before with Altman pitching it to the halfback who then pitches it back before entering the line and Altman peels left to find his receiver.

Altman called the play and got the ball back but curled to his right where he found a wide open Moorman who had faked Alworth with a look in and a cut out — the opposite of the usual play.

Captain Art Browning then came in to kick the extra point — perfect.

1989 ALL-AMERICAN BOWL

TEXAS TECH
DUKE

After sharing the ACC title and making its first bowl appearance in over 25 years, Duke had its sights set on the first nine-win season since the Rose Bowl team of 1941.

The Blue Devils came into the game winners of seven straight after a 1-3 start. The record-setting squad was led by ACC Coach of the Year Steve Spurrier and his "Airball" attack featuring All-America wide receiver Clarkston Hines.

Texas Tech running back James Gray quickly dashed those thoughts, though, as the Red Raiders scored the first four touchdowns of the contest to take an early 28-0 lead and set the tone for an eventual 49-21 Duke loss.

The first 20 minutes were dominated by Texas Tech, which finished with 339 first-half yards, and Gray, who set an All American Bowl record with three touchdowns in one half. Duke turned the ball over three times and fell behind 28-0 before a quick rally made it 28-14 at the half.

Sophomore quarterback Dave Brown came in to lead Duke on two quick scoring strikes. The first drive took but 25 seconds and two plays with Bud Zuberer hauling in a 30-yard pass down the right sideline with 8:03 left in the half. The second took 50 seconds and four plays, with Dave Colonna catching a 25-yard scoring pass over the middle with 2:31 to go in the half.

Brown finished the night completing 17-of-30 pass attempts for 268 yards and three touchdowns.

Duke had 416 total yards on 59 plays from scrimmage while Texas Tech ran 82 plays for 523 yards.

Duke had one last first-half possession, starting at its 39 with 31 seconds remaining. The Blue Devils tried their "huddle play" — four players gathering around the ball in the backfield but Brown was dropped for a seven-yard loss.

Texas Tech quickly regained the second half momentum. The Red Raiders stayed on the ground for 11 plays and 62 yards and capped the 6:12 drive with a one-yard run by reserve Anthony Lynn.

The Red Raiders upped the lead to 42-14 entering the fourth quarter.

Hines finished his Duke career with another stellar performance, catching six passes for 112 yards while Duke's 1,000-yard rusher, Randy Cuthbert, could manage just 32 yards on five attempts. A two-time All-America pick and the 1989 ACC Player of the Year, Hines ended his career as Duke's all-time leader in career catches, yards, touchdowns and 100-yard receiving games.

The game also was Spurrier's last as the coach of the Blue Devils. He took over the Florida program, his alma mater, following the season. The two-time ACC Coach of the Year pick finished his Duke head coaching career with a 20-13-1 record.

1995 HALL OF FAME BOWL

WISCONSIN
DUKE

The Blue Devils battled back from a disastrous first quarter to tie Wisconsin at 13-13 in the second half of the 1995 Hall of Fame Bowl. But when push came to shove, it was the Badgers' huge offensive line that did the pushing and shoving, paving the way for the 241 rushing yards by Terrell Fletcher and a 34-20 Wisconsin win.

Wisconsin opened the scoring just six minutes into the contest when Jeff Messinger returned a Spence Fischer interception 19 yards for a Badger touchdown. Fischer actually had three interceptions in the game's first eight minutes after throwing just five interceptions in Duke's last nine regular season games.

The Duke defense kept the game close with a fourth down hold at the Duke 3 and then forcing Wisconsin to kick two long field goals in the first quarter.

Fischer rebounded in the second frame, directing the Blue Devils to two scoring drives, including a 13-play, 90-yard drive capped by a Robert Baldwin 7-yard run for paydirt. At the end of the half placekicker Tom Cochran was true on a 30-yard effort to make it just 13-10 heading into the locker room.

Duke responded in the second half with another Cochran field goal 6:30 into the third quarter to tie the score at 13 apiece.

After that, the Badgers' offensive line took full force, marching 78 yards on 10 plays - all on the ground to take a 19-13 lead. Ray Farmer blocked the point after to leave the Blue Devils just six behind. Wisconsin scored the eventual winning score midway through the fourth quarter when quarterback Darrell Bevell hooked up with Jason Burns for an 11-yard touchdown. The two-point conversion made it 27-13.

Even then, the Blue Devils were not through. Fischer rallied the Blue Devils to an 80-yard scoring march on 10 plays, topped by another Baldwin scoring run with just 4:10 to play.

Duke's defense couldn't hold in the end. On third and one at the Duke 49-yard line with just barely two minutes to play, Fletcher galloped 49 yards for paydirt and the clincher for the Badgers.

On the offensive side of the ball, Duke turned to its passing game and the arm of quarterback Spence Fischer. Fischer completed 28-of-46 passes for 314 yards, connecting with tight end Bill Khayat 11 times for 109 of those yards. Wide receiver Jon Jensen had six catches for 97 additional yards.

However, the Blue Devils could not get a throw into the endzone, as Duke's two touchdowns came from the rushing efforts of Robert Baldwin, the 1994 ACC Player of the Year and third team All-America pick, who rushed for 70 yards on 21 carries on the day.

"Our players fought back from adversity and kept the outcome in doubt until the final two minutes," said Goldsmith, the 1994 National Coach of the Year.

ALL-STAR GAMES

Mike Suglia Award

The Mike Suglia Award is presented annually to the sophomore member of the Duke football program who best exemplifies the qualities of the late Mike Suglia. Mike Suglia was an offensive lineman at Duke in 1976-77 who died suddenly during the spring of his sophomore year. In giving this award to a current sophomore, the Duke football program recalls the effort and dedication that Mike brought to everything he did and recognize that those qualities live on in this year's recipient.

BEN BENNETT - ACC LEGEND

One of the legends in ACC football history, Ben Bennett enjoyed a phenomenal career at Duke from 1980-83 and continues to hold school standards for career passes attempted (1,375), passes completed (820), passing yards (9,614) and touchdown passes (55) ... A third team All-America choice in 1983, the Sunnyvale, Calif., native is one of just three players in ACC gridiron history to earn league Rookie of the Year and Player of the Year honors, joining Philip Rivers of N.C. State and Calvin Johnson of Georgia Tech ... Bennett showcased his signal-calling skills as a freshman in 1980 when he set school single-game records for pass completions (38) and passing yards (469) in a 27-24 loss to Wake Forest ... He would go on to twice receive first team All-ACC honors in 1982 and 1983, and finished his career as the NCAA's all-time leading passer with 9,614 yards ... Bennett is one of just four players in the ACC since 1970 to lead the league in total offense for consecutive seasons, and continues to rank among the league's all-time leaders in total offense, passing yardage, touchdown passes, passes attempted, passes completed, 300-yard passing games and 400-yard passing games ... After representing Duke in the prestigious Hula and Japan Bowls, Bennett was a sixth round choice of the Atlanta Falcons in the 1984 NFL Draft, played with the Cincinnati Bengals, Dallas Cowboys and Chicago Bears, and then went on to a Hall of Fame career in the Arena Football League.

CHRIS DOUGLAS - DUKE'S ALL-TIME LEADING RUSHER

Duke's all-time leading rusher, Chris Douglas etched his name into the ACC record books as one of the league's most versatile running backs in conference history ... The Sherrills Ford, N.C., product is one of just four players in ACC history to register 500-plus rushing yards and 20-plus pass receptions in four seasons, joining Robert Lavette (Georgia Tech; 1981-84), Warrick Dunn (Florida State; 1993-96) and Leon Johnson (North Carolina; 1993-96) ... Douglas, who is Duke's all-time leader in all-purpose yards (5,748) and rushing attempts (695) as well as rushing yards (3,122), also ranks among the school's career leaders in 100-yard rushing games (3rd with 10) and rushing touchdowns (4th with 21) ... He earned All-ACC recognition twice in his career as an honorable mention pick in 2001 and a first team selection in 2003, and was tabbed to the Academic All-ACC Football unit three times ... The last three weeks of his collegiate career were certainly memorable: On November 8 in Durham, Douglas rushed for a career-high 218 yards and two touchdowns in Duke's 41-17 win over Georgia Tech ... One week later at Clemson, he surpassed Steve Jones as Duke's all-time leading rusher, and then in his final game as a Blue Devil on November 22 in Chapel Hill, Douglas rushed for 119 yards and one touchdown in a 30-22 victory over North Carolina, snapping a 13-game losing streak to the Tar Heels ... Douglas, who earned the Jim Tatum Award as the ACC's top football-playing senior student-athlete, signed a free agent contract with the NFL's New York Giants in May of 2004.

RECEIVING RECORDS

ACC GREAT - CLARKSTON HINES

One of the greatest wide receivers in NCAA history, Clarkston Hines twice earned first team All-America honors in 1988 and 1989 ... The 1989 ACC Player of the Year, Hines continues to hold league records for career touchdown receptions (38) and career 100-yard receiving games (17) and is the only player in the history of the conference to have posted three consecutive seasons with at least 1,000 receiving yards ... His 38 touchdown catches also rank tied for eighth all-time in NCAA history, and Hines is one of only three Blue Devils to earn first team All-ACC honors in three seasons ... A native of Chapel Hill, N.C., and graduate of The Bolles School in Jacksonville, Fla., Hines closed out his sensational career in 1989 with 61 receptions for school single-season records of 1,149 yards and 17 TDs.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Ted Mann Press Box at Wallace Wade Stadium

Glenn E. (Ted) Mann Press Box

Named after former Sports Information Director Ted Mann, the Duke press box is located on the third floor of the Finch-Yeager Building on the west side of Wallace Wade Stadium. Admittance is by credential only for the news media and press box personnel.

Cheering in the press box will not be tolerated. Violators of this policy will be asked to leave.

A pregame meal is provided approximately two hours before kickoff with refreshments available throughout the game.

A charter inductee of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame, Mann served the Duke athletic department for almost 47 years before retiring in 1973.

Press Credentials

All media attending Duke football home games must apply for and be issued press credentials. Requests for credentials should be made in advance by mail or fax on company stationery and directed to Sports Information Director Art Chase.

Priority is given to daily newspapers, major magazines and electronic media in the geographic areas of the competing teams. Duke reserves the right to refuse any credential request deemed not to be in the best interest of the University.

Media Parking & Will Call

The media parking lot is located to the west of the Wallace Wade Stadium in the Lot P off of Highway 751. The media Will Call is located at the West Gate of Wallace Wade Stadium.

Telephones

Courtesy telephones are installed for media use along press row in the Glenn E. "Ted" Mann Press Box. The phones are available on a first-come, first-served basis and will accept collect calls or a credit card for billing.

Additional lines can be ordered through Janet Madsen at (919) 681-6871.

CollegePressBox.com

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for ACC football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its 12 member schools throughout the season. Media members can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

Clifford Harris addresses the media following Duke's 31-7 win over James Madison in 2008

Interview Procedures

Student-Athletes: All interviews with Duke football players must be arranged through the Sports Information Office. Player interviews will be available Tuesday and Wednesday during a typical game week.

Coach Cutcliffe: All interviews with head coach David Cutcliffe can be arranged through Art Chase at (919) 684-2614.

ACC Weekly Teleconference

The ACC will conduct a weekly teleconference for all 12 head coaches of the conference. Media members can listen and ask questions each Wednesday beginning at 10:30 a.m. Because this service is for the media only, the phone number can only be given out by the ACC Media Relations office at (336) 851-6062.

The ACC teleconference will begin on Wednesday, August 26.

10:30	Frank Spaziani, Boston College
10:40	Dabo Swinney, Clemson
10:50	David Cutcliffe, Duke
11:00	Bobby Bowden, Florida State
11:10	Paul Johnson, Georgia Tech
11:20	Ralph Friedgen, Maryland
11:30	Randy Shannon, Miami
11:40	Butch Davis, North Carolina
11:50	Tom O'Brien, N.C. State
12:00	Al Groh, Virginia
12:10	Frank Beamer, Virginia Tech
12:20	Jim Grobe, Wake Forest

Football Practices

The Duke football team conducts practice Sunday and Tuesday through Friday during the regular season.

Practices are open briefly for photographers but are otherwise closed to the media. Interviews are available following practice sessions.

Locker Room Policy

The Duke lockerroom is closed to the media at all times.

Following all home games, David Cutcliffe and selected student-athletes will address the media in the team meeting room on the second floor of the Yoh Football Center. Road accommodations for Coach Cutcliffe and Duke players to meet with the media will be made based on the facility.

Coach David Cutcliffe's Duke Football Show

Coach David Cutcliffe's Duke Football Show is produced by ISP Sports.

The 30-minute program features head coach David Cutcliffe and highlights of every Duke football game. For broadcast information, please contact the Duke Sports Information Office.

The Duke ISP Sports Network

A state-wide radio audience follows all the action of Blue Devil football on The Duke ISP Sports Network.

Hall of Fame broadcaster Bob Harris, the voice of the Blue Devils for 33 seasons, calls all the action for Duke fans each game.

Analyst Wes Chesson is in his 29th season providing color commentary. Chesson, an All-ACC receiver from 1968-70, holds five Duke receiving records, hauling in 164 catches for 2,399 yards in his career. He went on to play with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and Philadelphia Eagles.

Anthony Dilweg, the 1988 ACC Player of the Year, joins the broadcast team for his 11th season, serving as the sideline reporter. The former Duke quarterback established school single-season records for passing yards (3,824) and touchdowns (24) in 1988 and was a third round selection of the Green Bay Packers in the 1989 NFL Draft.

The one-hour tailgate show is hosted by John Roth while John Rose is the network engineer.
